NOW CUT OFF BY HURRICANE

Mobile and Pensacola Fast in Grip of a Furious Tropical Storm.

WIND VELOCITY UP TO 98 MILES HOUR

Gale Increased in Intensity as It Sweeps Inland from the Gulf.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 18.—A message received here shortly before 9 o'clock this morning by the Postal Telegraph company from Mobile, stated the wind there at that time was blowing ninety miles an hour. All telegraph and telephone connections between Mobile and New Orleans was lost after 9 a. m. d

An east to southeast gale was blowing ninety-eight miles an hour at Fort Morgan, Ala., at the entrance to Mobile bay, at 6:45 this morning, according to a radio message received here today. The message stated the wind averaged ninety miles with occasional gusts reaching ninety-eight. The storm struck Fort Morgan about 4 a. m.

Increasing in Intensity.

The report from Pensacola, together with reports from Mobile, was considered as indicating the center of the tropical hurricane might sweep inland from the gulf somewhere near Pensacola.

Efforts to reach Pensacola from New Orleans by telegraph and telephone failed after 8 o'clock. The wire companies reported the storm appeared to be increasing in violence there when connection was lost.

Rainfall of 11.88 inches was recorded at Burwood, La., during the last twenty-four hours.

ASK U. S. TO TAKE OVER INTERESTS IN ATHENS

Central Powers in Request for Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

Athens, Oct. 18.—On the initiative of the Central empires, Washington has been asked to permit the American legation here to take charge of Austrian, Bulgarian and Turkish interest in case of a declaration of war by Greece or other complications. Permission has been given as regards Austria.

Three hundred French marines were transferred yesterday from the municipal theater to the Zappeion exposition building, within 400 yards of the king's palace. They marched through the streets with bayonets fixed and trumpets blowing, accompanied by moving picture apparatusand an automobile with Franco-British secret police. The front of the larger palace structure is occupied by prince and family and Princess Alice.

Midway on their march the French contingent met three companies of sailors from the former Greek fleet, who have now been formed into infantry organizations. Their trumpets were also sounding and they made quite as impressive an appearance as the French, with the added picturesque touch of the swinging right arm peculiar to Greek troops on the march.

When the squads met, the Greeks turned down another street, leaving the stadium street to the French.

NEW PENMANSHIP INSTRUCTOR RULE

D. O. McComb, county school superintendent, has received a suggestion from C. A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction, regarding the test to which penmanship instructors are subject in order to supervise penmanship at any point in the stae. The ruling makes a distinction between a penmanship instructor with a county and a state license.

Mr. Greathouse says in his letter: "At a meeting May 8 of the state board of education it adopted a committee report providing for licensing supervisors of penmanship in the same manner as music and art supervisors are licensed. The supervisors' list for October 16 will contain questions on this subject in the afternoon program and penmanship will be one of the regular supervisor's subjects hereafter."

While it is not necessary that penmanship instructors take the test, yet by the taking the instructor may teach over a wider range of territory. Mr. Greathouse has urged that publicity be given the board's ruling before October 28.

CHICAGO WOMAN WIELDS PISTOL IN COURT ROOM

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Carrying a baby in her arms, Mrs. Catherine Marak, mother of four children, fired three shots in the crowded court room of Judge Foell today probably fatally wounding Jacob Klaus, who had been named by her husband as co-respondent in a divorce suit. Klaus is the brother of the alderman.

SAYS LONDON WAS HARD HIT

Regent Street in Ruins After Last Zeppelin Attack, Berlin is Told.

RUMANIANS CHECK TEUTONIC DRIVE

Entente Claim Effective Stand Against Gen. Von Falkenhayn's Army.

Today's War News Given in Summary

Official announcements today from the entente side report an effective stand by the Rumanians against Gen. von Falkenhayn's armies along the Transylvanian border and the sanguinary repulse by the French of heavy German assaults on the new French positions in Sailley-Saillisel on the Somme front.

The approach of the cold season is accompanied by no diminution in activity in most of the European battle areas. In some of them, indeed the efforts of the belligerents apparently are being redoubled. This seems notably true along the eastern front, from Volhynia to Rumania, whence continuous fighting is reported, with a virtual deadlock in the result so far. Berlin has conceded the stiffening of the Rumanian resistance along the Transylvania front and Bucharest advices today declare that King Ferdinand's troops are making a successful stand and at one point at least in the Predal region south of Kronstadt, are pushing Gen. von Falkenhayn's armies back. From the Rumanian viewpoint all the military news is reassuring, it is declared.

Russian troops in force are reported helping the Rumanians to defend the passes from Transylvania into their territory.

On the Somme front German attacks were delivered against the French line both on the north and south of the Somme. Three assaults by the Germans upon the French in Sailley-Saillisel are declared by Paris to have been repulsed with heavy losses to the Germans who also were repelled after they had gained a footing in a French first line trench near Berney-in-Santerre.

On the British front in the Somme region, progress by Gen. Haig's forces between the Albert-Bapaume road and Les Boeufs is reported despite the presence of rainy weather.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Eye-witnesses of the Zeppelin attack on England on Sept. 23 report, according to the Oceerseas news agency, that bombs hit the Grimsby barracks, killing more than 400 soldiers and that about sixty men were killed on board a cruiser which was hit by a bomb.

It is said that Regent street, London, was for the most part laid in ruins.

"Eye witnesses stated that more than 100 buildings were damaged, some of them being completely wrecked," says the news agency. "The damage is estimated at more than £2,000,000. Regent street, London, which is the main artery of commerce, was for the most part laid

HANLY CALLS ROLL; ALL RULED BY WETS, HE SAYS

Peru, Ind., Oct. 18.—Indiana crowds applauded today as the national prohibition candidates denounced big party politics in the state as dominated by liquor interests and demanded a house cleaning, particularly in the United States senate. J. Frank Hanly, the dry presidential candidate calling the roll of Indiana candidates for leading state and national offices declared that virtually all of them were controlled or at least influenced by the wet interests.

"Neither Harry New or Jim Watson, the republican senatorial candidates would tell you, for a seat in heaven, where they stand on the liquor issue," he shouted to a crowd at Rochester. "Mr. Adair, the democratic gubernatorial nominee has declared that he wants nomination by the liquor interests perpetuated. Mr. Goodrich is silent on the subject."

CHIZZLY FRIZZLY OVERCOAT WEATH'R

Thermometer Reaches Lowest Point Yet This Fall, Wednesday.

Indiana State Library

Fort Wayne awoke Wednesday morning to find itself encircled in a thin sheet of ice. The entire city shivered beneath the chizzly, frizzly atmosphere of an October morning and men dug up their overcoats and used them to a great advantage. The weather man explains the reason for all this action. The government thermometer reached a new low point Wednesday morning for this fall. The temperature at 5:30 o'clock was thirty-three degrees. And this temperature was taken on top of the Shoaff building. It is a safe estimate to deduct ten degrees to get the correct temperature on the ground. There was a very heavy frost, the weather man reports.

The sun, although it shone the entire day, did not heat up the cold atmosphere or the cold earth. Warmer weather, however, was promised for tonight and Thursday. There are also probable showers in the prediction for Thursday.

It can be expected now that the mornings will be very cool and that during the day there will be a slight rise in the temperature, but the general outlook is that cold weather will soon be in our midst.

BEGIN EXCAVATION WORK ON GYMNASIUM

Work on the excavation of the Clay school gymnasium has been started by the contractor who received the contract for its erection. The new addition to the school will be a beautiful structure and will be modern in every respect. The contractor will push the work forward as rapidly as possible.

The work on the erection of the addition to the Hamilton school building has been delayed on account of failure to get material necessary for its erection. It is presumed that the building will be completed by Christmas so that it will be occupied at the beginning of the second semester of school.

The public school board will meet in regular session next Monday afternoon, at which time the regular business will be transacted. The deals for the real estate which the board purchased at its last meeting will be closed.

Prof. Justin N. Study is arranging to have those teachers who are connected with the state association in any way to attend the annual meeting, which will be held at Indianapolis next week.

MUST SERVE ELEVEN YEARS FOR MURDER

Thomas McCloskey, 59, whose real name is Joseph Ryan, and who was sent to the state farm last week by Judge Kerr for stealing a rug from an East Main street clothes line, is wanted to finish a long prison sentence for murder. He will be taken from the state farm to the Pennsylvania penitentiary, where he must serve eleven years.

Ryan struck and killed a man in a burglary attempt, word from Pennsylvania reads. He was convicted on the murder charge and sentenced to nineteen years in the state prison. That was on Feb. 6, 1906. He was paroled in 1914, after serving eight years of his sentence. He has violated his parole and must go back for the remaining eleven years.

Ryan was intoxicated when he took the rug from a Fort Wayne clothes line, he said. He was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to sixty days at the state farm. A parole officer from Pennsylvania will go to the state farm for him soon.

SCULPTOR COMPLETES ANTHONY WAYNE MODEL

Word has been received from Sculptor George E. Geniere that he has completed the working model for the General Anthony Wayne equestrian statue, and has it ready for the inspection of the jury which is to pass upon it.

At a meeting of the local commission Tuesday, Mrs. Frances Haberly Robertson, Ross McCulloch and D. N. Foster were appointed a committee to go to Chicago, Friday morning, which committee, with the assistance of Loredo Taft, the celebrated Chicago sculptor, will pass upon the merits of this working model. If approved the next step will be the building up of the full sized wax figure and this again will have to secure the approval of the committee and consulting sculptor. This then is put into plaster from which the bronze casting is made. The casting is a slow process and will require several months. The aim of the commission and of Sculptor Geniere is to have the monument ready for unveiling by this time next year. It is to stand at the northwest corner of Hayden park on the Lincoln highway.

SCHOOLGIRL IS HELD FOR KILLING FATHER

Clarkesburg, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Lena Bonafiglio, a 13-year-old school girl, was taken to jail today charged with killing her father, Frank Bonafiglio, as he slept in their home at Kelley Hill, near here last night. His head was literally chopped to pieces with a hatchet. The police declare that the child complained bitterly of her father's treatment of her.

SEES DANGER IN MR. HUGHES

Republican Victory Would Imperil Prosperity, Asserts Mr. McAdoo.

SAYS WALL STREET DOMINATES G. O. P.

Roosevelt's Only Definite Republican Utterance, He Declares.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Praise for President Wilson's diplomatic and legislative achievements and charges that "Wall street has always dominated the republican party" and the victory for that party next month would endanger the country's prosperity, were voiced here today by William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury before a noon political meeting in a downtown theater.

"The American people are being asked to put in peril the peace and prosperity the country is now enjoying at hands of President Wilson by turning their government over to the inexperienced Mr. Hughes and the organized band of incompatible elements which are supporting him," said Mr. McAdoo.

"For two months they have condemned every act of the democratic administration in the most unfair and untruthful manner but the American people are still without a definite answer from Mr. Hughes as to what they will do with the government if they get possession of it."

Only Definite Thing.

"The only definite thing we have had in the campaign came from Col. Roose-

BOOKWALTER TO SPEAK HERE THIS EVENING

Charles A. Bookwalter, a Fort Wayne boy and ex-mayor of Indianapolis, will speak in the assembly room of the court house this evening at 8 o'clock on the issues of the campaign from a republican point of view.

Mr. Bookwalter is well known to Fort Wayneites. He was reared in this city and though he has been away from here a number of years his devotion to Fort Wayne has not waned in the least. He is always glad to come back and no doubt will be greeted by a large crowd of former acquaintances and boyhood friends when he speaks this evening.

On Friday evening he will speak to railroad men at Unity hall, on South Calhoun street, at which time he will discuss the Adamson eight hour law.

CHICAGO VOTERS NOW REACH 808,728 TOTAL

City's Registration Over 70,000 in Excess of the New York Showing.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Chicago today has more qualified voters than any city in the country, the total of men and women on the registration books being 808,728, or more than 70,000 in excess of New York's registration.

Complete returns today from the registration yesterday, the last registration day before the coming presidential election, show that 504,467 men and 304,261 women are now enrolled.

Political managers of all parties today expressed surprise at the big woman registration which had been estimated at only 300,000 for the entire state. If returns from outside of Chicago show the same enthusiasm among women to register as in this city it is estimated that 500,000 of the sex will be entitled to vote in Illinois for president in November.

CASTING OF BRONZE BUST IS DELAYED

Randall Monument Unveiling Must Be Postponed at Least a Week.

There has been a delay of over a week in the casting of the bronze bust for the Perry A. Randall monument and consequently the unveiling of the monument will have to be postponed at least that length of time. The word announcing the delay was received in Fort Wayne by the committee, Tuesday.

The bronze bust of Mr. Randall was to have been finished last week so that it could be set on the foundation in Swinney park by the middle of October. The committee had planned to have the unveiling take place as near the fifteenth of this month as possible.

Everything is ready for the placing of the bust when it arrives. It will only require a few days time after it arrives in this city to have it placed and everything in shape ready for the ceremony.

HUGHES TOUR TAKES HIM INTO MICHIGAN

Nominee's Long Trip Calls for Speeches Only in Afternoon.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Charles E. Hughes spent virtually the entire day today traveling from Sioux City, Iowa, to Michigan, where he will speak late today and tonight. The nominee's special train left Sioux City at 11 o'clock last night and was due to reach Chicago at 11:30 a. m. today. A stay of an hour and a quarter here to switch the train from ont road to another, was necessary.

Mr. Hughes' first speech of the day, a rear-platform address, was on the program for Niles, where he will remain fifteen minutes. He is due in Kalamazoo at 4 p. m. and will remain there an hour and a half. His program called for his arrival shortly before 7 o'clock at Grand Rapids, where he will speak tonight, and his departure early tomorrow for other Michigan cities and Youngstown, Ohio, where will make the last speech of his third trip tomorrow night.

FOUR LEADERS WILL BE HERE

Plans Completed for Coming of Secretary McAdoo and Prof. Axson.

KERN AND TAGGART ALSO WILL SPEAK

Biggest Meeting of the Campaign Promised for Thursday Evening.

Arrangements have been completed for the monster meeting to be held at Palace theater Thursday evening at which addresses will be delivered by Hon. William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, United States Senators Thomas Taggart and John W. Kern and Professor Stockbridge Axson.

Announcement of the meeting has aroused unusual interest among the business men of the city on account of the prominence gained by Secretary McAdoo in the industrial and business world. Mr. McAdoo when becoming a member of President Wilson's cabinet, was recognized as one of the nation's greatest constructive business men. He engineered and was the builder of the great subway system in New York City and has been prominently identified with some of the largest and most important engineering projects ever undertaken in the United States.

Upon assuming duties as an advisor to President Wilson and as the executive head of the treasury, Mr. McAdoo set about at once to devise a system whereby government funds could be employed to facilitate the business of the people who created the funds. One of his first acts was to send government funds into the great northwest to facilitate the movement of crops. This move had the effect at once to give to the secretary

DENIES ACCEPTANCE OF LUSITANIA NOTE

Acting Secretary of State Puts End to Rumor at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Reports that the German note of February 6 for the settlement of the Lusitania case had been accepted by the American government and was soon to be published by the state department, caused Acting Secretary of State Polk to authorize the following statement today: "The note has not been accepted and is not to be given out."

The last draft of the Lusitania memorandum, which was addressed to Secretary Lansing by Count von Bernstorff last February, and has since remained unacted upon, has been published in substance at least twice since it was delivered. Its text never has been given out.

So far as officials disclose the status of the case is the same as it was when action on the memorandum was held in abeyance pending developments on how Germany's final promises in the Sussex case were carried out.

MAIL INTERFERENCE IS HELD NOT WORTH WHILE

London, Oct. 18.—Commenting upon the reply of the entente allies to the American protest against interference with mails, the Manchester Guardian says that while the allies are acting within their legal rights "we are extremely skeptical about the military value of the examination of inward mails from the United States. Moreover, some of the interference is merely vexatious and we cannot conceive why German newspapers of the United States should be regarded as contraband.

"No doubt correspondence might be carried on by that means but the risk of injury to us is small and we can quite understand the vexation of Americans at this double or treble insurance at their expense."

REALTY MEN FOR COLISEUM

Convention Hall Will Be Big Force in Building Up Fort Wayne.

WILL BRING PEOPLE CLOSER TOGETHER

MEET FRIDAY NIGHT.

Members of the Citizens' Convention Hall committee will hold a session at the Commercial club on Friday evening to consider details of the closing days of the campaign for a big vote on the convention hall project.

The real estate men of Fort Wayne, alive to every interest which means the building of a larger and better city, placed the stamp of approval last evening on the convention hall project. In no way can the real life of a city be measured more accurately than by the activity of the real estate market. The men who deal in Fort Wayne properties know that the bringing to Fort Wayne of thousands of "live wires" from other cities—the class of people who are selected to attend conventions of various sorts—cannot help but build up a reputation for Fort Wayne as a city in which it is good to live. These men realize also the value of the convention hall or coliseum as a common meeting place, a community center, for the people of Fort Wayne. An institution of this kind makes for home pride and a working together for the common good.

Albert H. Schaaf, secretary of the city planning committee of the Indiana Real Estate association, reached home Tuesday evening from Evansville and brings a story of enthusiasm over the new Evansville coliseum.

"They are now in the midst of their building operations," said Mr. Schaaf this morning, "but the work is far enough along to make it apparent that the building is going to provide for Evansville a splendid equipment to take care of conventions and the large gatherings of the home people. When one who is interested in his home city sees other cities equipping themselves in this way, his home pride prompts him to do everything he can to see

WILSON STARTS HIS NEW TRIP WESTWARD

Brief Stops in President's Journey Across Indiana Tomorrow.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 18.—With election day less than three weeks off President Wilson's program for today called for the start of his third campaign into the middle west. Through three speeches in Chicago tomorrow and handshaking from his private car at more than a score of towns and cities in New York, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, he expects to reach many thousand voters during his brief absence from Shadow Lawn.

The president's departure from Long Branch was set for 11:05 o'clock this morning, his arrival in New York city at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon and his departure from New York at 1 o'clock. Nine brief stops in New York state will be made during the afternoon and evening. From New oYrk city the trip is to be made in a private car attached to a regular train.

During the journey the president expects to work on the speech he will make here Oct. 28 at the celebration of "Woodrow Wilson day." The message contained in this speech will be sent out in advance and read at Wilson meetings now being arranged in various parts of the country.

Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the white house physician, accompanied Mr. Wilson on the trip.

On the trip across Indiana Thursday morning arrangements call for a stop at Kendallville at 8 o'clock for two minutes; Ligonier, 8:15, for two minutes; Goshen, 8:45, for two minutes; Elkhart, 9:05, for five minutes; South Bend, 9:34, for five minutes, and Gary, 10:30, for five minutes.

Prior to his departure at 11:05 o'clock the president received a visit from William Graves Sharp, American ambassador to France. The ambassador rode with Mr. Wilson as far as New York. It is understood that international interference of American mails by the entente powers was the principal topic they discussed.

SAYS JAPANESE WOULD REMAIN OUR FRIENDS

Churchman Talks on Relations of Island Empire With America.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Japanese people feel that the best interests of their country depend on the preservation of friendly relations with the United States, the Right Rev. H. St. George Tucker, bishop of Kyoto, told delegates to the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church today. Bishop Tucker spoke at a joint session of the two houses comprising the convention reviewing the scope and methods of the church's foreign mission work. "The only possible cause of trouble," Bishop Tucker continued, "would be in a conviction on the part of the Japanese that they were being unjustly discriminated against and their national honor involved. Even in regard to the question of the immigration of the Japanese into this country the Japanese government has shown willingness to meet the wishes of the United States by a so-called gentlemen's agreement. It has undertaken to prevent further immigration of Japanese to America and statistics show that in the past few years they carried out this agreement." Bishop Tucker asserted occidental life and thought is penetrating the countries of the Orient in an ever increasing volume and said the purpose of Christianity there is to see that the peoples are not only the materialistic and intellectual side of our civilization, but also its idealistic side.

SAYS WE'VE AGREED TO SEND PERSHING HOME

Mexican Newspaper Believes It Has Some Inside Information.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 18.—Under the heading "The Forces of the Punitive Expedition Will Leave Mexican Territory," LaRegorma of Saltillo, Coahuila, publishes a telegram from the private secretary of Governor Espinosa Mireles, dated at Piedras Negras, Coahuila, October 11. The telegram says: "I have the honor of informing you that the international conferences at Atlantic City has been completely successful and the withdrawal of the Pershing punitive expedition from our territory agreed upon."

The message is signed L. Sanchez. Below it is printed a message from Mexico City, dated October 12, which after mentioning the border patrols scheme as under discussion, adds: "It is said nevertheless that in the afternoon session it was agreed that the troops of the punitive expedition would leave the Mexican republic. The conference will proceed on this basis until all the existing different difficulties are solved."

IRISH QUESTION ONCE MORE UP TO COMMONS

Redmond's Motion Criticizing Government Brings It Again to Fore.

London, Oct. 18.—(11:00 a. m.)—The Irish question was again brought to the fore in the house of commons today with the introduction by John Redmond of a motion criticizing the system of government of this land. The motion reads: "That the system of government at present maintained in Ireland is inconsistent with the principles for which the allies are fighting in Europe and is or has been, mainly responsible for the recent unhappy events and for the present state of feeling in that country."

Since Mr. Redmond gave notice of his intention to attack the government, the Irish leaders have held a number of conferences with Baron Winburn, lord lieutenant of Ireland, but these probably had more to do with the suggestion of extension of conscription to Ireland than with the grievances arising from continuance of martial law and the failure to release all those arrested during the uprising in Ireland last spring. However, the question of conscription did not come under Mr. Redmond's motion. It doubtless will be discussed tomorrow when the whole subject of the main power of the empire come under review.

John Rawlinson, unionist, moved as an amendment to the Redmond motion the following: "Having regard for the importance of the United Kingdom and Ireland combining with the rest of the empire in presenting a united front to the enemy, it is not desirable at the present time to discuss controversial matters of domestic politics."

JOVIAN CONVENTION NOW GETS UNDER WAY

Business Matters Follow Official Welcome to Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—The fourteenth annual Jovian convention opened formally here today with hundreds of men engaged in the electrical business in attendance. Many registered yesterday and last night, but almost an equal number did not get here until today.

Thomas Wynne of Indianapolis, the reigning Jupiter, opened the convention with the Jupiters' annual address. Mayor Joseph E. Bell, of Indianapolis, gave the address of welcome, to which Mayor Henry W. Kiel, of St. Louis, responded. Governor Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, also addressed the convention. The first business was the adoption of the order in which business matters would be considered. The secretary's report then was read. It showed the order to be in good condition. Among the men on the program to make addresses this afternoon were M. D. Cooper, of Cleveland, "Voltage Standardization," and W. A. Layman, St. Louis, "Building a Career."

There will be a band concert and a tour of the city tonight.

LAKE STEAMERS FAIL TO MAKE WATER SAFE

Washington, Oct. 18.—Apparatus carried by great lakes steamers to purify lake water for drinking is described as "woefully inefficient" in a bulletin published today by the public health service. No purification method is in use by any steamer on the lakes, it is declared, which fulfills federal requirements by insuring safe water under all circumstances.

The bulletin is the result of several months' investigation and experiment by Surgeon C. O. Cobb, Assistant Surgeon C. L. Williams and Sanitary Engineer H. H. Letton. Three approved methods of purification—heating by a steam jet, exposure to ultra-violet rays and use of a still—are described as the only systems "known to us which will, under all circumstances, produce a water meeting the government requirements."

BOY DARTS IN FRONT OF AUTO AND IS HIT

Arthur Grote, 9-year-old son of M. B. Grote, is in the St. Joseph hospital suffering from injuries sustained when he ran in front of an automobile Tuesday evening after school. The boy has a compound fracture of the right leg and several minor injuries.

Mrs. R. Rosen, 826 Columbia avenue, was driving the automobile. She reports that she had no chance to stop the car when the boy suddenly ran across its path. The boy was on his way home from school with several other children. Mrs. Rosen hurried the lad to the hospital in her car.

SHERIFF'S FATHER CLAIMED BY DEATH

Francis Gladieux Expires at His Home at Age of Seventy-Nine Years.

Francis Gladieux, father of Sheriff Amiel Gladieux, died Tuesday evening at his home in Jefferson township at the age of 79 years. Death followed an illness of several months due to complication of diseases. He had been ailing for the past eight years, but had been bedfast only six weeks.

The deceased was born in Alsace, France, October 8, 1837, and came to America with his parents when he was 7 years of age. The family settled in Starke county, Ohio, but in 1853, he moved to Allen county. He settled on a farm in Jefferson township where he resided the remainder of his life.

In 1860 he was united in marriage to Mary Lamont, to which union nine children were born. Three have preceded the father in death. Mr. and Mrs. Gladieux celebrated their golden wedding anniversary six years ago.

For three years Mr. Gladieux served as county commissioner, and at one time was a member of the state legislature, trustee of Jefferson township for twelve years and assessor for four years. Politically he was a democrat. He was also a very active and successful farmer. He owned one of the largest farms in that township and was also an advocate of good roads.

Besides the wife he is survived by six children—Louis, Frank, Amiel and Edward Gladieux and Mrs. Emmett Ternet and Mrs. Louis Roussel; thirty grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Townsend. Mr. Gladieux was a member of the St. Louis Catholic church at Besancon.

Funeral services Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock at the residence and at 8:45 at St. Louis Catholic church. Interment at the church cemetery.

WOULD NOT RISK GREEN CREW ABOARD ARIZONA

New Super-Dreadnaught is Manned from the Older Battleships.

New York, Oct. 18.—The crew of the new super-dreadnought Arizona, which takes her place today in the battle line of the Atlantic fleet with her sister ship, the Pennsylvania, came from the older battleships Kansas, New Hampshire and Vermont, recently transferred to the Atlantic reserve fleet at Philadelphia. An officer of the Arizona pointed out that the Arizona has twelve 14-inch guns and throws six thousand pounds more to the broadside than was contained in the combined broadside of the Kansas, Vermont and New Hampshire. The Arizona's broadside weighs about ten tons and can be hurled about twenty miles. The other three ships combined carry twelve 12-inch guns in their main batteries.

"The Arizona is too big and important to risk a chance with a green crew," said one of the Arizona's officers. "The only sensible thing to do was to give us a trained crew and the only place to get these men was out of the active fleet. As the Kansas, New Hampshire and Vermont were going into the reserve, where they belong, they furnished a majority of the men."

The Connecticut, the sole remaining vessel of the pre-dreadnought type now in the Atlantic fleet, is destined to go in the reserve, as the fleet has been reorganized so far as its first fighting line is concerned into an all dreadnought fleet. When the Idaho and Mississippi go into commission next year there will be nineteen vessels of the dreadnought class in the four active battle divisions of the fleet.

GASOLINE STANDARD DIFFICULT MATTER

Washington, Oct. 18.—National legislation to be supported by state laws was suggested by the United States bureau of standards today as one of the first steps to standardize the country's gasoline output. A system of inspection, either national or state, was also proposed as necessary to safeguard the consumers interest.

A statement issued by the bureau told of efforts by government experts to arrive at a successful standardization test and warned state legislative bodies to go slowly in setting tests when the proposed laws cannot receive the attention of technical experts. Satisfactory specifications will be hard to find under the best conditions, it is declared.

MANY REALTY MEN INVITED TO MEET

Dealers in Smaller Cities Urged to Attend the State Convention.

Regardless of whether they are members of real estate boards in their respective towns, all real estate dealers in small towns near Fort Wayne are invited to attend the sessions of the Indiana Real Estate association to be held at Evansville No. 15, 16 and 17, with their wives and lady friends. Frank H. Hilgemann, secretary of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange, was authorized Monday night at a regular meeting of the exchange to extend the invitation.

Fort Wayne real estate dealers recognize the benefit which all real estate men will derive from the state convention. A fine program has been arranged and city planning, about which many of the smaller cities have not heard fully, will be a leading feature of the convention.

The exchange also indorsed the municipal auditorium proposition at the meeting.

that his own town keeps abreast of the others. And this is the way I feel about Fort Wayne. We can't secure our own convention hall too soon.

"The people of Evansville are showing a most kindly spirit toward Fort Wayne, and the people there gave us a splendid reception. The Evansville coliseum, which they display with pride will cost about $222,500."

Endorse Convention Hall.

The Fort Wayne Building Trades council has given a hearty endorsement to the convention hall project in a set of resolutions bearing the signature of C. E. Krider, president; E. T. Drew, secretary.

The wage earners of Fort Wayne have shown a lively enthusiasm in favor of the erection of the convention hall. The man of moderate means may well stop and consider what the establishment of a convention hall in his home city means to him. In the first place, the cost of the project is already taken care of by the continuance of the present rate of taxation, which is lower than that of any other city of Indiana of its class. The sinking fund, maintained by a levy of 5 cents on the $100 of taxable property, is designed to take care of just such projects as this. The passage of but a few short years will find the building paid for and a wonderfully valuable asset added to the city's possessions. Who, in Allen county, regrets one cent of the money spent on the Allen county court house, and who would exchange the magnificent possession of today for the money that has been paid for it? Just so, in five years from now—yes, probably two years—not a single citizen of Fort Wayne will regret for one moment the outlay for the establishment of a municipal convention hall and community center.

As a Convention Hall.

As a convention hall the place will bring thousands of visitors to Fort Wayne each year who will not only carry the good name of Fort Wayne abroad and help to build up Fort Wayne's reputation, but they will expend thousands of dollars here, which will go directly into the activities of the people of Fort Wayne.

As a Community Center.

As a community center the building will bring all Fort Wayne together on many great occasions. There will be times when the people will get together to discuss other great movements for the benefit of all. The convention hall will be the common meeting place. There will be times when the schools will give demonstrations of their work in physical culture and voice training. Everybody will feel free to participate in the enjoyment of these events, because the building in which they will be displayed will belong to the whole people. Entertainment courses will be provided whereby, for a few dimes, all the people will be privileged to witness events and hear the great artists who could not otherwise be brought to the city for an admission price within the reach of thousands who would want to attend. Athletic events will be staged here, and here, also, will grand opera be heard. As one correspondent has said, writing from another city: "We have everything from Melba to poultry shows—and they're for all the people." Great political meetings will be held here. Automobile shows, flower shows, band concerts, corn and grain exhibitions, apple and fruit shows, merchants' expositions, gas lighting expositions, electrical shows, educational motion picture demonstrations, municipal Christmas events, art exhibits, made-in-Fort-Wayne exhibits, trade and manufacturing expositions, poultry and pet stock shows and mass meetings of every kind their natural meeting place.

of the treasury the prestige of being a public official not only intent upon serving the great mass of people, but as well one who knew how to serve them.

All Prominent Statesmen.

It has been a long time since such a galaxy of statesmen has been scheduled for a meeting in Fort Wayne. Senator Kern is the majority leader of the highest law-making body in the country and has been an important cog in the machinery which has written a great legislative program under the Wilson regime. Senator Taggart also has sprung into national prominence as a legislator and Prof. Axson is acknowledged as one of the prominent men of the nation.

One of the features of the meeting will be selections by the DeKalb county quartet composed of J. D. Brinkerhoff, Frank Baltz, Ves McKeenan and Carl Weaver.

ometer steadily falling and the wind blowing fifty-two miles an hour at Mobile early this morning, gulf coast cities anxiously awaited the latest weather reports which would accurately locate the center of the tropical disturbance reported headed this way. Weather Observer Ashenberger said it was his opinion the storm was driving directly this way. The last barometer reading was registered at 29.46 and at 7 a. m. said it was still falling. A driving rain is accompanying the heavy wind. Small vessels are putting out for Twelve Mile Island to seek safety.

INCREASES IN INTENSITY.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The West Indian hurricane, which has been driving through the Caribbean sea and gulf of Mexico this week, is rapidly approaching the American coast and is expected to move inland somewhere between New Orleans and Apalachicola, Fla. Hurricane warnings were ordered by the weather bureau at 9 a. m. to be hoisted between these points. Indications were that the storm had increased in intensity as it neared the coast and all marine and other interests along the gulf were given warning.

Wit hthe approach of the storm the weather bureau ordered advisory warnings of strong gales sent to interior points in Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Miss ssippi. It is believed the tropical disturbance will turn northeastward and cause heavy rains through the east gulf, and Atlantic states generally, reaching southern New England during Thursday. Storm warnings also were ordered displayed on the Atlantic coast from Norfolk to Savannah.

velt, who said at Battle Creek, discussing the Lusitania: 'You ask me what I would have done? I would have seized every interned German ship.'"

Mr. McAdoo then quoted Germany's declaration of war on Portugal because of the seizure of German ships by that country, and added: "Mr. Roosevelt's action would have resulted in war between the United States and Germany. And now comes Mr. Hughes and admits, as far as he is very definite, his accord with the bellicose attitude of Mr. Roosevelt. This is shown by his reply at Louisville to the question as to what he would have done in the Lusitania case. He said in substance that he would have threatened the kaiser so effectively that 'the Lusitania would never have been sunk.' This is characteristic evasion, for Mr. Hughes was asked what he would have done after the Lusitania had been sunk. I challenge him to answer that question.

"Who can doubt that if Mr. Hughes is made president, Mr. Roosevelt will be the dominating influence and direct foreign and domestic policies?

The President's Power.

"A president has it in his power to plunge the country into war at any moment. A single misstep or rash act or blunder on his part is all that is necessary."

Taking up domestic affairs, Mr. McAdoo said that the democratic administration had destroyed the system by which "the reserve money of the banks of the country were concentrated principally in New York City." He believed that Mr. Hughes "if elected intends to repeal the federal reserve act," and establish a central bank "because the republican party has always stood for Wall street and a central bank.

"The demand of Wall street for a central bank will be gratified if the republicans gain control of the government," he added. The secretary said that if Mr. Hughes "stands by his party platform he must either repeal or substitute something for the 'farm loan.'" He argued that the "Roosevelt panic of 1907, the worst in our history, is conclusive proof of republican incompetency," and added that "our virile, rich, unmained and highly developed people" need fear nothing from "the competition of stricken and broken Europe" after the war.

He continued that even if we are endangered that the creation of a nonpartisan tariff board and the enactment of anti-dumping and unfair competition laws by the democratic congress have already provided means to "protect every legitimate interest against hurtful combinations against us."

in ruins. In a southern suburb of London an ammunition factory was blown up.

"The Grimsby barracks were hit and more than 400 soldiers were killed. A cruiser with four funnels, which was anchored in the Humber, was hit by a bomb and about sixty men were killed. Two other warships were damaged badly. At Hull some buildings were damaged so badly that only the walls remained. Great damage was inflicted on ammunition factories and railroad stations at Lead. An alcohol factory and other buildings at Portsmouth were struck, twelve cars loaded with horses were destroyed."

After Hard Fighting.

French attacks in the region of Morval and Rancourt, north of the river Somme, were repulsed yesterday after hard fighting, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters' staff. British and French attacks near Thiepval, Courcelette and Bonchavenes, the statement adds, also failed.

"On both sides of Eancourt l'Abbaye, it is officially announced, the German destructive fire reduced the British attack to failure at the outset. North of the Somme the artillery bombardment was intense. On the western bank of Nararuvka river, southwest of Herbutov, in Galicia, Bavarian troops yesterday stormed a point of support, says today's German official statement, and took 350 prisoners and twelve machine guns.

AUSTRO-GERMANS DRIVEN BACK.

Bucharest, Oct. 17.—(Via London, Oct. 18.—Rumanian troops in the Predeal region southwest of Kronstadt, have resumed the offensive and are driving back the Teutonic forces on the Transylvania side of the border, says an official announcement issued late this evening. Violent Teutonic attacks are in progress along the entire front in the Carpathians but the entente lines have not been concentrated, the announcement adds.

All the military news from the Rumanian front is declared to be reassuring.

HEAVY FIGHTING CONTINUES.

Petrograd, Oct. 18.—Heavy engagements are continuing on the Galician battle front, according to today's war office report, which announces the stubborn fighting still in progress and the repulse of Teutonic counter attacks, notably in the vicinity of Korytniza and Bolshovtse. The statement adds that "southwest of the little town, Ozoriany, the enemy bombarded our trenches with asphyxiating shells and twice attacked our detachments. He was repelled by our fire." It also reports the wounding of Colonel Adjiev, who had just returned to the front after having been seriously wounded as he led his regiment to the attack."

FRENCH MAINTAIN POSITIONS.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Three times last night the Germans delivered attacks on the French positions in Sailley-Saillisel, on the Somme front. The war office announces that the French maintained all their positions and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans.

Near Bereney-en-Santerre, the Germans gained a foothold in a French first line trench, but were driven out.

INDIANA MEN ARE READY FOR PICNIC

Indiana men will sing again the old songs and fight once more their athletic battles about a cheery campfire in Foster park Wednesday night. The men will gather at the transfer corner at 6:30 o'clock and take Broadway cars to the end of the line. There will be eats and several peppery talks. Enthusiasm for the Indiana-Tufts football game and the annual contest with Purdue is the prime object of the "get-together" affair.

All men who have attended Indiana university at some time or other are urged to take part in the outing. Arrangements may be made to run a special coach to Lafayette to the Purdue game. The stag party is an informal event and public announcement has been the only notice served.

Hon. Chas. A. Bookwalter will deliver a republican address at the assembly room of the court house tonight. Everybody invited.

LONG A REPUBLICAN, WILL VOTE FOR WILSON

Washington Gladden, Famous Author and Clergyman, Out for Wilson.

[By C. C. Lyon.]

Columbus, O., Oct. 18.—Dr. Washington Gladden, famous clergyman and author, who has voted for every republican president elected, will this year vote for President Wilson.

"My first vote for president was cast for Abraham Lincoln in 1860," says Dr. Gladden. "In 1912, I voted for Roosevelt with the progressives.

"It seems to me that the ideas and principles of progressive democracy are better represented today by the democratic party and its leaders than by the republican party and its leaders. That is why I shall vote for Wilson.

"For many years I have felt great admiration for Hughes and I rejoiced to see him elevated to what seemed to me the summit of a lawyer's just ambition—a seat upon the supreme bench.

"No man, in my judgment, can ever leave that eminence for party leadership without stepping down; and I was gratified when Justice Hughes in his correspondence with Rabbi Wise, two or three years ago, seemed to make it clear that such was his conviction.

"It may be admitted that no citizen has a right to decline any call to high service which is made upon him by the American people; and if such a call could be made practically unanimous there could be no question; but the call to be the candidate of a political party another proposition; and I am impressed with the wisdom of members of the great court who have maintained that every occupant of that high position ought to put at once and forever beyond his sight the possibility of his ever becoming such a candidate.

"I confess that my opinion of Judge Hughes was perceptibly lowered when, on the supreme bench, he obviously kept that possibility open; and subsequent events have not reassured me.

"With Wilson's general conception of political duty and responsibility in a democracy I am in cordial agreement and I have greatly admired the directness, the tact, the persistence, and the courage by which he has led his party forward to large legislative achievements.

"I do not think that ex-President Eliot has overstated the case when he says: 'Anyone who surveys the extraordinary series of legislative and executive acts accomplished by the democratic party in three years and a half will realize two things: First, that President Wilson has proved himself a party leader of unusual power; and second, that the party thus led has done much more for the country than the republican party accomplished in five times as many years.'

"The moderation and rationality exhibited by Wilson in the conduct of our national affairs were almost universally recognized by our people during the first year of the war; most of us heard during that time from men of all parties the warmest expressions of gratitude that the helm was in the hands of a sane and judicious leader.

"When the election drew near the caldron began to bubble. It was inevitable that the most reasonless and wanton attacks would be made upon the president; at a time when the nation ought to be standing firmly together all the resources of party politics are drawn upon to discredit our national leader.

"Those of us who are old enough to remember the election of 1864 and the tempest of villification and accusation which burst upon the head of Abraham Lincoln during the campaign preceding his second election, know what to look for in a time like this.

"We are not surprised to find great party leaders denouncing Wilson today for policies which, a year and a half ago, they were expressly approving; we are not amazed, we are only amused when we hear him execrated by his political adversaries for truckling to the kaiser, while all Germany is preparing to hang flags from every window in celebration of his expected defeat.

"I do not think that it has ever looked for a moment so dark for Wilson as it did all that summer to Lincoln; but Wilson has had some chance to find out what republics can do to men who greatly serve them. We all said at the beginning of this campaign that it would be conducted on a high plane; but I wonder if a debate, led by eminent men, in which such a record as Wilson has made for the past three years and a half can be reviewed by his opponents without a generous or appreciative word, is really good politics. I wonder how many wavering voters it has confirmed in their purpose to vote for Wilson. I know of one."

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Galatians 5:14-26.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, reveling, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another.

Mr. Hughes and the Adamson Act

Mr. Hughes, who, in communities in which railroad men constitute no considerable portion of the voting population, has been assailing in unmeasured terms the enactment of the Adamson eight-hour law which averted the threatened railroad strike, told an audience at Sioux City that, if elected president, he would not seek the repeal of the Adamson law, and based his position on the contention that "a surrender cannot be repealed."

Mr. Hughes has made some surprising declarations in the course of his campaign assaults upon President Wilson, so that perhaps there is small occasion for wonderment at this. Yet can Mr. Hughes seriously expect the public to regard his attitude on the question of repeal as consistent with his ferocious assaults upon the law? Does he mean to imply that, since the country has had foisted upon it what he conceives to be a most egregious wrong, he would not correct it? Does he mean that the present congress, or its successor, would be powerless to substitute another enactment for the one of which he complains so bitterly in localities which, unlike Fort Wayne, are not railroad centers? It will be recalled that in his address in this city the Adamson law was scarcely dignified by even a passing mention—and Fort Wayne is one of the centers vitally interested in the Adamson law by reason of the vast number of railroad men here who will profit by it.

The much-vaunted courage with which Mr. Hughes was said to be endowed appears to be dissolving into a mixture of panic and pleading. He flays the means used by President Wilson to avert the threatened calamity of a general railroad strike, denounces the instrument which brought continued peace to the transportation world and yet refuses to go to the length of announcing his intention, if elected, of seeking to wipe from the statute books the enactment he assails as the culmination of legislative iniquity. Can it be that, despite the optimistic claims of his management, Mr. Hughes still fears he may need the votes of the men who do not share his views on the viciousness of the Adamson law?

Yet in his refusal to declare for an effort to correct what he regards as a wrong, Mr. Hughes is merely running true to the 1916 republican form. One by one the long list of benificent and progressive laws enacted during the past four years have been catalogued with an inquiry as to which is to be repealed, which cast aside, which abrogated in favor of something better. The answer, where it does not entirely ignore, is inevitably evasion.

The Sentinel has heretofore refrred to the series of 45-word campaign speeches to be electrically flashed on a motographic sign at Indianapolis. The first to be shown is that of Meredith Nicholson, the novelist. It reads: "State out of debt, nation out of war, democrats did it. Vote for Wilson, Marshall, peace, prosperity, a full dinner pail and national honor. Stand by progressive democracy. Vote for Kern, Taggart, Adair. Keep the government in the hands of the people—Meredith Nicholson." And the oftener you read Mr. Nicholson's "article" the more you will be convinced that he has compressed into mighty small space the "meat" of the whole situation.

With our old acquaintance Invisible Government back in the campaign again, it begins to seem like old times. But we still miss the torchlight parades and the gaudy campaign uniforms in which thousands of devoted citizens were wont to trudge uncounted weary miles up and down the streets, marching and countermarching to demonstrate that the spirit of '76 was still alive in the hearts of the pee-pul.

By far the biggest majority in Fort Wayne on November 7 should be the one given the municipal convention hall project. That is a project on which democrats, republicans, socialists, prohibitionists and independents of every variety can enthusiastically unite as boosters, and The Sentinel hopes they'll do it. Moreover, it is confident that is exactly what will be the outcome.

On the witness stand in the Chicago vice inquiry, Mayor Thompson explained that he had been guided very largely by the advice of Police Chief Healey in dealing with the saloons of which vehement complaint has been made. By this time Chief Healey has doubtless begun to have a dim suspicion as to the identity of the man duly selected as the "goat" in the present upheaval in Chicago.

Four political parties at Terre Haute have united in a petition for the discarding of voting machines in Vigo county and a return to the Australian ballot system. Well, when one reflects on the sort of elections they have been holding in Terre Haute the past few years, the desire to try some other kind seems both natural and reasonable as well as highly desirable.

It would be interesting to know if that Upland farmer who has just sold a "bunch" of hogs for $49,398.83 is also among those who are worried by the advancing cost of living.

DOUBTLESS IT IS JUST AS WELL.

[Indianapolis Star.]

What profit on the investment is yielded by the tremendous efforts put forth to influence voters in a presidential year?

Nobody knows. Another interesting thing that nobody can find out is how many men have already made up their minds how they will vote and are henceforward impervious to the most frenzied appeals.

Then it would be an absorbing task to institute a survey of men's minds, through some psychological device not yet invented, and find out what sort of evidence and argument really operates to arrest their convictions and change their votes.

One thing at least is certain, and that is that we can not always depend upon the reasons given. Most of us are governed to a degree which we would blush to confess by secret prejudices. Once our minds are made up, we cast about for reasons and in a short while have a lot of them ready to pass out as the genuine coin.

It is safe to say that a large percentage of the seed sown in anxiety and at enormous expense falls upon stony ground or among thorns. If the orator could realize how many of his intent audience are already so prejudiced against him that his most eloquent periods haven't a chance on earth, he would drop dead of chagrin. It is just as well we can't foresee the future; otherwise many feverish words would remain unspoken and enormous sums now contributed to save the country both ways from the middle would be spent for United Motors or large cold bottles of wire wheels with cord tires.

SAYS HUGHES WINKED AT LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Hanly Points to Invisible Government at Albany Under Hughes.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 18.—Declaration by Charles E. Hughes in Omaha that there was no invisible government in Albany while he was governor of New York caused J. Frank Hanly, prohibition candidate for president, to assail Hughes' attitude on the liquor question during that period. Hanly insisted the liquor interests then comprised a powerful "invisible government" in New York and that Hughes refused to attack them.

"I have no desire," he said in speaking to several Michigan and Indiana audiences, "to butt into the delectable controversy going on between Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes, but that the record may be kept straight and the country not misled, I take issue flatly with Mr. Hughes' statement that while he was governor of New York there was no invisible government there.

"There was no hour during his administration when invisible government was not triumphant at Albany, nor has there been an hour since when it has not been. Mr. Hughes knew it and was constantly importuned by the best citizens of his commonwealth to do battle with it, and he refused to molest it or even touch it.

"It dominates Mr. Hughes now, sealing his lips, making his tongue mute, dominates him until nothing can persuade or induce him to give public utterance, however slight, against it, though he has journeyed for days through states where the people are at death grips with it.

"The only defense Mr. Hughes can make to this charge is to answer that President Wilson is also mute and obedient to the same element of invisible government."

HIS MIND IS "COMING BACK."

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—George W. Farlow, of Crawfordsville, held for the murder of William Johnson, has told the police that his mind "is coming back." He told the officers that he remembers being with Johnson and another man known to him as "Dave" and that "Dave killed Johnson with a piece of gas pipe." The police do not take much stock in Farlow's assertion that there was a third man in the party.

SAYS LABORING MAN IS GETTING SQUARE DEAL

Democratic Speaker Points Out Inconsistency of Republicans Panic Talk.

"This year, as in every other presidential year, the republican party is waving the black flag of panic in the face of the American people trying to scare them into a business depression," Tuesday night declared T. A. Redmond, of Kendallville, speaking before a large audience of railroad men held in the convention hall of the court house.

H. B. Grafmiller, of the Pennsylvania lines, acted as chairman. "Woodrow Wilson is trying hard to furnish bread and butter for the laboring man and to make his life more easy," asserted Mr. Grafmiller. J. T. McOttott was another speaker.

"This is the year of the emancipation of the laboring man. The first time that the laboring man ever received consideration at the white house and shown the same respect as the capitalists of Wall street is right now. He has not been dealt with as a slave, but as a free man and is entitled to be shown all the rights and privileges of any other man.

Give Remedy for Panics.

"The republican party has always said that protective tariff has always been a remedy for panics and that the democratic party by its low tariff for revenue only has been the chief cause of panics. Any student of history cannot help but notice that panics come regularly and periodically. They come at constant intervals. The first record of any panic we have was in 1837 and they came in other years as follows: 1847, 1857, 1867, 1873, 1884, 1886, 1893 and 1907. There would have been one in 1913 had not we had the federal reserve bank law.

"The panic of 1837 affected the entire United States as well as the great European countries, such as England, Germany, France and Belgium. In 1857 it affected the same territory equally as bad, and so on as each panic came. The panic of 1873 was world-wide and affected all countries."

The speaker showed that the protective tariff never increased wages and that the very schedule that had the highest protection in the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, woolen goods, those industries paid the lowest wages. In the New England states they averaged twelve and thirteen cents an hour.

STOGIES GOING UP, TOO.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Members of the Cigar and Stogie Makers International union here have decided to hold a referendum Saturday to decide whether a demand should be made for an increase in wages of $1 per thousand. Manufacturers declare that if the increase is granted the prices of stogies will be advanced accordingly.

STORIES OF HUNGER CUT FROM LETTERS

Syrians Cannot Write of the Starvation of Their People.

Mute testimony of the awful condition of Syrians, under the Turkish rule, in their war-stricken country, is held in the little square blocks cut from letters sent to relatives in America. All letters sent from Syria are censored by the Turks and any mention of hunger is cut out.

Nearly all Syrians in Fort Wayne have one or two letters which have been cut to pieces by the censors. The story held in those dissected papers is more touching than if the dying peoples were able to write of their tragic flight.

Fort Wayne Syrians are redoubling their efforts to collect money which will be converted into supplies and carried on an American ship to their starving countrymen. The public at large is asked to help. All contributions are to be left at the First National bank, where the funds will be collected and cared for by the local Syrian society.

Hon. Chas. A. Bookwalter will deliver a republican address at the assembly room of the court house tonight. Everybody invited.

HARRISON HILL IN PATH OF CITY'S GROWTH

To anyone who makes a trip to the end of the paving on South Calhoun street for the first time in the last year, the growth of the city in that direction seems indeed marvelous and it is interesting to note that Harrison Hill, Fort Wayne's most modern addition, is situated squarely in the path of this great southward growth. Within the past eighteen months this addition has been converted from an open field into one of the most charming residential sections in this part of the country and it is predicted in real estate circles that it will soon become one of the show places of the city. Already the mile-and-a-half drive covering a route along Harrison boulevard, Cornell and Seminole circles is one of the most popular auto routes of the city, and to all indications the entire addition is to be built up within a surprisingly short time. Details regarding lots in Harrison Hill may be secured from the promoters, Hilgemann & Schaaf, North American building. —Advertisement.

"I WOULDN'T HAVE DARED," HE ASSERTS

Mr. Neindorf Didn't Even Hope for Big Relief Tanlac Brought Him.

Michigan City, Ind., Oct. 18.—Of the many statements given by residents of this city and vicinity during the past two months, none is more convincing than that given on August 29 by John Neindorf, proprietor of a saloon at the corner of Tenth and Manhattan streets.

"I suffered from rheumatism all over my body, it seemed," he said. "The pains were especially severe in my hips, knees and ankles and also my wrists and arms. My condition was so bad that I would have to stay in bed for days at a time and was compelled to keep my arm on a pillow, not being able to stand the slightest pressure on it. I tried many different remedies but none of them seemed to help me.

"I have now finished my first bottle of Tanlac and I feel fine. I certainly was surprised at the benefits I gained through Tanlac. The swelling in my limbs has disappeared and I can use my hands freely now. In fact, the rheumatism has been greatly relieved.

"Tanlac did more for me than I had even dared to hope it would and I naturally recommend the medicine."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Fort Wayne at the four Meyer drug stores—Wayne and Calhoun streets, Calhoun and Columbia, 1420 Calhoun and Broadway and Taylor streets.—Advertisement.

ONE KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

Four Others, One of Them Probably Fatally, Are Hurt in Accident at Montpelier.

Montpelier, Ind., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Henry Saunders was killed and four other persons injured, one of them probably fatally yesterday afternoon when an automobile was struck by a L. E. & W. train at a street crossing. Lewis Griswold was injured so seriously that he may not recover. Other occupants of the car who were injured are Henry Saunders, Miss Laura Klauser and Cleo Saunders, daughters of Henry Saunders. Saunders, who was driving, was warned by the crossing watchman, but misunderstood the signal to mean that the track was clear and drove directly into the path of the train.

The automobile, whose occupants were all from Monroe, Adams county, was going west.

All of the injured and dead were thrown clear of the track, and were not run over by the train.

The engine that hit the party is kept in the Montpelier yards all the time because of heavy business there.

OLD SOLDIER DEAD.

Delphos, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Word was received here Tuesday of the death of George Peters, a veteran of the civil war, which occurred at the Soldiers' Home in Sandusky, Ohio, Tuesday morning. Mr. Peters was a brother of Wm. Peters, residing near Delphos, and the deceased was a former resident of south of here. He will be well remembered by many local people and residents of south of this city, in the vicinity of Kemp, where he used to live. He had been at the Soldiers' Home in Sandusky for some time.

ANKLE BROKEN IN FALL.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 18.—Fred Stoner, a carpenter of this city, was quite painfully, but not seriously injured recently when he plunged down a stairway while working on a building in South Bend. In the fall he received a broken ankle and several severe bruises about the body. His ankle was placed in a plaster cast and he is now able to walk with the aid of crutches. At the time the accident happened Mr. Stoner was going down the stairs, when his foot caught and he plunged to the basement, a distance of ten feet. Other workmen on the building assisted him to a nearby physician's office where the fractured ankle was given treatment.

FEARS HER HUSBAND.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 18.—Claiming that she fears her husband will carry out his threat to kill her, Zepha L. Beghtel has filed suit in the circuit court for a divorce from James Vernon Beghtel, a cement worker. The plaintiff charges that her husband is in the habit of becoming intoxicated and that while in this condition he is possessed of a violent temper and that she is subjected to much abuse. On numerous occasions it is alleged that he has struck and cursed the plaintiff.

NEW BUILDING AT CRAIGVILLE.

Craigville, Ind., Oct. 18.—Work on the new brick bank building here is progressing nicely, and it is expected to have it completed early in November and soon thereafter the new bank will be opened for business. The new brick business block will have a forty-foot front, and in addition to the bank there will be a good store room for rent, and it will be occupied by a hardware store. This store is to be installed by a stock or partnership company, and a number of gentlemen will be interested in the business.

HAS ARM BROKEN.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 18.—Charles Mock, jr., a young son of Charles Mock, of Wabash avenue, had his left arm badly broken just above the elbow yesterday while playing at the Central school yard. He was playing on a ladder and in reaching for a rung missed it and fell to the ground. He was taken to a doctor's office and the broken bone was set. The boy was gritty and stood the ordeal exceedingly well. The boy's elbow also was dislocated.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath, or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Advertisement.

7 DEAD, 2 MISSING IN NEW YORK BLAZE

Big Factories Burn With an Estimated Loss of $250,000.

New York, Oct. 18.—Seven persons were burned to death and two others missing it is feared have lost their lives in a fire which destroyed two factories in the manufacturing section of Queensborough late yesterday with a material loss estimated at $250,000.

The charred bodies were not found until the flames had been subdued and firemen were pouring water into the ruins of the buildings. Search is being made for two persons still missing.

All those burned were employed in the plant of the Oakes Dye Manufacturing company, where the flames started. Four of the dead were women.

The fire started among chemicals on the first floor of the Oakes building and spread with such rapidity that the office force was trapped on the second floor.

The police have learned that an electrician at work on the first floor making repairs, dropped a ladder which struck a jar containing chemicals that burst into flames.

There were six young women and the three men on the second floor when the fire started. A half dozen windows were located close to where the young women were at work, and it would have been a drop of only sixteen feet to the street.

The authorities believe the employes were suffocated by chemical fumes and were unable to attempt to escape.

When You Take Cold.

Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy, as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Reinking-Geiger.

A beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized last Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the Zion Lutheran church where Miss Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Geiger, of 2934 Smith street, became the bride of Mr. Walter Reinking, a prominent young farmer of near Decatur. Rev. H. C. Luehr officiated at the marriage. The bride was attended by Miss Hilda Reinking, a sister of the grom, and Miss Ester Merkle, of Van Wert, Ohio, as bridesmaids, and little Katherine and Delores Krouse, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Krouse, as flower girls. The groom's attendants were his brother, Lewis, Reinking, of Huntington, and Carl Geiger, a brother of the bride. The bride looked lovely in a dress of white silk net over white satin, with trimmings of satin and chantilly lace. She wore a long veil made cape effect, which was secured by a wreath of bride roses and swansonia and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and swansonia. The bridesmaids wore lovely gowns of silk chiffon over delicate pink taffeta silk, very becomingly made, and bouquets of pink roses. The little flower girls looked dainty in dresses of fine white organdy and lace combined. They wore bows of tulle in their hair and carried baskets of pink and white carnations. After the ceremony was over, the young couple repaired to the home of the bride where congratulations were in order. An elaborate wedding supper was served to about seventy-five guests. The dining room was decorated in the wedding colors of pink and white. A large cake occupied the center of the table, while a large wedding bell suspended from the chandelier above it and ribbon streamers were fastened to the four corners of the room. Flowers decorated the home throughout. A dance was held at the home in the evening at which the Geiger orcestra furnised the music. An infair dinner will be given Sunday at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bieberick, near Preble, after which the young couple will leave for a short wedding trip through the east and on their return they will be at home to their many friends on a farm east of Decatur. The groom has a home already furnished for his bride. The bride's traveling suit was of dark navy blue poplin with fur trimmings, and she wore a hat to match. The bride and groom are from two very prominent families, and the best wishes from all go with them in their married life. The guests from out of town who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bieberich, Miss Emmaes and Olga Bieberich, Miss Hilda Reinking, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goede and sons, Marcus and Harold, Fred and Edward Bieberich, of Preble, Ind.; Miss Ester Merkle, of Van Wert, Ohio; Louis Reinking, of Huntington, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ruff, of Saginaw, Mich.

Needlework Guild In Its Busy Season

Annual Round-up to Be Held at First Presbyterian Church, Nov. 14.

The Fort Wayne branch of the Needlework Guild of America is now at its busiest season. The annual round-up will be held in the First Presbyterian church on November 14 to 16, inclusive. The round-up will include the counting and assorting of the thousands of new garments, their labeling and arrangement for distribution, the exhibition of the garments to the public, the annual business meeting in the evening of November 14 at 7:30 o'clock at which time there will be business transacted, speeches made and an informal reception.

At a luncheon held at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday afternoon for the officers and directors of the local branch there was much enthusiasm. Mrs. Robert F. Harding, presided. Other officers are: Vice presidents, Miss Harriet Fowler, Mrs. Fred E. Hoffman, Mrs. B. H. Hudson, Mrs. Aaron Rothschild; secretary, Miss May Jewell Smith, assistant, Mrs. J. J. Kline, and treasurer, Mrs. Hal Rehrer. Every officer but two were present and the absent ones were not in town. Great enthusiasm was manifested over the report of Miss Smith, which included the announcement of a new section to the guild formed from an organization, the Federation of Industrial Clubs of Fort Wayne, consisting of clubs from Wayne Knitting mills, Boss Manufactory, Electric works, Perfection Biscuit company, Five and Ten Cent stores, Dudlo's and the Busy Bees. Miss Carrie Schroeder, of the Wayne Knit club, spoke briefly of the desire of the organization to affiliate with the guild in giving aid to a work the federation heartily indorses.

Another bit of information that stirred the pulses of the company was made by Mrs. Harding, who stated that one woman had collected the necessary number of garments to fill the requirements of a section, namely, 107. Mrs. A. G. Burry was then called on and she modestly acknowledged the fact that after she once got started it had become easy for her to obtain that number of garments. It was also stated that the guild has twenty new directors, so that the goal of 4,000 garments is likely to be reached this fall. The grand total a year ago was 3,065 which were distributed to these organizations: Allen County orphans' home, Anti-Tuberculosis league, Gospel Mission, Hope hospital, Lutheran hospital, Reformed orphans' home, Rescue Mission, Relief Union, Public schools, St. Joseph hospital, St. Vincent orphans' home, Visiting Nurse league, Willing Workers' Aid society, Y. W. C. A. and Day Nursery. Of these beneficiaries the largest number of garments went to aid in clothing children of public schools, many of whom have to depend on the mothers' income for support. Investigation is made by principals of schools in each case, but owing to their being plenty of work this season, the number of applicants requiring aid is likely to be smaller.

At it is always necessary to have some ready money on hand to defray running expenses of the guild and to pay dues to the national society each director has a pay member, the amount being anything from twenty-five cents up, according to the generosity and means of the giver. To obtain money to buy shoes the Jefferson theater management has generously offered to donate fifty per cent of proceeds on Monday Matinee, Nov. 13, from sale of tickets by guild members. This date is now booked as a Marguerite Clark film attraction. Mrs. B. H. Hudson has charge of the sale of tickets.

Mrs. H. B. Master presented briefly a plan for forming a society to work for war relief the coming season. Mrs. Harding appointed a committee to look into the matter consisting of Mrs. W. H. Rohan, chairman, Mrs. S. M. Foster, Mrs. M. J. Pulliam, Mrs. Louis Stiefel and Mrs. Charles Hughes.

New directors appointed for the current year are Mrs. Louis Stiefel, Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. H. Cline, Mrs. D. Benninghoff, Mrs. Newell Ransom, Mrs. Wallace Bowker, Miss Marie Landenberger, Mrs. Harry Hilgeman, Mrs. W. Mensing, Mrs. E. Notestine, Mrs. E. Craig, Mrs. R. F. Gale, Mrs. A. A. Courtney, Mrs. F. J. Kanaga, Mrs. Fred Duryee, Mrs. A. B. Sharon, Mrs. John Schwartz, Mrs. E. H. Lane, Mrs. D. Irwin, Earl Bayer. Brief but interesting talks were given by Mrs. Fred McCulloch, Mrs. J. J. Kline, Mrs. B. H. Hudson and Miss Fowler, all of which were pertinent to the round-up of the guild. The Needlework Guild is non-sectarian and its membership consists of persons who agree to contribute two new garments or articles of household linen annually. Men, women and children may be members. The object of the guild is to furnish new, plain suitable garments to meet needs of hospitals and charities.

AT THE PALACE

NO SHOW THURSDAY EVENING.

New Bill Opens at Matinee Thursday at New Palace.

Although there will be no show Thursday evening at the New Palace the regular week end vaudeville bill will open as usual on Thursday afternoon and play the remainder of the week. The Weber and Wilson Revue, dancing a la carte will feature the program in a dainty little terpsichorean offering. Morris Golden, the yiddle with the fiddle, is the promisingly amusing novelty number of the bill. Golden will present some rag-time fiddling that has proven a scream over the Keith circuit this year. "Solitaire," the domestic comedy, will be presented by Grew Paits and company. Among the wealth of other talent are Millie Olive, the novelty juggler; the Barry Girls, a team of sweet sisters in popular song hits and Miller and Mulford the black-face comedians.

The current bill which closes this evening is headlined by the favorite Charley Grapewin and Anna Chance in a laughable playlet, "Poughkeepsie," a story of dramatic jams and jars that simply brims over with laughs. The bill includes Bush and Shapiro, the knockabout comedians; Doc O'Niel with his running fire of comedy chatter; the Six Serenaders, four girls and two men vocalists; Cook and Rothert, the eccentric dancers and the Five Armentas in whirlwind acrobatics.

LONDON DOESN'T LIKE OUR ATTITUDE AT ALL

Contrasts U. S. Protests With Treatment of the Submarine U-53.

London, Oct. 18.—(1:00 p. m.)—Under the heading, "A Contrast," the Evening Standard, commenting on the American protests against British cruisers "hovering" off American ports and America's treatment of the German submarine U-53, says that no protest was made by the United States against the activities of the submarine.

"Our only indication of the Washington attitude," the newspaper says, "is that she repudiates the allies' view that a submarine is not entitled to the privilege of an ordinary warship. It will be interesting to see whether President Wilson finds the German submarine activity in Atlantic waters as annoying as the British "hovering."

The statement of Viscount Grey, the foreign secretary to the house of lords, yesterday regarding operations of belligerent warships off the coast of the United States caused a considerable stir, says the London correspondent of the Liverpool Post.

"It has thrown a most disagreeable light upon the attitude of the American government in the early stages of the war," the correspondent remarks. "Washington is shown in a querulous, captious mood, making demands which it admitted were not legally tenable.

"The incident referred to is now ancient history and might well be forgotten but in view of the extraordinary proceedings in connection with the U-53 members are speaking very bitterly of the behavior of the American government."

MISS GOGIN GIVES SECOND OF LECTURES

Addresses Good Audience at Y. W. C. A. on "The Girl and Her Needs.

Before a fair-sized and very attentive audience at the Y. W. C. A. Miss Gogin gave the second of a series of lectures, Wednesday morning, which she will deliver in this city. Her subject was "The Girl and Her Needs."

Her talk dealt with girls between the ages of twelve or thirteen and twenty and not as she termed it, with "girls" in the association sense of the word, meaning anyone between fourteen and an unmentioned age.

Among the important needs in a girl's life is something to bolster up religious convictions. The fact that religion in homes is not as simple and straightforward as it formerly was leaves the child without a basis for a general viewpoint. Schools do not supply this need and it is generally known that human nature needs props to stand by. This must therefore be supplied to the girl by some organization such as the Y. W. C. A., she said.

The problem of large co-educational high schools was also mentioned and the good work which was done in them by the high school clubs organized by the association. They help the young girl entering the school to become acquainted with the advanced ways of doing things, she said. Cliques and secret societies were called snobbish and underhanded, when maintained in schools in which they are theoretically abolished.

There is a large class of girls in the country who are designated as industrial drifters. They leave school at an early age, even though it is not necessary, and start to look for work. There is no way for them to tell what work they are inclined to like so they take what is offered, the speaker declared. In looking for jobs they run up against dangers which they are unable to cope with. During the year between fourteen and fifteen when girls should be in school they are practically worthless in any kind of industry.

Seasonal trades were condemned especially in work where it is not absolutely necessary to be seasonal, such as the garment business. In these industries girls work about five or six months of the year but still are checked up in a way which makes it impossible for them to hold another position while not busy.

Trades now are getting more mechanical all the time and after a girl works at one thing for a few years she becomes able to do it without brains and unless she has something worth while to think about while she works her mind will suffer as a result. One purpose of Miss Gogin's work is to get the communities interested so that something will be supplied to occupy these girls' minds while they work mechanically.

After her lecture, Miss Gogin named a number of books which would be helpful in this work and then turned the meeting into an open discussion.

RAILROAD MAN HELD FOR ROBBING CARS

When Switchman Was Sick Cars Were Always Broken Into.

Every time Evon Everett Lawton, 36, night switchman on the Nickel Plate railroad, laid off because of sickness there was a car robbery. Three times Lawton has been sick since he started to work on July 22. There have been three cars broken into.

When the third car was looted Tuesday night railroad detectives became desperate. Captain Bonk, of the Nickel Plate detective force, and Deetective Jacob Havel engaged City Detective Sergeant William Pappert to assist them. The trio made a search of the yards Wednesday morning.

One of the yard men told that he had seen Lawton skulking about the cars one night when he was supposed to be sick. Lawton's home at 342 West Berry street was visited. A part of ten goods taken from the freight cars was found.

Lawton is held in jail charged with breaking into sealed railroad cars. He will be arraigned in police court Thursday morning.

Lawton had peddled a part of the stolen property over the neighborhood, detectives say. Much of the goods, including two dozen pairs of overshoes, eleven cans of mustard, two gallon bottles of peppermint oil and a bottle of sloe gin, have been recovered. There are eleven more bottles of the gin at large, detectives say.

Lawton came to Fort Wayne from St. Paul, he claimed. He has a wife here. He has been employed in many branches of train service. His past record is being probed.

NORWAY TAKES STAND MUCH LIKE AMERICA'S

Serves Notice on Allies Regarding Submarine Problem.

London, Oct. 18.—Reuter's Christian correspondent says Norway has informed the entente allies that it does not recognize it is the duty to prohibit passage through or sojurn in Norwegian waters by belligerent submarines. The Norwegian note is in response to the memorandum of the entente powers to neutrals suggesting that belligerent submarines should be excluded from neutral waters.

The Norwegian government declares it considers it has the right to prohibit submarines designed for war purposes and belonging to belligerents from passing through Norwegian territorial waters or sojourning in them and says it made use of this right in issuing the royal decree of October 13, under which belligerent submarines are forbidden to traverse Norwegian waters except in cases of emergency, when they must remain upon the surface and fly the national flag. The decree also provides that mercantile submarines are to be allowed in Norwegian waters only in a surface position in full daylight and when flying the national colors. On the other hand the government does not find that it is its duty as against any of the belligerents to prohibit such passages or sojourn.

STATE FOOD OFFICER VISITS DAIRY PLANTS

Many Farmers With Few Cows Are Making Indiana Great Dairy State.

A. W. Bruner, of Indianapolis, state food and drug inspector, was in Fort Wayne, Wednesday, and will be here Thursday, to visit dairy plants of the city. He is making a dairy survey of the state. He is accompanied in his trips over Fort Wayne and vicinity by Citi Dairy Inspector Kucher and Assistant Dairy Inspector Josse.

Bruner has visited 24,919 dairy farms since he began the survey last January. He finds that Indiana is forging to the front as one of the great dairy states. Millions and millions of pounds of butter and cheese are shipped from the state each year. Indiana dairies are rated as being in excellent condition. Bruner has found little fault with Fort Wayne dairymen as yet.

Most of the vast output of dairy products is from farms having but two and three cows. In more than ten per cent of the dairy farms there is only one cow. There are two milk cows on twenty-four per cent of the butter producing farms. On twenty-three per cent there are but three cows. In less than one per cent there are more than twelve cows.

Sixty per cent of the dairy farms are equipped with cream separators. Eleven per cent have silos, Bruner finds. The dairy industry is most thriving in the southeast corner of the state.

It is feared that Dr. C. C. Kimmel, who suffers from typhoid pneumonia, may not survive the day. His immediate family has been summoned to his bedside at the Lutheran hospital. Patrolman Ernest Paul, his father-in-law, was called from police duty to the hospital at noon. Attendants at the hospital think there is little chance for Kimmel's recovery.

SIMPLY HAD TO TALK TO THE RAILWAY MEN

President Runs Into Surprise Demonstration in New York Station.

New York, Oct. 18.—Passing through New York today on his third campaign trip into the middle west, President Wilson ran into a railroad men's demonstration at the Grand Central station and was impelled unexpectedly to make a speech after being greeted by employes who in overalls and other workday attire clug to his car platform or found gallery reservations on the iron superstructure of the train shed. In response to the men's demands that he talk to them the president at first said he had no speech to make but they were insistent and he said finally:

"I appreciate it with all my heart when you fellows come like this to see me without any convention. This encourages me immensely and makes me very warm about the heart."

The railroad men cheered and the train moved out with the president standing on the rear platform.

During his half hour stop in New York Mr. Wilson conferred with Vance C. McCormick, democratic national chairman; Col. E. M. House and Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the national committee's finance committee. With Mr. McCormick he discussed conditions in the west whence the chairman has just returned. Mr. McCormick said he told the president that "the west is on fire with Wilson sentiment."

Miss Helene Woodrow Bones, the president's cousin, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, accompanied Mr. Wilson's party to Chicago.

Management of the boarding house at 320 Baker street, where the fight occurred, wishes to correct the first report that the men were seated at the table when the brawl sarted, Tuesday. The men began fighting on the porch and in the street before the house, it is claimed. Brown has a long gash across his hand and his coat was cut by the razor wielded by Rogers.

DAIRY PRODUCTS MEN TO MEET HERE FRIDAY

Steps looking to the appointment of a state dairy commission will be one of the principal matters to be taken up Friday at a meeting of the Indiana manufacturers of dairy products to be held here Friday. The meeting will be one of a series of similar gatherings that the association has been holding throughout the state, and which are devoted principally to the consideration of legislation for the protection of the public and the dairy interests in matters of sanitation.

At the meeting to be held here reports from various legislative committees in the allied organizations maintained by the dairy cattle association and the cattle breeders, as well as the ice cream manufacturers, butter makers and milk dealers, will be made.

MUNCIE LAD, AGED 16, ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 18.—Earl Hopper, 16 years old, was placed on trial in the Delaware county circuit court here today, charged with murder, as the result of the death of Frank E. Deam, August 6, 1916, a superintendent in the Ball Brothers glass factory. A special venire of fifty men had been summoned for the jury. Deam was stabbed by John Craig in a fight in the factory. The state alleges that Hopper struck Deam in the fight. Hopper's contention is that he was attempting to separate Craig and Deam and if he struck Deam it was accidentally. Craig has been sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in the fight. One grand jury refused to return an indictment for a more serious offense than assault and battery against Hopper.

COLD AND BLUSTERY IS PREDICTION FOR WINTER

Weather Prophets of Fort Wayne Say It Will Be a Bad One.

If the prediction of several men who have passed the seventy-fifth milestone in their life's history and who have observed many seasons as they come and go, come true, Fort Wayne will experience a very cold, blustery winter this year. The men who in this case are the prophets have also served as soldiers in the civil war. They give their reasons for their prophesy.

The boys of '65 were sitting in a ring in one of the rooms on the first floor of the court house discussing subjects of the day. There was a vacant chair in the circle. A young man unheeded entered the room and slyly sank into the empty chair. Soon the conversation became laggy. The new arrival was looking for a story. He said, "I believe we are not going to have much of a winter this year."

"Don't fool yourself, my son," spoke up one of the grey-whiskered members of the select circle, as he took his cane and stamped on the floor twice to denote emphasis. "She's goin' to be a hard one, if I know anything about it."

Apparently everyone else in the room agreed with the first speaker. No one at this time raised a dissenting voice.

The man who had made the first statement continued: "I have lived through many summers and winters and you can generally depend on it when you have a hot summer, you always get a cold winter. And we had some pretty hot weather this summer, too."

"You're right, Hank," spoke up the second member of the crowd whose hair was also turning white. "We are going to have a corker. That winter and summer sign usually comes true. But the one that always comes true is the leaf sign. If the leaves hang on the trees very long in the fall you can depend on it that you had better lay in a big supply of winter wood or coal. The leaves this year got an early frost that killed them. A lot of them fell down, but there's a whole lot of them that are still stickin' on."

The aged man on the opposite side of the circle had been chewing at the end of his half-burned-away cigar. He took out a match and simultaneously he lit a match and started to speak. "Well, boys, I've heard a lot of people talk about these here signs about leaves and the summer before the winter and about corn husks and about lots of other things which will prophecy the weather for the coming winter, but the only one that I have seen that will hold good all the time is the one about the muskrats. When they build their nests hrigh and thick you can depend on a cold winter and a rainy spring. And when their fur is thick you can safely bet that the weather for the coming winter is going to be stiff. Well, I heard last week that the muskrats' fur is thick this fall and that they are building their nests thick and high." The last speaker was interrupted but once in his conversation. That was when the lighted match burned his finger.

The man who had given up one of his limbs for his country's sake had said nothing thus far. He had listened very carefully. Everyone seemed to have had his say except this one.

"Well," he began, "now since all of you have said your little speech, I guess I am entitled to one, too. None of you are right at all about the weather this winter. Now, mark my word, the winter is going to be a mild one. The caterpillars this year, and there's a lot of 'em, are all clad in a light brown color which signifies nothing more than that the winter is going to be light. I have noticed when their coats are a dark color all the way through that we always have a very cold winter. Some summers they are dark on both ends and light in the middle. Then we have a cold spell at the beginning and close of winter and a mild spell in the middle."

The last speech seemed to arouse a great degree of enthusiasm. At least an argument had started. Dates were flying fast and thick, used in the sense of convincive argument. Slyly but surely the reporter made his exit and as he passed through the door and into the corridor he heard teh tangible talk of three men all endeavoring to make themselves heard at the same time.

YOUNG MEN TO HELP IN DEMOCRATIC RALLY

The Young Men's Democratic league will assist at the big rally to be held in the Palace theater Thursday night, and will serve as a reception committee at the door. The speakers will be Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Prof. Stockbridge Axson, brother-in-law of President Wilson, and Senators Taggart and Kern.

The following young men have been selected to serve on the committee: Avery Groves, Otto Fuelber, Harry Muller, Howard Benninghoff, Louie Dunten, Elder Porter, Byron Hayes, John Hoffman, Clifford Gordon, Otto Schaphorst, Orin Darling, Will Harber, Myron Parrott, Alvin Bullerman, Grover Grabner, Louis Wilkie, Robert Hillegrass, Henry Branning, Leroy Swartz, Ralph Petgen, John Swaidner, Claren Squires, H. Wattenfeldt, Victor Roby, Albert Egley.

Edward O'Connor, clerk to Police Chief Lenz, is off duty because of illness.

Miss Minnie Reitze has gone to Milwaukee to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Wallenstein.

BIG NINE ELEVENS HAVING HARD LUCK

Football Camps Filled With Gloom — Indiana Has "Ghost-Ball" Practice.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 18.—With "Bullet" Strauch at quarterback the Illini resumed scrimmage. Strauch seemed to do well enough for a starter and Captain Bart Macomber demonstrated his delight at being back at right half by some excellent performances. Strauch may pilot the team against Ohio State Saturday. While Potter and Charpier were withheld because of sundry injuries, the gloom continued to live. George Halas appeared in scrimmage briefly and is doped to be able to play Saturday. Zuppke is experimenting with Leo Klein at end and the little halfback may prove to be the running mate for Ben Kraft.

IOWA.

Iowa City, Oct. 18.—Coach Jones sent his Iowa men through a stiff scrimmage. The freshmen eleven used Purdue plays successfully at first, but Jones gave the veterans some practical lessons on defense and the yearlings failed to gain thereafter. The coach tried out new plays with fair success. Jones took Bowlesby from tackle and placed Kriz there. Kriz may keep the job. Captain Laun, whose knee is still bad, again yielded end job to Corporal Leighton, national guardsman. Van Pelt and Scott alternated at full.

PURDUE.

Lafayette, Oct. 18.—Coach O'Donnell gave the Purdue squad a hard workout yesterday, endeavoring to perfect plays which will be used against Iowa Saturday. Against the husky freshman eleven the 'varsity had only fair success, scoring two touchdowns, while the yearlings managed to score once.

Harvey, a big freshman halfback, intercepted a forward pass and ran fifty yards for a touchdown.

Allen, Buechner and Van Aken are none of them in good shape and it is not likely that Allen will be able to play Saturday, thus depriving Purdue of the services of its best punter.

Assistant Coach Lambert has returned from Iowa City with a story of the Hawkeyes' prowess that makes victory for Purdue seem dubious.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Oct. 18.—The Gophers held a long, hard scrimmage, their opponents being the freshmen, who employed plays used by Iowa last Saturday. The Northmen put into execution a large variety of new plays, devised by Coach Williams. They involve variations of the famous shift. Mayer, star tackle, will be discharged from the hospital tomorrow, and may play on Saturday. Van Nest cannot play for a week, but Shorty Long, regular quarter, is again in good condition.

WISCONSIN.

Madison, Oct. 18.—Coach Withington started what he calls his "vicious week" this afternoon by sending his Badgers against the freshmen and the reserves in a long, gruelling scrimmage. The yearlings, primed with Stagg formations, were given the ball during most of the play and managed to break through for many long gains. The coaches realize that they have a huge task in building, out of green material, a defense that can cope with Chicago a week from Saturday. Koekhofer, the big center who has been on the hospital list for a week, wrenched his shoulder after being in the scrimmage only a few minutes.

INDIANA.

Bloomington, Oct. 18.—For the first time this season Coach Stiehm ordered the Indiana squad to work with the ghost ball tonight under the big electric deflectors on the field. The coach shifted Hathaway from left end to half and used Pope and Keever at the wings. A hard, gruelling program of tackling and charging occupied the first two or three hours, after which four new plays for the Tufts game were given out. After the 'varsity had run signals on the formations for more than an hour it tried the new formations on the freshmen and scored a touchdown in four minutes. Captain McIntosh has returned and is taking light workouts, but Rend Buschmann will be out of play for another week.

70,000 WILL WATCH YALE-HARVARD GAME

The great popularity of college football is indicated by the action of the Yale athletic management in voting to build 8,000 more seats in the Yale bowl and raise the seating capacity to more than 70,000.

This is a greater number than has ever attended a professional baseball game, a prize fight or a race in America. A few soccer matches in England have drawn larger crowds, as have one or two championship amateur baseball games in Cleveland, O., but these contests were held in the open and no admission was charged.

LOCAL DRIVER PILOTS BUICK IN DIRT-TRACK CHAMPIONSHIP RACE.

Ralph Ormsby and His Mechanician.

Ralph Ormsby, the local speed merchant, is driving his car in this afternoon's race at Warren for the dirt track championship of Indiana and Ohio. Ormsby's ability on a half-mile track is pretty well recognized and it is generally conceded that he will lead the field, barring the sort of trouble which threatens a driver at all times.

CANCEL GAMES.

The Friar management has cancelled the games booked with Canton earlier in the season. The first Canton game was due a week from Sunday, but instead the well known Elyria eleven will furnish the opposition that day. This leaves the date on which the Friars were going to journey to Canton open. Negotiations are being made now to fill this open date with a team that will be good enough for the latter part of the season.

Light practice was given the warriors last night and will be followed by a harder one Saturday. Deac Jones has joined the sick list with a bum leg, which may keep him on the side lines during the game with the Cincinnati Celts Sunday.

There are reports that another game with Hammond may be arranged. Whether it will be played here or not remains to be seen.

TURNERS ELECT VET TO CAPTAIN TEAM

The Active Turners have elected Joe Henry to lead the basketball team this season. Henry has played on the team before and is a good floor captain. The Actives will play the fastest quintets handy this season and have started to make up their schedule.

ABE ATTELL TO TRY COMEBACK ON LYNCH

Abe Attell is to do the come-back stunt.

Abe says he can do it and says it isn't money he's after, it's the honor of the Attell family.

Not long ago Joe Lynch trounced Brother Monte, the last of the Attells to carry the family colors into the ring, trounced him unmercifully, ending with a seventh round knockout.

Abe couldn't stand this reflection on the ability of the Attells as fighters and secured a match with Lynch.

Lynch isn't greatly impressed.

He's guessing he can beat up the whole Attell family.

West Ends to Play Overlands Sunday

The West End team will travel to Kendallville Sunday to play the Overlands of that place. The local team has a rather large hospital list as a result of the game with the Winona Aggies last Saturday. The coach, Louie Island, will give them some new plays and show them a new style of defense this week in preparation for the game Sunday.

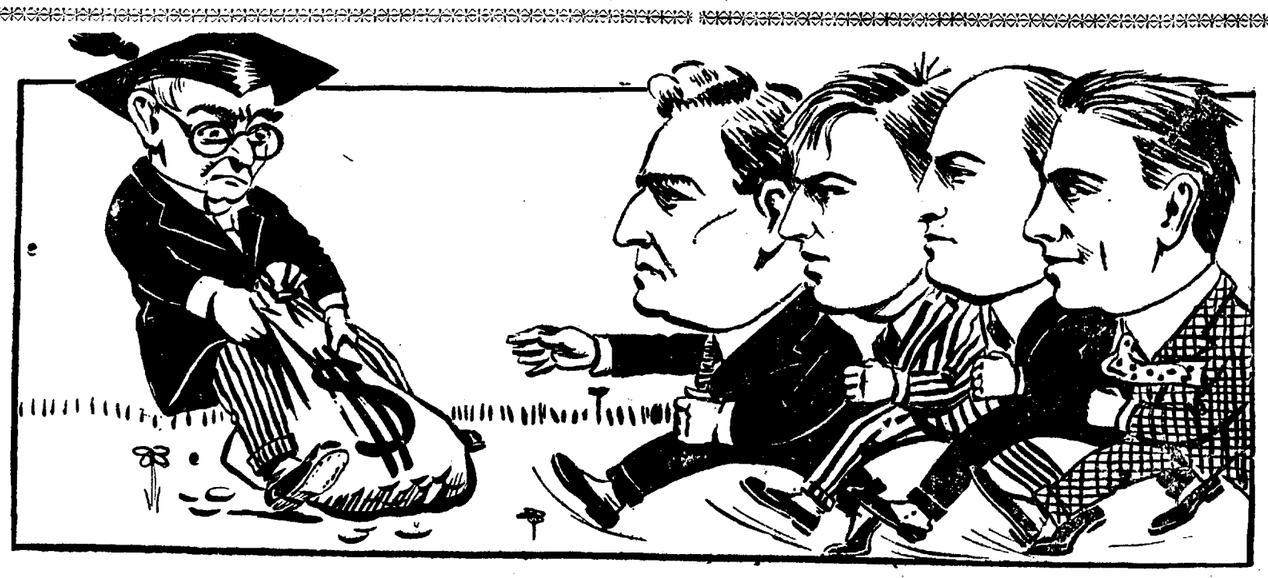
WILL COLLEGES BAR COSTLY COACHES? ACTION OF YALE ATHLETIC BOARD MAY RESULT IN THE ELIMINATION OF COSTLY COACHING SYSTEMS!



HIGH PRICE COACHES WHO MA Y LOSE OUT IF YALE RULE IS ADO PTED, A. A. STAGG, CHICAGO; TA D JONES, YALE; PERCY HAUGHTON, HARVARD; FIELDING YOST, MICHIGAN.

BY PAUL PURMAN.

Is the end in sight for immense salaries for college coaches and physical directors?

Year after year, since athletics have become a paramount issue in college activities, more and more money has been spent by schools to get high class men to direct their football, baseball, track and basketball teams and their crews.

Even the smaller colleges are spending comparatively large sums of money annually for their athletic mentors.

The first movement toward cheaper coaching has come from Yale where a special committee on athletics has heavily scored the high cost of athletics and the maintenance of large and expensive coaching staffs.

The constantly increasing competition in colleges is blamed for the advanced cost which has reached the thousands of dollars in many instances.

In the east where staffs of half a dozen or more assistants are employed in addition to the main coach the expense is terrific.

The high price of coaches is felt even in the smallest colleges.

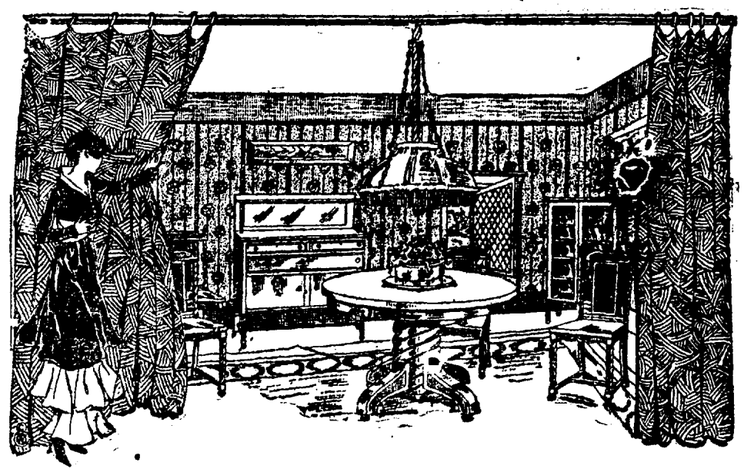
Schools with only 200 or 300 students must produce good athletic teams to hold their attendances. Coaches are hired and usually are paid more than the heads of educational departments.

The really great coaches of the country, men like Tad Jones, of Yale; Alonzo Stagg, of Chicago; Fielding Yost, of Michigan, and Percy Haughton, of Harvard, receive salaries clear out of proportion to that paid professors.

In making their report the Yale committee suggests that the athletic expense might be cut by the use of graduate or undergraduate coaches at smaller expense.

"The intensity of athletic rivalry," the committee reported, "if unchecked, may so increase as to make intercollegiate athletics an unprofitable scramble for the raising of huge sums of money for the payment of disproportionate salaries demanded by expert coaches."

Speaking of the present system, the committee says that "it would be better to eliminate intercollegiate athletics altogether until the dawn of an era of reasonableness in such things."



"AS USUAL WE LEAD IN QUALITY AND PRICES"

A Story Worth Telling

A discriminating lady came into our store the other day and purchased some furniture. After buying she said, "I have a taste for good furniture. I went to several stores to buy before I came here, and in some cases the price asked for an inferior article was more than you ask for the best quality. You give better quality at a lesser cost than any of the stores in which I priced furniture. The many styles of furniture on your floors should certainly suit every fancy. And the rugs have so many beautiful colorings that would harmonize splendidly with any room. I certainly will tell my friends about this store."

BENSON URGES MORE AID FOR HOME TRADE

Pasadena, Cal., Oct. 18—"Both republican and democratic parties confessed to a desire to establish our foreign trade to absorb the production of American factories," declared Alla L. Benson, socialist nominee for president, at a meeting here last night.

"I have said again and again the draft law President Wilson signed and our unparalleled military appropriations have but one purpose," he continued, "and that is the holding of the foreign trade European capitalists lost. All nations of Europe will combine against us at the end of the war to get it back. Why should American capitalists be permitted to plunge the nation into war when America's true policy is to promote domestic consumption?"

Late yesterday Mr. Benson met George R. Kirkpatrick, candidate for vice president on the socialist ticket, for the first time since their notification.

HUGHES WOULD NOT REPEAL 8-HOUR LAW

Answers Query by Saying "Surrender Cannot Be Revoked."

Sioux City, Iowa, Oct. 18.—Charles E. Hughes, facing a friendly audience sprinkled with hecklers here last night, replied to a question as to whether he would repeal the Adamson law if elected president, by saying that "a surrender could not be repealed."

Mr. Hughes was asked what he would have done to avert the threatened railroad strike.

"If arbitration had been refused," Mr. Hughes replied, "I should have gone right to the American people, stated the facts, and put the responsibility where it belonged."

"I should at the same time," Mr. Hughes continued, "have secured a commission of inquiry so impartial, so fair as to command the respect of the entire country and direct public opinion to that end. There is no group of men in the United States that would have dared hold up the instrumentalities of commerce if that were done."

Before a gathering that crowded the auditorium he cited his record as life insurance investigator and as governor of New York in answer to the declaration that his election might mean the setting up of "invisible government" in the United States.

URGES EVERYONE TO QUICKLY GET ON WATER WAGON

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Advertisement.

A Clear-Away In Suits and Dresses

An Announcement of Unusual Interest

The unusual conditions under which merchants and manufacturers are working this season render it impossible to duplicate many of the choicest styles in suits and dresses—because of the scarcity of materials and trimmings in certain colorings. We have a large number of both suits and dresses—mostly one of a style—which will be sold at greatly reduced prices. As the collection is so comprehensive no descriptions will be given here and no comparative prices quoted; but those who come early will secure choice bargains.

THE DRINKING OF WATER

The general conclusions of the latest medical scientists prove that drinking of plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has also been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of water with meals is not harmful to digestion. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water). If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take a little Anuric before meals. These Anuric tablets can be obtained at almost any drug store in this country.

American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, ask your druggist for Anuric. Because of uric acid in over-abundance in the system, bachache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica result. Anuric is more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body.

TROOPS RETURNING FROM M'ALLEN, TEXAS

N. Y. Field Hospital and Ambulance Companies Going Home.

The First New York field hospital company and the First New York ambulance company, national guard, passed through Fort Wayne between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning, on a special train over the Wabash road. The field hospital company was under the command of Major Dunseith. It consisted of sixty-seven men and six officers and it belongs to New York. The ambulance company had four officers and seventy-nine men and was under the command of Capt. F. W. Sears. The home of the company is Binghampton, N. Y. These companies came from McAllen, Texas, which place they left last Saturday. Captain Sears said the men of both companies were in good health and spirits, but weary from the long ride. They will reach their home cities tomorrow night. The companies were accompanied by all their field hospital and ambulance equipment, and to carry it and the men it required four Pullman cars, two baggage cars, nine gondolas and two box cars. Captain Sears said that the Fifth Massachusetts infantry and a battalion of engineers were following and would be along here in a day or two. They will be in four special trains, handled as was the one today, by the Wabash to New Haven, where they will be turned over to the Nickel Plate.

RESULT OF CARELESSNESS.

George W. Stevens Declares It Greatest Enemy to Humans.

George W. Stevens, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio company, and former superintendent of the Wabash, with headquarters in Fort Wayne, has issued to the employes of the C. & O. the following statement:

"The greatest enemy to the human race, the one cause of the greatest destruction of human life, is not as may be generally supposed, war, famine, pestilence, but carelessness. Carelessness with respect to health, carelessness in the shop or manufacturing establishment, carelessness in the crowded city streets, carelessness on the country road. Carelessness in using the railway company's tracks as thoroughfares; carelessness in approaching grade crossings, all these are but few of the many ways in which carelessness is responsible for the destruction of human life.

"Observations by the railroads in the state of California disclosed the startling fact that out of 17,000 drivers of motor vehicles 69.5 per cent looked neither way before crossing tracks, 2.7 per cent looked in one direction only, and but 27.8 per cent looked both ways.

"In the month of July, 1916, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company killed twelve persons who were trespassers upon that company's properties. Of this number three were killed in the state of Virginia, six in West Virginia and three in Kentucky. The persons killed were reputable and, in many instances, substantial citizens, and this lamentable loss of life occurred through no fault of the railway company, and in spite of warning sign boards, posted bulletins and hundreds of newspaper articles, in which the company has called the public's attention to the unnecessary risks assumed by them in using tracks and terminals as thoroughfares."

CALLED TO WAGE CONFERENCE.

Wabash Affiliated Crafts to Send Men to St. Louis.

A telegram this morning informed the representatives of the four allied crafts at the Wabash shops that a meeting of the Wabash federated craft representatives would be held in St. Louis next Friday and it would be necessary for the Fort Wayne representatives to be present. The representatives are F. J. Schwanz, of the pipefitters; William Koenig, of the machinists; Edward Siebold, of the boilermakers, and Leo J. Jehl, of the blacksmiths. They will leave tomorrow evening for St. Louis to attend the meeting. The company and the skilled workmen at the various shops on the system are discussing a new wage and working condition agreement. The men first asked an increase of five cents per hour, which was met by an offer of an increase of two and a half cents per hour. This was turned down and Monday at a meeting of the representatives of nineteen roads, of which the Wabash is one, the employes proposed an increase of three cents per hour and an eight hour working day. The answer to this proposition may be announced at the meeting, Friday.

FIRST NUMBER A SUCCESS.

Electro-Technics Open Season With Dance at Moose Hall.

The entertainment at Moose hall last night which was the first number on the 1916-1917 amusement and lecture calendar of the Electro-Technic club, was all that could have been desired and surely came up to the expectations of the management. There were over 400 present. The program consisted of some musical numbers by Miss Helen Braun on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Miss Dorothy Stroebel, followed by a talk on "Enthusiasm" by Don D. Mungen, of the Wildwood Builders. Then came the dance program, which was interspersed by refreshments, under the management of H. C. Bryan, assisted by several pretty young ladies. The last number of the dance program was rendered at 11:30 o'clock. The entertainment committee, of which Harry Baals is the chairman, is feeling jubilant over the success of the social.

INSPECTING BRIDGES.

G. R. & I. Maintenance of Way Officials Out on Trip.

At 7 o'clock this morning, Division Engineer R. G. Jones and Master Carpenter H. M. Large, of this city, and C. D. Bunting, representing the engineering department at Grand Rapids, started out of the latter city on a motor car to inspect bridges on the Grand Rapids and Indiana line, between Grand Rapids and Richmond. They will be three days on the trip and will not reach Fort Wayne until tomorrow afternoon.

SUCCEEDS ENGINEER CUMMINGS.

Charles E. Baughn has succeeded John W. Cummings at the throttle of Wabash trains 28 and 3 between Peru and Montpelier. It will be remembered that Engineer Cummings died a week ago and his demise will result in several changes in the assignment of passenger runs on this division of the Wabash. The men to be most affected by them are Engineers George Morris, James Cain, J. B. Wells and Robert Devlin. The latter has been handling the throttle between this city and Toledo for three or four years, but he is to give way to Mr. Wells.

HYACINTH PEDRO PARTY.

Hyacinth lodge, No. 38, Ladies' Society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, will hold a public pedro party in Unity hall Thursday afternoon. Following the card games a social tea will be given to which all members and their families are invited. Supper will be served between the hours of 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock.

DR. J. S. SMITH IS OUT.

Dr. J. Sion Smith, who was painfully injured over a week ago when the buggy in which he, Mrs. Smith and their daughter were riding, was upset by running over a pile of dirt on the approach to the Coombs street bridge, was able to resume his duties at the Bass foundry this morning, though still quite sore. Mrs. Smith, who was bruised and otherwise injured in the accident, is also nearly well. The daughter was not injured.

A. A. SERVA IS CANDIDATE.

A. A. Serva, sales manager of the General Electric works, may be elected for high office in the Jovian order, which is holding a convention in Indianapolis this week. At least this is the aim of a number of delegates, who are booming Mr. Serva, who has taken no active steps in that direction himself. There are a number of other candidates and the election Friday promises to be full of excitement.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS AT CLEVELAND.

The Nickel Plate has let the contract for the elimination of grade crossings in the west side of Cleveland, which will cost many thousands of dollars. The work involves the handling of 100,000 cubic yards of earth at one point, where Walworth run will have to be filled. The contract, which was approved by the city, calls for the handling of 2,500 cubic feet of earth each work day. The Walsh Construction company has the contract.

TO PITTSBURG ON BUSINESS.

A. S. Courtney, of the valuation department; W. B. Madara, general foreman of the machine shop, and L. S. Trachsel, of the piece work department of the Pennsylvania shops, left last night for Pittsburg on business for the company.

RECOVERS FROM INJURY.

Michael Conners, who had a wrist broken seven weeks ago, resumed work at the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning. His appearance at the works was greeted by pleasure by his associates, with whom he is quite a favorite.

F. H. Pierce, Nickel Plate engineer, who resides in Bellevue, is taking a few days off duty to attend the street fair, which opened in Bellevue yesterday.

Engine No. 113, which years ago was one of the best passenger engines on the Nickel Plate, has passed the useful stage of its existence and yesterday was sent to Stony Island to be "scrapped." Two other engines were sent there yesterday to be rebuilt and put in serviceable shape again.

AT THE MAJESTIC

Poet-Historian's Tribute to "Ramona."

John S. McGroaty, probably California's greatest living poet and historian and author of "The Mission Play," paid the following tribute to "Ramona" after having witnessed its premiere:

"'Ramona' marks the farthest North in motion pictures. Nothing has yet been done to equal it, either in America or in foreign lands. And it will be long and many a day before anything is done to come anywhere near it.

"Mr. Crisp has caught not only the soul of Helen Hunt Jackson's immortal story, but he has caught also the soul of California itself.

"California and the world will see these pictures. But what a pity it is that Helen Hunt Jackson cannot see them! The heart-break, the tragedy, the deathless beauty—they are all there on the screen. I don't know how much money it cost to make these pictures, or how much money they will bring in. It doesn't matter about that. But what does matter is the fact that 'Ramona' has been filmed and that the job was not bungled."

"An Old Sweetheart of Mine."

James Whitcomb Riley, best beloved poet of the plain people, appealed simply and surely to childhood, youth and old age because he depicted real human beings and got close to nature. He never expressed in his verses, so well known clear around the globe, a morbid or unwholesome thought. They are as fragrant as the breath of springtime or as the crisp tang of autumn breezes. And so by young and old of all degrees they are welcomed to the stage as adapted into drama by Robert McLaughlin of Cleveland, in his new romantic play, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine." The sentimental and humorous composite of Riley sentiment and characters will be acted at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday. It is one of the most welcome events in the history of the American stage and full of grateful promise. It has aroused tremendous interest not only among regular playgoers but thousands of others who do not give special consideration to the theater.

HATCH SMASHES ALL RECORDS.

Runner Makes Milwaukee-Chicago Trip Under Fifteen Hours.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Sidney Hatch, of Chicago, winner of a score of marathon races, shattered all records for long distance running today when he finished a run from Milwaukee to Chicago—95.7 miles—in 14 hours, 50 minutes and 30 seconds, beating the record for the course held by Al Corey by 4 hours and 17 minutes. Hatch's running mate, Alex Montverde, Johnstown, N. Y., gave way shortly before dawn and dropped out. Hatch ran all the way, made only three brief stops for rub-downs and finished in good condition.

TWO TALENTED TINY DANCERS.

These two little shavers have worn the floor as slick as polished ebony around their papa's work table. They do clog dancing by the hour, just for fun. They dance the different steps together like clock work. Prof. John Holcomb, of Detroit, recognized authority on dancing, says they are the best heel and toe artists in the middle west. They are going to New York one of these days for a debut at old Coney Island.

They are Everett Sausman, aged eight years, and Catherine Sausman, aged eleven, children of Edwin Sausman, tailor, 1314 South Calhoun street. They attend the Jefferson school. The boy is a natural acrobat and dancer. He has learned twenty-six new dance steps perfectly in six months. His sister is also an artist in expressive dances, which are now forming a prominent part in the classic ballet. Their "Little Boy Blue" dance is a marvel of accuracy.

Their natural dancing ability comes from ancestors of the father, the parents say. Sausman's grandmother was one of the reputed dancers in Bremen, Germany, and is said to have been so fond of the "light fantastic" that she arose from a sick bed when eighty years old to take part in a dance.

DELEGATES MAKE TRIP TO BIOLOGICAL FARM

Chicago Man Tells Farmers How to Manage Soil for Profit.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—Delegates attending the annual session of the farmers' congress which is being held here today made a trip of inspection to the Morland biological farm near here. Prof. Henry G. Bell, of Chicago, who spoke on the subject "Managing Soil for Profit," presented charts to show that gross returns per acre for corn in the three best corn growing counties of each of the following states, ran as follows: Illinois, 4.2 per cent; Iowa, 3.8 per cent; Indiana, 6 per vent; Ohio, 8.3 per cent; New York, 7.2 per cent; Pennsylvania, 6.3 per cent; Virginia, 8.9 per cent and Maryland, 7.8 per cent.

Prof. Bell then stated that it had been demonstrated by reliable agricultural experiment stations in this country and Europe and by the experience of successful farmers that great profits in increased crop yields and products of superior quality accrues to farmers when fertilizers of suitable analysis are properly used on soil in good physical condition.

"Everybody knows," continued the expert, "that farm labor is becoming scarcer and less reliable. Fortunately, more efficient farm machinery is finding its way on the market. This in itself is a great aid in meeting the labor problem. Approximately as much labor, exclusive of the actual handling of the products at harvest has to be expended on a wheat field whether it yields 10, 20 or 30 bushels to the acre. If the addition of a liberal amount of suitble plant food will obtain the higher yield is it not the essence of good business to make the investment in fertilizer?"

Other speakers on the program today included Clifford Pinchot, who was to talk on "National Control of Water Power," and Dr. H. N. Wheeler, former director of the Rhode Island experiment station, on "Farming the Air."

WHEAT PRICES MAKE ANOTHER BIG CHARGE

Market Puts on Bold Front and Takes the $1.55 Trench by Storm.

True to prediction, the wheat market, which has been putting on a bold front for the past few days, made a forward charge Wednesday morning and gained a 3 cent stretch. The top price as offered by local merchants is now $1.55. This is nearly a record price ever offered in this vicinity for grain. The outlook is not very encouraging. It is predicted that the price will gain another trench before the week is over, which will mean a boost of 2 or 3 cents more. The flour prices as a result will also go up soon.

All other Fort Wayne markets were quiet Wednesday, with receipts light and prices unchanged. The hog market seems to be gaining strength, but no change has been quoted in prices. The egg market remains quiet, but with receipts nearly next to nothing the price is bound to rise.

The butter market also gives promise to a rise. The poultry market fell off a cent or two but dealers expect that a recovery of this loss will be made soon.

Thanksgiving turkeys do not promise to be very numerous this year. The country around Fort Wayne has but few and the stock that will be sold here will have to be imported.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Fresh advances in the price of wheat resulted today from a continuance of foreign buying. The chief incentives were drought in Argentine and snow storms in Canada. Opening prices, which ranged from ¼c to 2¾c higher, with December at $1.64@1.65¾ and May at $1.65@1.66¼, were followed by a considerable further advance and then something of a reaction.

Corn borrowed strength from wheat. After opening unchanged to ¼c higher, the market scored moderate general gains. Oats responded a little to the upturns in other cereals. Higher quotations on hogs and grain tended to hoist provisions.

New York Grain and Provisions.

New York, Oct. 18.—Flour market was strong.

BABY BONDS IDEAL FOR SMALL INVESTORS

The rate of interest paid upon any security naturally depends upon the element of speculation which enters into the investment. Smaller investors should always be exceedingly careful not to be tempted by the possibility of high returns, for as the rate of interest mounts higher the degree of safety descends lower. In Baby Bonds the small investor finds a security with a rate of return that is as high as he can expect to receive without losing some of the elements of safety which he should look for in an investment. Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, bear six per cent. interest and are secured by first mortgages on local real estate. There are also a few $500 bonds of the same issue, which have the same security and bear the same rate of interest. For other particulars, see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 18.—Specialties, particularly those comprising the paper groups, were again the standard features of today's early operations, advances ranging from 1 to 3 points. Shipping shares, Industrial Alcohol, United States Rubber and some of the coppers also scored material gains, with General Electric and American Linseed issues. United States Steel improved fractionally on its first offering of 5,000 shares, but allied issues were barely firm. Among rails Chesapeake and Ohio and Atlantic Coast Line were conspicuous, rising over a point, with one point gains for Union Pacific, Norfolk and Western and Reading.

Standard stocks reacted sharply before the end of the first hour, selling variably under yesterday's final figures. The movement which savored strongly of a bear drive, based presumably on market uncertainties, was partly readjusted.

Rails, such as Union Pacific, Illinois Central, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Norfolk and Western, guided the list to higher levels. Steel, which had yielded over a point, made almost complete recovery.

Bonds were strong.

CITY PLANNING TOUR WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Albert H. Schaaf Returns from Trip of the State Tuesday.

"We found that the proposed city planning bill had all of the features which many cities through their park boards and public officials had been trying to work out," declared Albert H. Schaaf, of the realty firm of Hilgemann & Schaaf, and chairman of the city planning committee of the Indiana Real Estate association, Wednesday, on return from the state tour of the association.

Mr. Schaaf was not able to be with the real estate dealers at their closing meetings this afternoon at Anderson and tonight at Marion. Fifteen cities were covered on the tour and in each, Mr. Schaaf says, fine receptions were given. At Gary, South Bend and Elkhart the mayors took decided interest in the project.

Flavel Shurtleff, of New York, secretary of the National City Planning commission, accompanied the realty men on a part of the trip as did John E. Lathrop, when the tourists reached Evansville. Both Mr. Shurtleff and Mr. Lathrop made speeches, together with Mr. Schaaf and Lee J. Ninde, president of the Indiana Real Estate association. It is possible that the city planning exhibit, which was shown here, will be set up in Indianapolis, Terre Haute and perhaps another Indiana city. By this method it is hoped to get the idea of city planning prominently before the people by the time the legislature convenes. The legislature will be asked to pass a city planning bill, making it mandatory for cities of 10,000 or more to establish city planning commissions and leaving it optional with towns under 10,000.

GOOD WOMAN IS CALLED TO HER FINAL REWARD

Mother of William A. Black Passes Away at Home in Lancaster, Ohio.

Word was received by Fort Wayne friends, Wednesday, of the death of Mrs. Nancy Black, well known here, mother of William A. Black, 722 Wagner street, which occurred at her home in Lancaster, Ohio, October 15. Mr. and Mrs. Black have been at the bedside of the former's mother for the past five weeks.

The following from a Lancaster paper tells of Mrs. Black's death:

"After an illness of over two years duration, Mrs. Nancy Black passed quietly away Sunday at half after 12 o'clock at her home on East Wheeling street. All that medical aid and kind hearts could do was done for dear old Mrs. Black, but the Father knew best and called her to her home beyond.

"She is survived by four daughters, four sons, fifteen grandchildren, one brother, Robert Larimer, of Junction City; two sisters Mrs. C. P. Stockley, of Roseville, and Mrs. H. D. Cochran, of New Lexington, and a host of friends and other relatives.

"Rev. E. M. Ellsworth conducted the last sad services over the body at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home. Burial in Forest Rose cemetery."

Mrs. Henry Hitzemann, residing five miles west of the city on the Leesburg road, has been taken to the Lutheran hospital where she submitted to an operation for gallstones. Her condition is most satisfactory.

The condition of Mrs. Thomas L. Comparet, 1022 Lake avenue, is improved. She is a patient at the Lutheran hospital, where she underwent a surgical operation a few days ago.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

OWNER WAS IN THE HAY WHEN HORSE CAME BACK

Animal Tired Out and Besides, Gerke Said, Smokehouse Was Robbed.

Fred Gerke, 50, farmer, living four miles southeast of town, resembles a character in "Old Mother Goose" book for he "wouldn't lend his pony now for all the fellows hire." He had Frank Fordham, 34, laborer, in police court, Wednesday, charged with cruelty to animals.

Fordham hired Gerke's best driving horse, the farmer testified, to make a drive last Thursday. Fordham drove the steed for fourteen hours, Gerke said, and brought the animal back all tired out. Gerke will never rent out another of his horses, he solemnly said in court.

When the horse was not back home at 9 o'clock at night, Gerke went out to wait for Fordham's return, he said. The farmer crawled into the hay to keep warm. He went to sleep. When he awoke at 1 o'clock the horse was in its stall, but a very tired animal, he said.

"But even then I would have kept still, but my summer kitchen and smokehouse were robbed," Gerke explained.

Fordham said he only drove the horse twenty-two miles and not at a rapid gate. He said he returned the animal at 9:30 o'clock and found Gerke sleeping in the hay. The case was continued indefinitely.

Bashana has served time in a correction school for larceny.

A Nickel Plate freight train was stopped Tuesday afternoon until Fred Kampert could be dragged from the tracks, where he had fallen in a drunken stupor. Police were called and haled him to the station. He will be tried on an intoxication charge Monday.

People in the neighborhood of the Wabash switch yards asked the police to arrest John Saine, 50, Tuesday afternoon. The police found the drunken man clinging to a telephone pole and clad only in an undershirt. He was fined $5 and costs on a drunk charge.

Corbit Conklin, 45, entered the police station Tuesday afternoon and crawled under the seats in the squad room to sleep. He was dragged from his resting place and lodged in a cell. Judge Kerr released him.

Other penalties for charges of public intoxication were Mat Carmody, $5; Emma Lynch, $5; Emil Kerhn, New Haven baker, released. Others who were let go were William Doyle, Milton Long, Ray Painter, Edward Runkle and William Skelly.

John Hoffman, charged with intoxication, was released. He is a farmer by trade and is not the deputy prosecutor.

Help for Bronchial Trouble and Cough

"Foley's Honey and Tar Compound acts more like a food than a medicine."

Mr. Will G. Richmond, Inglewood, Calif., says:—"I wish to recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as it has greatly benefitted me for bronchial trouble and cough. It acts so well in harmony with nature that it is more like a food than a medicine."

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has a wonderfully quick way of soothing and healing the raw tickling surface of the throat and bronchial tubes. It eases the tightness over the chest, raises the phlegm easily, and helps the stubborn racking cough that is so exhausting and weakening.

It is the best medicine you can buy, and better than anything you can make, for coughs, colds, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, la grippe and bronchial coughs, hoarseness, tickling throat and stuffy wheezy breathing. It contains no opiates, and is acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

Mobile and Pensacola Fast in Grip of a Furious Tropical Storm.

Gale Increased in Intensity as It Sweeps Inland from the Gulf.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 18.—A message received here shortly before 9 o'clock this morning by the Postal Telegraph company from Mobile, stated the wind there at that time was blowing ninety miles an hour. All telegraph and telephone connections between Mobile and New Orleans was lost after 9 a. m. d

An east to southeast gale was blowing ninety-eight miles an hour at Fort Morgan, Ala., at the entrance to Mobile bay, at 6:45 this morning, according to a radio message received here today. The message stated the wind averaged ninety miles with occasional gusts reaching ninety-eight. The storm struck Fort Morgan about 4 a. m.

Increasing in Intensity.

The report from Pensacola, together with reports from Mobile, was considered as indicating the center of the tropical hurricane might sweep inland from the gulf somewhere near Pensacola.

Efforts to reach Pensacola from New Orleans by telegraph and telephone failed after 8 o'clock. The wire companies reported the storm appeared to be increasing in violence there when connection was lost.

Rainfall of 11.88 inches was recorded at Burwood, La., during the last twenty-four hours.

Central Powers in Request for Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

Athens, Oct. 18.—On the initiative of the Central empires, Washington has been asked to permit the American legation here to take charge of Austrian, Bulgarian and Turkish interest in case of a declaration of war by Greece or other complications. Permission has been given as regards Austria.

Three hundred French marines were transferred yesterday from the municipal theater to the Zappeion exposition building, within 400 yards of the king's palace. They marched through the streets with bayonets fixed and trumpets blowing, accompanied by moving picture apparatusand an automobile with Franco-British secret police. The front of the larger palace structure is occupied by prince and family and Princess Alice.

Midway on their march the French contingent met three companies of sailors from the former Greek fleet, who have now been formed into infantry organizations. Their trumpets were also sounding and they made quite as impressive an appearance as the French, with the added picturesque touch of the swinging right arm peculiar to Greek troops on the march.

When the squads met, the Greeks turned down another street, leaving the stadium street to the French.

NEW PENMANSHIP INSTRUCTOR RULE

D. O. McComb, county school superintendent, has received a suggestion from C. A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction, regarding the test to which penmanship instructors are subject in order to supervise penmanship at any point in the stae. The ruling makes a distinction between a penmanship instructor with a county and a state license.

Mr. Greathouse says in his letter: "At a meeting May 8 of the state board of education it adopted a committee report providing for licensing supervisors of penmanship in the same manner as music and art supervisors are licensed. The supervisors' list for October 16 will contain questions on this subject in the afternoon program and penmanship will be one of the regular supervisor's subjects hereafter."

While it is not necessary that penmanship instructors take the test, yet by the taking the instructor may teach over a wider range of territory. Mr. Greathouse has urged that publicity be given the board's ruling before October 28.

RUMANIANS CHECK TEUTONIC DRIVE

Entente Claim Effective Stand Against Gen. Von Falkenhayn's Army.

Official announcements today from the entente side report an effective stand by the Rumanians against Gen. von Falkenhayn's armies along the Transylvanian border and the sanguinary repulse by the French of heavy German assaults on the new French positions in Sailley-Saillisel on the Somme front.

The approach of the cold season is accompanied by no diminution in activity in most of the European battle areas. In some of them, indeed the efforts of the belligerents apparently are being redoubled. This seems notably true along the eastern front, from Volhynia to Rumania, whence continuous fighting is reported, with a virtual deadlock in the result so far. Berlin has conceded the stiffening of the Rumanian resistance along the Transylvania front and Bucharest advices today declare that King Ferdinand's troops are making a successful stand and at one point at least in the Predal region south of Kronstadt, are pushing Gen. von Falkenhayn's armies back. From the Rumanian viewpoint all the military news is reassuring, it is declared.

Russian troops in force are reported helping the Rumanians to defend the passes from Transylvania into their territory.

On the Somme front German attacks were delivered against the French line both on the north and south of the Somme. Three assaults by the Germans upon the French in Sailley-Saillisel are declared by Paris to have been repulsed with heavy losses to the Germans who also were repelled after they had gained a footing in a French first line trench near Berney-in-Santerre.

On the British front in the Somme region, progress by Gen. Haig's forces between the Albert-Bapaume road and Les Boeufs is reported despite the presence of rainy weather.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Eye-witnesses of the Zeppelin attack on England on Sept. 23 report, according to the Overseas news agency, that bombs hit the Grimsby barracks, killing more than 400 soldiers and that about sixty men were killed on board a cruiser which was hit by a bomb.

It is said that Regent street, London, was for the most part laid in ruins.

"Eye witnesses stated that more than 100 buildings were damaged, some of them being completely wrecked," says the news agency. "The damage is estimated at more than £2,000,000. Regent street, London, which is the main artery of commerce, was for the most part laid

HANLY CALLS ROLL; ALL RULED BY WETS, HE SAYS

Peru, Ind., Oct. 18.—Indiana crowds applauded today as the national prohibition candidates denounced big party politics in the state as dominated by liquor interests and demanded a house cleaning, particularly in the United States senate. J. Frank Hanly, the dry presidential candidate calling the roll of Indiana candidates for leading state and national offices declared that virtually all of them were controlled or at least influenced by the wet interests.

"Neither Harry New or Jim Watson, the republican senatorial candidates would tell you, for a seat in heaven, where they stand on the liquor issue," he shouted to a crowd at Rochester. "Mr. Adair, the democratic gubernatorial nominee has declared that he wants nomination by the liquor interests perpetuated. Mr. Goodrich is silent on the subject."

CHIZZLY FRIZZLY OVERCOAT WEATHER

Thermometer Reaches Lowest Point Yet This Fall, Wednesday.

Fort Wayne awoke Wednesday morning to find itself encircled in a thin sheet of ice. The entire city shivered beneath the chizzly, frizzly atmosphere of an October morning and men dug up their overcoats and used them to a great advantage. The weather man explains the reason for all this action. The government thermometer reached a new low point Wednesday morning for this fall. The temperature at 5:30 o'clock was thirty-three degrees. And this temperature was taken on top of the Shoaff building. It is a safe estimate to deduct ten degrees to get the correct temperature on the ground. There was a very heavy frost, the weather man reports.

The sun, although it shone the entire day, did not heat up the cold atmosphere or the cold earth. Warmer weather, however, was promised for tonight and Thursday. There are also probable showers in the prediction for Thursday.

It can be expected now that the mornings will be very cool and that during the day there will be a slight rise in the temperature, but the general outlook is that cold weather will soon be in our midst.

BEGIN EXCAVATION WORK ON GYMNASIUM

Work on the excavation of the Clay school gymnasium has been started by the contractor who received the contract for its erection. The new addition to the school will be a beautiful structure and will be modern in every respect. The contractor will push the work forward as rapidly as possible.

The work on the erection of the addition to the Hamilton school building has been delayed on account of failure to get material necessary for its erection. It is presumed that the building will be completed by Christmas so that it will be occupied at the beginning of the second semester of school.

The public school board will meet in regular session next Monday afternoon, at which time the regular business will be transacted. The deals for the real estate which the board purchased at its last meeting will be closed.

Prof. Justin N. Study is arranging to have those teachers who are connected with the state association in any way to attend the annual meeting, which will be held at Indianapolis next week.

MUST SERVE ELEVEN YEARS FOR MURDER

Thomas McCloskey, 59, whose real name is Joseph Ryan, and who was sent to the state farm last week by Judge Kerr for stealing a rug from an East Main street clothes line, is wanted to finish a long prison sentence for murder. He will be taken from the state farm to the Pennsylvania penitentiary, where he must serve eleven years.

Ryan struck and killed a man in a burglary attempt, word from Pennsylvania reads. He was convicted on the murder charge and sentenced to nineteen years in the state prison. That was on Feb. 6, 1906. He was paroled in 1914, after serving eight years of his sentence. He has violated his parole and must go back for the remaining eleven years.

Ryan was intoxicated when he took the rug from a Fort Wayne clothes line, he said. He was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to sixty days at the state farm. A parole officer from Pennsylvania will go to the state farm for him soon.

SCULPTOR COMPLETES ANTHONY WAYNE MODEL

Word has been received from Sculptor George E. Geniere that he has completed the working model for the General Anthony Wayne equestrian statue, and has it ready for the inspection of the jury which is to pass upon it.

At a meeting of the local commission Tuesday, Mrs. Frances Haberly Robertson, Ross McCulloch and D. N. Foster were appointed a committee to go to Chicago, Friday morning, which committee, with the assistance of Loredo Taft, the celebrated Chicago sculptor, will pass upon the merits of this working model. If approved the next step will be the building up of the full sized wax figure and this again will have to secure the approval of the committee and consulting sculptor. This then is put into plaster from which the bronze casting is made. The casting is a slow process and will require several months. The aim of the commission and of Sculptor Geniere is to have the monument ready for unveiling by this time next year. It is to stand at the northwest corner of Hayden park on the Lincoln highway.

SEES DANGER IN MR. HUGHES

Republican Victory Would Imperil Prosperity, Asserts Mr. McAdoo.

SAYS WALL STREET DOMINATES G. O. P.

Roosevelt's Only Definite Republican Utterance, He Declares.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Praise for President Wilson's diplomatic and legislative achievements and charges that "Wall street has always dominated the republican party" and the victory for that party next month would endanger the country's prosperity, were voiced here today by William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury before a noon political meeting in a downtown theater.

"The American people are being asked to put in peril the peace and prosperity the country is now enjoying at hands of President Wilson by turning their government over to the inexperienced Mr. Hughes and the organized band of incompatible elements which are supporting him," said Mr. McAdoo.

"For two months they have condemned every act of the democratic administration in the most unfair and untruthful manner but the American people are still without a definite answer from Mr. Hughes as to what they will do with the government if they get possession of it."

Only Definite Thing.

"The only definite thing we have had in the campaign came from Col. Roose-

BOOKWALTER TO SPEAK HERE THIS EVENING

Charles A. Bookwalter, a Fort Wayne boy and ex-mayor of Indianapolis, will speak in the assembly room of the court house this evening at 8 o'clock on the issues of the campaign from a republican point of view.

Mr. Bookwalter is well known to Fort Wayneites. He was reared in this city and though he has been away from here a number of years his devotion to Fort Wayne has not waned in the least. He is always glad to come back and no doubt will be greeted by a large crowd of former acquaintances and boyhood friends when he speaks this evening.

On Friday evening he will speak to railroad men at Unity hall, on South Calhoun street, at which time he will discuss the Adamson eight hour law.

CHICAGO VOTERS NOW REACH 808,728 TOTAL

City's Registration Over 70,000 in Excess of the New York Showing.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Chicago today has more qualified voters than any city in the country, the total of men and women on the registration books being 808,728, or more than 70,000 in excess of New York's registration.

Complete returns today from the registration yesterday, the last registration day before the coming presidential election, show that 504,467 men and 304,261 women are now enrolled.

Political managers of all parties today expressed surprise at the big woman registration which had been estimated at only 300,000 for the entire state. If returns from outside of Chicago show the same enthusiasm among women to register as in this city it is estimated that 500,000 of the sex will be entitled to vote in Illinois for president in November.

CASTING OF BRONZE BUST IS DELAYED

Randall Monument Unveiling Must Be Postponed at Least a Week.

There has been a delay of over a week in the casting of the bronze bust for the Perry A. Randall monument and consequently the unveiling of the monument will have to be postponed at least that length of time. The word announcing the delay was received in Fort Wayne by the committee, Tuesday.

The bronze bust of Mr. Randall was to have been finished last week so that it could be set on the foundation in Swinney park by the middle of October. The committee had planned to have the unveiling take place as near the fifteenth of this month as possible.

Everything is ready for the placing of the bust when it arrives. It will only require a few days time after it arrives in this city to have it placed and everything in shape ready for the ceremony.

He is due in Kalamazoo at 4 p. m. and will remain there an hour and a half. His program called for his arrival shortly before 7 o'clock at Grand Rapids, where he will speak tonight, and his departure early tomorrow for other Michigan cities and Youngstown, Ohio, where will make the last speech of his third trip tomorrow night.

Plans Completed for Coming of Secretary McAdoo and Prof. Axson.

KERN AND TAGGART ALSO WILL SPEAK

Biggest Meeting of the Campaign Promised for Thursday Evening.

Arrangements have been completed for the monster meeting to be held at Palace theater Thursday evening at which addresses will be delivered by Hon. William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, United States Senators Thomas Taggart and John W. Kern and Professor Stockbridge Axson.

Announcement of the meeting has aroused unusual interest among the business men of the city on account of the prominence gained by Secretary McAdoo in the industrial and business world. Mr. McAdoo when becoming a member of President Wilson's cabinet, was recognized as one of the nation's greatest constructive business men. He engineered and was the builder of the great subway system in New York City and has been prominently identified with some of the largest and most important engineering projects ever undertaken in the United States.

Upon assuming duties as an advisor to President Wilson and as the executive head of the treasury, Mr. McAdoo set about at once to devise a system whereby government funds could be employed to facilitate the business of the people who created the funds. One of his first acts was to send government funds into the great northwest to facilitate the movement of crops. This move had the effect at once to give to the secretary

Acting Secretary of State Puts End to Rumor at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Reports that the German note of February 6 for the settlement of the Lusitania case had been accepted by the American government and was soon to be published by the state department, caused Acting Secretary of State Polk to authorize the following statement today: "The note has not been accepted and is not to be given out."

The last draft of the Lusitania memorandum, which was addressed to Secretary Lansing by Count von Bernstorff last February, and has since remained unacted upon, has been published in substance at least twice since it was delivered. Its text never has been given out.

So far as officials disclose the status of the case is the same as it was when action on the memorandum was held in abeyance pending developments on how Germany's final promises in the Sussex case were carried out.

MAIL INTERFERENCE IS HELD NOT WORTH WHILE

London, Oct. 18.—Commenting upon the reply of the entente allies to the American protest against interference with mails, the Manchester Guardian says that while the allies are acting within their legal rights "we are extremely skeptical about the military value of the examination of inward mails from the United States. Moreover, some of the interference is merely vexatious and we cannot conceive why German newspapers of the United States should be regarded as contraband.

"No doubt correspondence might be carried on by that means but the risk of injury to us is small and we can quite understand the vexation of Americans at this double or treble insurance at their expense."

REALTY MEN FOR COLISEUM

Albert H. Schaaf Tells of Enthusiasm Over New Evansville Building.

MEET FRIDAY NIGHT.

Members of the Citizens' Convention Hall committee will hold a session at the Commercial club on Friday evening to consider details of the closing days of the campaign for a big vote on the convention hall project.

The real estate men of Fort Wayne, alive to every interest which means the building of a larger and better city, placed the stamp of approval last evening on the convention hall project. In no way can the real life of a city be measured more accurately than by the activity of the real estate market. The men who deal in Fort Wayne properties know that the bringing to Fort Wayne of thousands of "live wires" from other cities—the class of people who are selected to attend conventions of various sorts—cannot help but build up a reputation for Fort Wayne as a city in which it is good to live. These men realize also the value of the convention hall or coliseum as a common meeting place, a community center, for the people of Fort Wayne. An institution of this kind makes for home pride and a working together for the common good.

Albert H. Schaaf, secretary of the city planning committee of the Indiana Real Estate association, reached home Tuesday evening from Evansville and brings a story of enthusiasm over the new Evansville coliseum.

"They are now in the midst of their building operations," said Mr. Schaaf this morning, "but the work is far enough along to make it apparent that the building is going to provide for Evansville a splendid equipment to take care of conventions and the large gatherings of the home people. When one who is interested in his home city sees other cities equipping themselves in this way, his home pride prompts him to do everything he can to see

WILSON STARTS HIS NEW TRIP WESTWARD

Brief Stops in President's Journey Across Indiana Tomorrow.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 18.—With election day less than three weeks off President Wilson's program for today called for the start of his third campaign into the middle west. Through three speeches in Chicago tomorrow and handshaking from his private car at more than a score of towns and cities in New York, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, he expects to reach many thousand voters during his brief absence from Shadow Lawn.

The president's departure from Long Branch was set for 11:05 o'clock this morning, his arrival in New York city at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon and his departure from New York at 1 o'clock. Nine brief stops in New York state will be made during the afternoon and evening. From New oYrk city the trip is to be made in a private car attached to a regular train.

During the journey the president expects to work on the speech he will make here Oct. 28 at the celebration of "Woodrow Wilson day." The message contained in this speech will be sent out in advance and read at Wilson meetings now being arranged in various parts of the country.

Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the white house physician, accompanied Mr. Wilson on the trip.

On the trip across Indiana Thursday morning arrangements call for a stop at Kendallville at 8 o'clock for two minutes; Ligonier, 8:15, for two minutes; Goshen, 8:45, for two minutes; Elkhart, 9:05, for five minutes; South Bend, 9:34, for five minutes, and Gary, 10:30, for five minutes.

Prior to his departure at 11:05 o'clock the president received a visit from William Graves Sharp, American ambassador to France. The ambassador rode with Mr. Wilson as far as New York. It is understood that international interference of American mails by the entente powers was the principal topic they discussed.

SAYS JAPANESE WOULD REMAIN OUR FRIENDS

Churchman Talks on Relations of Island Empire With America.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Japanese people feel that the best interests of their country depend on the preservation of friendly relations with the United States, the Right Rev. H. St. George Tucker, bishop of Kyoto, told delegates to the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church today. Bishop Tucker spoke at a joint session of the two houses comprising the convention reviewing the scope and methods of the church's foreign mission work. "The only possible cause of trouble," Bishop Tucker continued, "would be in a conviction on the part of the Japanese that they were being unjustly discriminated against and their national honor involved. Even in regard to the question of the immigration of the Japanese into this country the Japanese government has shown willingness to meet the wishes of the United States by a so-called gentlemen's agreement. It has undertaken to prevent further immigration of Japanese to America and statistics show that in the past few years they carried out this agreement." Bishop Tucker asserted occidental life and thought is penetrating the countries of the Orient in an ever increasing volume and said the purpose of Christianity there is to see that the peoples are not only the materialistic and intellectual side of our civilization, but also its idealistic side.

SAYS WE'VE AGREED TO SEND PERSHING HOME

Mexican Newspaper Believes It Has Some Inside Information.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 18.—Under the heading "The Forces of the Punitive Expedition Will Leave Mexican Territory," LaRegorma of Saltillo, Coahuila, publishes a telegram from the private secretary of Governor Espinosa Mireles, dated at Piedras Negras, Coahuila, October 11. The telegram says: "I have the honor of informing you that the international conferences at Atlantic City has been completely successful and the withdrawal of the Pershing punitive expedition from our territory agreed upon."

The message is signed L. Sanchez. Below it is printed a message from Mexico City, dated October 12, which after mentioning the border patrols scheme as under discussion, adds: "It is said nevertheless that in the afternoon session it was agreed that the troops of the punitive expedition would leave the Mexican republic. The conference will proceed on this basis until all the existing different difficulties are solved."

Redmond's Motion Criticizing Government Brings It Again to Fore.

London, Oct. 18.—(11:00 a. m.)—The Irish question was again brought to the fore in the house of commons today with the introduction by John Redmond of a motion criticizing the system of government of this land. The motion reads: "That the system of government at present maintained in Ireland is inconsistent with the principles for which the allies are fighting in Europe and is or has been, mainly responsible for the recent unhappy events and for the present state of feeling in that country."

Since Mr. Redmond gave notice of his intention to attack the government, the Irish leaders have held a number of conferences with Baron Winburn, lord lieutenant of Ireland, but these probably had more to do with the suggestion of extension of conscription to Ireland than with the grievances arising from continuance of martial law and the failure to release all those arrested during the uprising in Ireland last spring. However, the question of conscription did not come under Mr. Redmond's motion. It doubtless will be discussed tomorrow when the whole subject of the main power of the empire come under review.

John Rawlinson, unionist, moved as an amendment to the Redmond motion the following: "Having regard for the importance of the United Kingdom and Ireland combining with the rest of the empire in presenting a united front to the enemy, it is not desirable at the present time to discuss controversial matters of domestic politics."

JOVIAN CONVENTION NOW GETS UNDER WAY

Business Matters Follow Official Welcome to Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—The fourteenth annual Jovian convention opened formally here today with hundreds of men engaged in the electrical business in attendance. Many registered yesterday and last night, but almost an equal number did not get here until today.

Thomas Wynne of Indianapolis, the reigning Jupiter, opened the convention with the Jupiters' annual address. Mayor Joseph E. Bell, of Indianapolis, gave the address of welcome, to which Mayor Henry W. Kiel, of St. Louis, responded. Governor Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, also addressed the convention. The first business was the adoption of the order in which business matters would be considered. The secretary's report then was read. It showed the order to be in good condition. Among the men on the program to make addresses this afternoon were M. D. Cooper, of Cleveland, "Voltage Standardization," and W. A. Layman, St. Louis, "Building a Career."

There will be a band concert and a tour of the city tonight.

LAKE STEAMERS FAIL TO MAKE WATER SAFE

Washington, Oct. 18.—Apparatus carried by great lakes steamers to purify lake water for drinking is described as "woefully inefficient" in a bulletin published today by the public health service. No purification method is in use by any steamer on the lakes, it is declared, which fulfills federal requirements by insuring safe water under all circumstances.

The bulletin is the result of several months' investigation and experiment by Surgeon C. O. Cobb, Assistant Surgeon C. L. Williams and Sanitary Engineer H. H. Letton. Three approved methods of purification—heating by a steam jet, exposure to ultra-violet rays and use of a still—are described as the only systems "known to us which will, under all circumstances, produce a water meeting the government requirements."

BOY DARTS IN FRONT OF AUTO AND IS HIT

Arthur Grote, 9-year-old son of M. B. Grote, is in the St. Joseph hospital suffering from injuries sustained when he ran in front of an automobile Tuesday evening after school. The boy has a compound fracture of the right leg and several minor injuries.

Mrs. R. Rosen, 826 Columbia avenue, was driving the automobile. She reports that she had no chance to stop the car when the boy suddenly ran across its path. The boy was on his way home from school with several other children. Mrs. Rosen hurried the lad to the hospital in her car.

SHERIFF'S FATHER CLAIMED BY DEATH

Francis Gladieux Expires at His Home at Age of Seventy-Nine Years.

Francis Gladieux, father of Sheriff Amiel Gladieux, died Tuesday evening at his home in Jefferson township at the age of 79 years. Death followed an illness of several months due to complication of diseases. He had been ailing for the past eight years, but had been bedfast only six weeks.

The deceased was born in Alsace, France, October 8, 1837, and came to America with his parents when he was 7 years of age. The family settled in Starke county, Ohio, but in 1853, he moved to Allen county. He settled on a farm in Jefferson township where he resided the remainder of his life.

In 1860 he was united in marriage to Mary Lamont, to which union nine children were born. Three have preceded the father in death. Mr. and Mrs. Gladieux celebrated their golden wedding anniversary six years ago.

For three years Mr. Gladieux served as county commissioner, and at one time was a member of the state legislature, trustee of Jefferson township for twelve years and assessor for four years. Politically he was a democrat. He was also a very active and successful farmer. He owned one of the largest farms in that township and was also an advocate of good roads.

Besides the wife he is survived by six children—Louis, Frank, Amiel and Edward Gladieux and Mrs. Emmett Ternet and Mrs. Louis Roussel; thirty grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Townsend. Mr. Gladieux was a member of the St. Louis Catholic church at Besancon.

Funeral services Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock at the residence and at 8:45 at St. Louis Catholic church. Interment at the church cemetery.

New Super-Dreadnaught is Manned from the Older Battleships.

New York, Oct. 18.—The crew of the new super-dreadnought Arizona, which takes her place today in the battle line of the Atlantic fleet with her sister ship, the Pennsylvania, came from the older battleships Kansas, New Hampshire and Vermont, recently transferred to the Atlantic reserve fleet at Philadelphia. An officer of the Arizona pointed out that the Arizona has twelve 14-inch guns and throws six thousand pounds more to the broadside than was contained in the combined broadside of the Kansas, Vermont and New Hampshire. The Arizona's broadside weighs about ten tons and can be hurled about twenty miles. The other three ships combined carry twelve 12-inch guns in their main batteries.

"The Arizona is too big and important to risk a chance with a green crew," said one of the Arizona's officers. "The only sensible thing to do was to give us a trained crew and the only place to get these men was out of the active fleet. As the Kansas, New Hampshire and Vermont were going into the reserve, where they belong, they furnished a majority of the men."

The Connecticut, the sole remaining vessel of the pre-dreadnought type now in the Atlantic fleet, is destined to go in the reserve, as the fleet has been reorganized so far as its first fighting line is concerned into an all dreadnought fleet. When the Idaho and Mississippi go into commission next year there will be nineteen vessels of the dreadnought class in the four active battle divisions of the fleet.

GASOLINE STANDARD DIFFICULT MATTER

Washington, Oct. 18.—National legislation to be supported by state laws was suggested by the United States bureau of standards today as one of the first steps to standardize the country's gasoline output. A system of inspection, either national or state, was also proposed as necessary to safeguard the consumers interest.

A statement issued by the bureau told of efforts by government experts to arrive at a successful standardization test and warned state legislative bodies to go slowly in setting tests when the proposed laws cannot receive the attention of technical experts. Satisfactory specifications will be hard to find under the best conditions, it is declared.

Dealers in Smaller Cities Urged to Attend the State Convention.

Regardless of whether they are members of real estate boards in their respective towns, all real estate dealers in small towns near Fort Wayne are invited to attend the sessions of the Indiana Real Estate association to be held at Evansville No. 15, 16 and 17, with their wives and lady friends. Frank H. Hilgemann, secretary of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange, was authorized Monday night at a regular meeting of the exchange to extend the invitation.

Fort Wayne real estate dealers recognize the benefit which all real estate men will derive from the state convention. A fine program has been arranged and city planning, about which many of the smaller cities have not heard fully, will be a leading feature of the convention.

The exchange also indorsed the municipal auditorium proposition at the meeting.

that his own town keeps abreast of the others. And this is the way I feel about Fort Wayne. We can't secure our own convention hall too soon.

"The people of Evansville are showing a most kindly spirit toward Fort Wayne, and the people there gave us a splendid reception. The Evansville coliseum, which they display with pride will cost about $222,500."

Endorse Convention Hall.

The Fort Wayne Building Trades council has given a hearty endorsement to the convention hall project in a set of resolutions bearing the signature of C. E. Krider, president; E. T. Drew, secretary.

The wage earners of Fort Wayne have shown a lively enthusiasm in favor of the erection of the convention hall. The man of moderate means may well stop and consider what the establishment of a convention hall in his home city means to him. In the first place, the cost of the project is already taken care of by the continuance of the present rate of taxation, which is lower than that of any other city of Indiana of its class. The sinking fund, maintained by a levy of 5 cents on the $100 of taxable property, is designed to take care of just such projects as this. The passage of but a few short years will find the building paid for and a wonderfully valuable asset added to the city's possessions. Who, in Allen county, regrets one cent of the money spent on the Allen county court house, and who would exchange the magnificent possession of today for the money that has been paid for it? Just so, in five years from now—yes, probably two years—not a single citizen of Fort Wayne will regret for one moment the outlay for the establishment of a municipal convention hall and community center.

As a Convention Hall.

As a convention hall the place will bring thousands of visitors to Fort Wayne each year who will not only carry the good name of Fort Wayne abroad and help to build up Fort Wayne's reputation, but they will expend thousands of dollars here, which will go directly into the activities of the people of Fort Wayne.

As a Community Center.

As a community center the building will bring all Fort Wayne together on many great occasions. There will be times when the people will get together to discuss other great movements for the benefit of all. The convention hall will be the common meeting place. There will be times when the schools will give demonstrations of their work in physical culture and voice training. Everybody will feel free to participate in the enjoyment of these events, because the building in which they will be displayed will belong to the whole people. Entertainment courses will be provided whereby, for a few dimes, all the people will be privileged to witness events and hear the great artists who could not otherwise be brought to the city for an admission price within the reach of thousands who would want to attend. Athletic events will be staged here, and here, also, will grand opera be heard. As one correspondent has said, writing from another city: "We have everything from Melba to poultry shows—and they're for all the people." Great political meetings will be held here. Automobile shows, flower shows, band concerts, corn and grain exhibitions, apple and fruit shows, merchants' expositions, gas lighting expositions, electrical shows, educational motion picture demonstrations, municipal Christmas events, art exhibits, made-in-Fort-Wayne exhibits, trade and manufacturing expositions, poultry and pet stock shows and mass meetings of every kind their natural meeting place.

It has been a long time since such a galaxy of statesmen has been scheduled for a meeting in Fort Wayne. Senator Taggart also has sprung into national prominence as a legislator and Prof. Axson is acknowledged as one of the prominent men of the nation.

One of the features of the meeting will be selections by the DeKalb county quartet composed of J. D. Brinkerhoff, Frank Baltz, Ves McKeenan and Carl Weaver.

ometer steadily falling and the wind blowing fifty-two miles an hour at Mobile early this morning, gulf coast cities anxiously awaited the latest weather reports which would accurately locate the center of the tropical disturbance reported headed this way. Weather Observer Ashenberger said it was his opinion the storm was driving directly this way. The last barometer reading was registered at 29.46 and at 7 a. m. said it was still falling. A driving rain is accompanying the heavy wind. Small vessels are putting out for Twelve Mile Island to seek safety.

INCREASES IN INTENSITY.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The West Indian hurricane, which has been driving through the Caribbean sea and gulf of Mexico this week, is rapidly approaching the American coast and is expected to move inland somewhere between New Orleans and Apalachicola, Fla. Hurricane warnings were ordered by the weather bureau at 9 a. m. to be hoisted between these points. Indications were that the storm had increased in intensity as it neared the coast and all marine and other interests along the gulf were given warning.

Wit kthe approach of the storm the weather bureau ordered advisory warnings of strong gales sent to interior points in Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Miss ssippi. It is believed the tropical disturbance will turn northeastward and cause heavy rains through the east gulf and Atlantic states generally, reaching southern New England during Thursday. Storm warnings also were ordered displayed on the Atlantic coast from Norfolk to Savannah.

velt, who said at Battle Creek, discussing the Lusitania: 'You ask me what I would have done? I would have seized every interned German ship.'"

Mr. McAdoo then quoted Germany's declaration of war on Portugal because of the seizure of German ships by that country, and added: "Mr. Roosevelt's action would have resulted in war between the United States and Germany. And now comes Mr. Hughes and admits, as far as he is very definite, his record with the bellicose attitude of Mr. Roosevelt. This is shown by his reply at Louisville to the question as to what he would have done in the Lusitania case. He said in substance that he would have threatened the kaiser so effectively that 'the Lusitania would never have been sunk.' This is characteristic evasion, for Mr. Hughes was asked what he would have done after the Lusitania had been sunk. I challenge him to answer that question.

"Who can doubt that if Mr. Hughes is made president, Mr. Roosevelt will be the dominating influence and direct foreign and domestic policies?

The President's Power.

"A president has it in his power to plunge the country into war at any moment. A single misstep or rash act or blunder on his part is all that is necessary."

Taking up domestic affairs, Mr. McAdoo said that the democratic administration had destroyed the system by which "the reserve money of the banks of the country were concentrated principally in New York City." He believed that Mr. Hughes "if elected intends to repeal the federal reserve act," and establish a central bank "because the republican party has always stood for Wall street and a central bank.

"The demand of Wall street for a central bank will be gratified if the republicans gain control of the government," he added. The secretary said that if Mr. Hughes "stands by his party platform he must either repeal of substitute something for the 'farm loan.'" He argued that the "Roosevelt panic of 1907, the worst in our history, is conclusive proof of republican incompetency," and added that "our virile, rich, unmaimed and highly developed people" need fear nothing from "the competition of stricken and broken Europe" after the war.

He continued that even if we are endangered that the creation of a nonpartisan tariff board and the enactment of anti-dumping and unfair competition laws by the democratic congress have already provided means to "protect every legitimate interest against hurtful combinations against us."

in ruins. In a southern suburb of London an ammunition factory was blown up.

"The Grimsby barracks were hit and more than 400 soldiers were killed. A cruiser with four funnels, which was anchored in the Humber, was hit by a bomb and about sixty men were killed. Two other warships were damaged badly. At Hull some buildings were damaged so badly that only the walls remained. Great damage was inflicted on ammunition factories and railroad stations at end. An alcohol factory and other buildings at Portsmouth were struck, twelve cars loaded with horses were destroyed."

After Hard Fighting.

French attacks in the region of Morval and Rancourt, north of the river Somme, were repulsed yesterday after hard fighting, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters' staff. British and French attacks near Thiepval, Courcelette and Bouchavenes, the statement adds, also failed.

"On both sides of Eancourt l'Abbaye, it is officially announced, the German destructive fire reduced the British attack to failure at the outset. North of the Somme the artillery bombardment was intense. On the western bank of Nararuvka river, southwest of Herbutov, in Galicia, Bavarian troops yesterday stormed a point of support, says today's German official statement, and took 350 prisoners and twelve machine guns.

AUSTRO-GERMANS DRIVEN BACK.

Bucharest, Oct. 17.—(Via London, Oct. 18.—Rumanian troops in the Predeal region southwest of Kronstadt, have resumed the offensive and are driving back the Teutonic forces on the Transylvania side of the border, says an official announcement issued late this evening. Violent Teutonic attacks are in progress along the entire front in the Carpathians but the entente lines have not been concentrated, the announcement adds.

All the military news from the Rumanian front is declared to be reassuring.

HEAVY FIGHTING CONTINUES.

Petrograd, Oct. 18.—Heavy engagements are continuing on the Galician battle front, according to today's war office report, which announces the stubborn fighting still in progress and the repulse of Teutonic counter attacks, notably in the vicinity of Korytniza and Beishovise. The statement adds that "southwest of the little town, Ozorlany, the enemy bombarded our trenches with asphyxiating shells and twice attacked our detachments. He was repelled by our fire." It also reports the wounding of Colonel Adjiev, who had just returned to the front after having been seriously wounded as he led his regiment to the attack."

FRENCH MAINTAIN POSITIONS.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Three times last night the Germans delivered attacks on the French positions in Sailley-Saillisel, on the Somme front. The war office announces that the French maintained all their positions and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans.

Near Berency-en-Santerre, the Germans gained a foothold in a French first line trench, but were driven out.

BRYAN WILL SPEAK AT HICKSVILLE MONDAY

William Jennings Bryan and United States Senator Atlee Pomerene will be the principal speakers at a democratic rally to be held at Hicksville, O., Monday, October 23. They will speak at 8 o'clock in the evening.

This will be the greatest political event occurring in northwestern Ohio during this campaign. Mr. Bryan will appear in but one other meeting in Ohio and all his admirers who can do so should not miss this opportunity of hearing him on the great national questions and issues of the day. Senator Pomerene will also discuss the leading issues and policies of the nation, being in keen and active touch with them all.

Hart's famous band of Hicksville will furnish the music. The meeting will be held out of doors if the weather permits, otherwise in the Huber opera house.

INDIANA MEN ARE READY FOR PICNIC

Indiana men will sing again the old songs and fight once more their athletic battles about a cheery campfire in Foster park Wednesday night. The men will gather at the transfer corner at 6:30 o'clock and take Broadway cars to the end of the line. There will be eats and several peppery talks. Enthusiasm for the Indiana-Tufts football game and the annual contest with Purdue is the prime object of the "get-together" affair.

All men who have attended Indiana university at some time or other are urged to take part in the outing. Arrangements may be made to run a special coach to Lafayette to the Purdue game. The stag party is an informal event and public announcement has been the only notice served.

Hon. Chas. A. Bookwalter will deliver a republican address at the assembly room of the court house tonight. Everybody invited.

Washington Gladden, Famous Author and Clergyman, Out for Wilson.

[By C. C. Lyon.]

Columbus, O., Oct. 18.—Dr. Washington Gladden, famous clergyman and author, who has voted for every republican president elected, will this year vote for President Wilson.

"My first vote for president was cast for Abraham Lincoln in 1860," says Dr. Gladden. "In 1912, I voted for Roosevelt with the progressives.

"It seems to me that the ideas and principles of progressive democracy are better represented today by the democratic party and its leaders than by the republican party and its leaders. That is why I shall vote for Wilson.

"For many years I have felt great admiration for Hughes and I rejoiced to see him elevated to what seemed to me the summit of a lawyer's just ambition—a seat upon the supreme bench.

"No man, in my judgment, can ever leave that eminence for party leadership without stepping down; and I was gratified when Justice Hughes in his correspondence with Rabbi Wise, two or three years ago, seemed to make it clear that such was his conviction.

"It may be admitted that no citizen has a right to decline any call to high service which is made upon him by the American people; and if such a call could be made practically unanimous there could be no question; but the call to be the candidate of a political party another proposition; and I am impressed with the wisdom of members of the great court who have maintained that every occupant of that high position ought to put at once and forever beyond his sight the possibility of his ever becoming such a candidate.

"I confess that my opinion of Judge Hughes was perceptibly lowered when, on the supreme bench, he obviously kept that possibility open; and subsequent events have not reassured me.

"With Wilson's general conception of political duty and responsibility in a democracy I am in cordial agreement and I have greatly admired the directness, the tact, the persistence, and the courage by which he has led his party forward to large legislative achievements.

"I do not think that ex-President Eliot has overstated the case when he says: 'Anyone who surveys the extraordinary series of legislative and executive acts accomplished by the democratic party in three years and a half will realize two things: First, that President Wilson has proved himself a party leader of unusual power; and second, that the party thus led has done much more for the country than the republican party accomplished in five times as many years.'

"The moderation and rationality exhibited by Wilson in the conduct of our national affairs were almost universally recognized by our people during the first year of the war; most of us heard during that time from men of all parties the warmest expressions of gratitude that the helm was in the hands of a sane and judicious leader.

"When the election drew near the caldron began to bubble. It was inevitable that the most reasonless and wanton attacks would be made upon the president; at a time when the nation ought to be standing firmly together all the resources of party politics are drawn upon to discredit our national leader.

"Those of us who are old enough to remember the election of 1864 and the tempest of villification and accusation which burst upon the head of Abraham Lincoln during the campaign preceding his second election, know what to look for in a time like this.

"We are not surprised to find great party leaders denouncing Wilson today for policies which, a year and a half ago, they were expressly approving; we are not amazed, we are only amused when we hear him execrated by his political adversaries for truckling to the kaiser, while all Germany is preparing to hang flags from every window in celebration of his expected defeat.

"I do not think that it has ever looked for a moment so dark for Wilson as it did all that summer to Lincoln; but Wilson has had some chance to find out what republics can do to men who greatly serve them. We all said at the beginning of this campaign that it would be conducted on a high plane; but I wonder if a debate, led by eminent men, in which such a record as Wilson has made for the past three years and a half can be reviewed by his opponents without a generous or appreciative word, is really good politics. I wonder how many wavering voters it has confirmed in their purpose to vote for Wilson. I know of one."

Galatians 5:14-26.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, reveling, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another.

Mr. Hughes and the Adamson Act

Mr. Hughes, who, in communities in which railroad men constitute no considerable portion of the voting population, has been assailing in unmeasured terms the enactment of the Adamson eight-hour law which averted the threatened railroad strike, told an audience at Sioux City that, if elected president, he would not seek the repeal of the Adamson law, and based his position on the contention that "a surrender cannot be repealed."

Mr. Hughes has made some surprising declarations in the course of his campaign assaults upon President Wilson, so that perhaps there is small occasion for wonderment at this. Yet can Mr. Hughes seriously expect the public to regard his attitude on the question of repeal as consistent with his ferocious assaults upon the law? Does he mean to imply that, since the country has had foisted upon it what he conceives to be a most egregious wrong, he would not correct it? Does he mean that the present congress, or its successor, would be powerless to substitute another enactment for the one of which he complains so bitterly in localities which, unlike Fort Wayne, are not railroad centers? It will be recalled that in his address in this city the Adamson law was scarcely dignified by even a passing mention—and Fort Wayne is one of the centers vitally interested in the Adamson law by reason of the vast number of railroad men here who will profit by it.

The much-vaunted courage with which Mr. Hughes was said to be endowed appears to be dissolving into a mixture of panic and pleading. He flays the means used by President Wilson to avert the threatened calamity of a general railroad strike, denounces the instrument which brought continued peace to the transportation world and yet refuses to go to the length of announcing his intention, if elected, of seeking to wipe from the statute books the enactment he assails as the culmination of legislative iniquity. Can it be that, despite the optimistic claims of his management, Mr. Hughes still fears he may need the votes of the men who do not share his views on the viciousness of the Adamson law?

Yet in his refusal to declare for an effort to correct what he regards as a wrong, Mr. Hughes is merely running true to the 1916 republican form. One by one the long list of benificent and progressive laws enacted during the past four years have been catalogued with an inquiry as to which is to be repealed, which cast aside, which abrogated in favor of something better. The answer, where it does not entirely ignore, is inevitably evasion.

The Sentinel has heretofore refrred to the series of 45-word campaign speeches to be electrically flashed on a motographic sign at Indianapolis. The first to be shown is that of Meredith Nicholson, the novelist. It reads: "State out of debt, nation out of war, democrats did it. Vote for Wilson, Marshall, peace, prosperity, a full dinner pail and national honor. Stand by progressive democracy. Vote for Kern, Taggart, Adair. Keep the government in the hands of the people—Meredith Nicholson." And the oftener you read Mr. Nicholson's "article" the more you will be convinced that he has compressed into mighty small space the "meat" of the whole situation.

With our old acquaintance Invisible Government back in the campaign again, it begins to seem like old times. But we still miss the torchlight parades and the gaudy campaign uniforms in which thousands of devoted citizens were wont to trudge uncounted weary miles up and down the streets, marching and countermarching to demonstrate that the spirit of '76 was still alive in the hearts of the pee-pul.

By far the biggest majority in Fort Wayne on November 7 should be the one given the municipal convention hall project. That is a project on which democrats, republicans, socialists, prohibitionists and independents of every variety can enthusiastically unite as boosters, and The Sentinel hopes they'll do it. Moreover, it is confident that is exactly what will be the outcome.

On the witness stand in the Chicago vice inquiry, Mayor Thompson explained that he had been guided very largely by the advice of Police Chief Healey in dealing with the saloons of which vehement complaint has been made. By this time Chief Healey has doubtless begun to have a dim suspicion as to the identity of the man duly selected as the "goat" in the present upheaval in Chicago.

Four political parties at Terre Haute have united in a petition for the discarding of voting machines in Vigo county and a return to the Australian ballot system. Well, when one reflects on the sort of elections they have been holding in Terre Haute the past few years, the desire to try some other kind seems both natural and reasonable as well as highly desirable.

It would be interesting to know if that Upland farmer who has just sold a "bunch" of hogs for $49,398.83 is also among those who are worried by the advancing cost of living.

DOUBTLESS IT IS JUST AS WELL.

[Indianapolis Star.]

What profit on the investment is yielded by the tremendous efforts put forth to influence voters in a presidential year?

Nobody knows. Another interesting thing that nobody can find out is how many men have already made up their minds how they will vote and are henceforward impervious to the most frenzied appeals.

Then it would be an absorbing task to institute a survey of men's minds, through some psychological device not yet invented, and find out what sort of evidence and argument really operates to arrest their convictions and change their votes.

One thing at least is certain, and that is that we can not always depend upon the reasons given. Most of us are governed to a degree which we would blush to confess by secret prejudices. Once our minds are made up, we cast about for reasons and in a short while have a lot of them ready to pass out as the genuine coin.

It is safe to say that a large percentage of the seed sown in anxiety and at enormous expense falls upon stony ground or among thorns. If the orator could realize how many of his intent audience are already so prejudiced against him that his most eloquent periods haven't a chance on earth, he would drop dead of chagrin. It is just as well we can't foresee the future; otherwise many feverish words would remain unspoken and enormous sums now contributed to save the country both ways from the middle would be spent for United Motors or large cold bottles of wire wheels with cord tires.

SAYS HUGHES WINKED AT LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Hanly Points to Invisible Government at Albany Under Hughes.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 18.—Declaration by Charles E. Hughes in Omaha that there was no invisible government in Albany while he was governor of New York caused J. Frank Hanly, prohibition candidate for president, to assail Hughes' attitude on the liquor question during that period. Hanly insisted the liquor interests then comprised a powerful "invisible government" in New York and that Hughes refused to attack them.

"I have no desire," he said in speaking to several Michigan and Indiana audiences, "to butt into the delectable controversy going on between Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes, but that the record may be kept straight and the country not misled, I take issue flatly with Mr. Hughes' statement that while he was governor of New York there was no invisible government there.

"There was no hour during his administration when invisible government was not triumphant at Albany, nor has there been an hour since when it has not been. Mr. Hughes knew it and was constantly importuned by the best citizens of his commonwealth to do battle with it, and he refused to molest it or even touch it.

"It dominates Mr. Hughes now, sealing his lips, making his tongue mute, dominates him until nothing can persuade or induce him to give public utterance, however slight, against it, though he has journeyed for days through states where the people are at death grips with it

"The only defense Mr. Hughes can make to this charge is to answer that President Wilson is also mute and obedient to the same element of invisible government."

HIS MIND IS "COMING BACK."

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—George W. Farlow, of Crawfordsville, held for the murder of William Johnson, has told the police that his mind "is coming back." He told the officers that he remembers being with Johnson and another man known to him as "Dave" and that "Dave killed Johnson with a piece of gas pipe." The police do not take much stock in Farlow's assertion that there was a third man in the party.

Democratic Speaker Points Out Inconsistency of Republicans Panic Talk.

"This year, as in every other presidential year, the republican party is waving the black flag of panic in the face of the American people trying to scare them into a business depression," Tuesday night declared T. A. Redmond, of Kendallville, speaking before a large audience of railroad men held in the convention hall of the court house.

H. B. Grafmiller, of the Pennsylvania lines, acted as chairman. "Woodrow Wilson is trying hard to furnish bread and butter for the laboring man and to make his life more easy," asserted Mr. Grafmiller. J. T. McOttott was another speaker.

"This is the year of the emancipation of the laboring man. The first time that the laboring man ever received consideration at the white house and shown the same respect as the capitalists of Wall street is right now. He has not been dealt with as a slave, but as a free man and is entitled to be shown all the rights and privileges of any other man.

Give Remedy for Panics.

"The republican party has always said that protective tariff has always been a remedy for panics and that the democratic party by its low tariff for revenue only has been the chief cause of panics. Any student of history cannot help but notice that panics come regularly and periodically. They come at constant intervals. The first record of any panic we have was in 1837 and they came in other years as follows: 1847, 1857, 1867, 1873, 1884, 1886, 1893 and 1907. There would have been one in 1913 had not we had the federal reserve bank law.

"The panic of 1837 affected the entire United States as well as the great European countries, such as England, Germany, France and Belgium. In 1857 it affected the same territory equally as bad, and so on as each panic came. The panic of 1873 was world-wide and affected all countries."

The speaker showed that the protective tariff never increased wages and that the very schedule that had the highest protection in the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, woolen goods, those industries paid the lowest wages. In the New England states they averaged twelve and thirteen cents an hour.

STOGIES GOING UP, TOO.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Members of the Cigar and Stogie Makers International union here have decided to hold a referendum Saturday to decide whether a demand should be made for an increase in wages of $1 per thousand. Manufacturers declare that if the increase is granted the prices of stogies will be advanced accordingly.

STORIES OF HUNGER CUT FROM LETTERS

Syrians Cannot Write of the Starvation of Their People.

Mute testimony of the awful condition of Syrians, under the Turkish rule, in their war-stricken country, is held in the little square blocks cut from letters sent to relatives in America. All letters sent from Syria are censored by the Turks and any mention of hunger is cut out.

Nearly all Syrians in Fort Wayne have one or two letters which have been cut to pieces by the censors. The story held in those dissected papers is more touching than if the dying peoples were able to write of their tragic flight.

Fort Wayne Syrians are redoubling their efforts to collect money which will be converted into supplies and carried on an American ship to their starving countrymen. The public at large is asked to help. All contributions are to be left at the First National bank, where the funds will be collected and cared for by the local Syrian society.

Hon. Chas. A. Bookwalter will deliver a republican address at the assembly room of the court house tonight. Everybody invited.

HARRISON HILL IN PATH OF CITY'S GROWTH

To anyone who makes a trip to the end of the paving on South Calhoun street for the first time in the last year, the growth of the city in that direction seems indeed marvelous and it is interesting to note that Harrison Hill, Fort Wayne's most modern addition, is situated squarely in the path of this great southward growth. Within the past eighteen months this addition has been converted from an open field into one of the most charming residential sections in this part of the country and it is predicted in real estate circles that it will soon become one of the show places of the city. Already the mile-and-a-half drive covering a route along Harrison boulevard, Cornell and Seminole circles is one of the most popular auto routes of the city, and to all indications the entire addition is to be built up within a surprisingly short time. Details regarding lots in Harrison Hill may be secured from the promoters, Hilgemann & Schaaf, North American building. —Advertisement.

"I WOULDN'T HAVE DARED," HE ASSERTS

Mr. Neindorf Didn't Even Hope for Big Relief Tanlac Brought Him.

Michigan City, Ind., Oct. 18.—Of the many statements given by residents of this city and vicinity during the past two months, none is more convincing than that given on August 29 by John Neindorf, proprietor of a saloon at the corner of Tenth and Manhattan streets.

"I suffered from rheumatism all over my body, it seemed," he said. "The pains were especially severe in my hips, knees and ankles and also my wrists and arms. My condition was so bad that I would have to stay in bed for days at a time and was compelled to keep my arm on a pillow, not being able to stand the slightest pressure on it. I tried many different remedies but none of them seemed to help me.

"I have now finished my first bottle of Tanlac and I feel fine. I certainly was surprised at the benefits I gained through Tanlac. The swelling in my limbs has disapepared and I can use my hands freely now. In fact, the rheumatism has been greatly relieved.

"Tanlac did more for me than I had even dared to hope it would and I naturally recommend the medicine."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Fort Wayne at the four Meyer drug stores—Wayne and Calhoun streets, Calhoun and Columbia, 1420 Calhoun and Broadway and Taylor streets.—Advertisement.

ONE KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

Four Others, One of Them Probably Fatally, Are Hurt in Accident at Montpelier.

Montpelier, Ind., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Henry Saunders was killed and four other persons injured, one of them probably fatally yesterday afternoon when an automobile was struck by a L. E. & W. train at a street crossing. Lewis Griswold was injured so seriously that he may not recover. Other occupants of the car who were injured are Henry Saunders, Miss Laura Klauser and Cleo Saunders, daughters of Henry Saunders. Saunders, who was driving, was warned by the crossing watchman, but misunderstood the signal to mean that the track was clear and drove directly into the path of the train.

The automobile, whose occupants were all from Monroe, Adams county, was going west.

All of the injured and dead were thrown clear of the track, and were not run over by the train.

The engine that hit the party is kept in the Montpelier yards all the time because of heavy business there.

OLD SOLDIER DEAD.

Delphos, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Word was received here Tuesday of the death of George Peters, a veteran of the civil war, which occurred at the Soldiers' Home in Sandusky, Ohio, Tuesday morning. Mr. Peters was a brother of Wm. Peters, residing near Delphos, and the deceased was a former resident of south of here. He will be well remembered by many local people and residents of south of this city, in the vicinity of Kemp, where he used to live. He had been at the Soldiers' Home in Sandusky for some time.

ANKLE BROKEN IN FALL.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 18.—Fred Stoner, a carpenter of this city, was quite painfully, but not seriously injured recently when he plunged down a stairway while working on a building in South Bend. In the fall he received a broken ankle and several severe bruises about the body. His ankle was placed in a plaster cast and he is now able to walk with the aid of crutches. At the time the accident happened Mr. Stoner was going down the stairs, when his foot caught and he plunged to the basement, a distance of ten feet. Other workmen on the building assisted him to a nearby physician's office where the fractured ankle was given treatment.

FEARS HER HUSBAND.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 18.—Claiming that she fears her husband will carry out his threat to kill her, Zepha L. Beghtel has filed suit in the circuit court for a divorce from James Vernon Beghtel, a cement worker. The plaintiff charges that her husband is in the habit of becoming intoxicated and that while in this condition he is possessed of a violent temper and that she is subjected to much abuse. On numerous occasions it is alleged that he has struck and cursed the plaintiff.

NEW BUILDING AT CRAIGVILLE.

Craigville, Ind., Oct. 18.—Work on the new brick bank building here is progressing nicely, and it is expected to have it completed early in November and soon thereafter the new bank will be opened for business. The new brick business block will have a forty-foot front, and in addition to the bank there will be a good store room for rent, and it will be occupied by a hardware store. This store is to be installed by a stock or partnership company, and a number of gentlemen will be interested in the business.

HAS ARM BROKEN.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 18.—Charles Mock, jr., a young son of Charles Mock, of Wabash avenue, had his left arm badly broken just above the elbow yesterday while playing at the Central school yard. He was playing on a ladder and in reaching for a rung missed it and fell to the ground. He was taken to a doctor's office and the broken bone was set. The boy was gritty and stood the ordeal exceedingly well. The boy's elbow also was dislocated.

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of those vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Advertisement.

7 DEAD, 2 MISSING IN NEW YORK BLAZE

Big Factories Burn With an Estimated Loss of $250,000.

New York, Oct. 18.—Seven persons were burned to death and two others missing it is feared have lost their lives in a fire which destroyed two factories in the manufacturing section of Queensborough late yesterday with a material loss estimated at $250,000.

The charred bodies were not found until the flames had been subdued and firemen were pouring water into the ruins of the buildings. Search is being made for two persons still missing.

All those burned were employed in the plant of the Oakes Dye Manufacturing company, where the flames started. Four of the dead were women.

The fire started among chemicals on the first floor of the Oakes building and spread with such rapidity that the office force was trapped on the second floor.

The police have learned that an electrician at work on the first floor making repairs, dropped a ladder which struck a jar containing chemicals that burst into flames.

There were six young women and the three men on the second floor when the fire started. A half dozen windows were located close to where the young women were at work, and it would have been a drop of only sixteen feet to the street.

The authorities believe the employes were suffocated by chemical fumes and were unable to attempt to escape.

Reinking-Geiger.

A beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized last Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the Zion Lutheran church where Miss Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Geiger, of 2934 Smith street, became the bride of Mr. Walter Reinking, a prominent young farmer of near Decatur. Rev. H. C. Luehr officiated at the marriage. The bride was attended by Miss Hilda Reinking, a sister of the grom, and Miss Ester Merkle, of Van Wert, Ohio, as bridesmaids, and little Katherine and Delores Krouse, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Krouse, as flower girls. The groom's attendants were his brother, Lewis, Reinking, of Huntington, and Carl Geiger, a brother of the bride. The bride looked lovely in a dress of white silk net over white satin, with trimmings of satin and chantilly lace. She wore a long veil made cape effect, which was secured by a wreath of bride roses and swansonia and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and swansonia. The bridesmaids wore lovely gowns of silk chiffon over delicate pink taffeta silk, very becomingly made, and bouquets of pink roses. The little flower girls looked dainty in dresses of fine white organdy and lace combined. They wore bows of tulle in their hair and carried baskets of pink and white carnations. After the ceremony was over, the young couple repaired to the home of the bride where congratulations were in order. An elaborate wedding supper was served to about seventy-five guests. The dining room was decorated in the wedding colors of pink and white. A large cake occupied the center of the table, while a large wedding bell suspended from the chandelier above it and ribbon streamers were fastened to the four corners of the room. Flowers decorated the home throughout. A dance was held at the home in the evening at which the Geiger orcestra furnised the music. An infair dinner will be given Sunday at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bieberick, near Preble, after which the young couple will leave for a short wedding trip through the east, and on their return they will be at home to their many friends on a farm east of Decatur. The groom has a home already furnished for his bride. The bride's traveling suit was of dark navy blue poplin with fur trimmings, and she wore a hat to match. The bride and groom are from two very prominent families, and the best wishes from all go with them in their married life. The guests from out of town who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bieberich, Miss Emmaes and Olga Bieberich, Miss Hilda Reinking, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Needlework Guild In Its Busy Season

Annual Round-up to Be Held at First Presbyterian Church, Nov. 14.

The Fort Wayne branch of the Needlework Guild of America is now at its busiest season. The annual round-up will be held in the First Presbyterian church on November 14 to 16, inclusive. The round-up will include the counting and assorting of the thousands of new garments, their labeling and arrangement for distribution, the exhibition of the garments to the public, the annual business meeting in the evening of November 14 at 7:30 o'clock at which time there will be business transacted, speeches made and an informal reception.

At a luncheon held at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday afternoon for the officers and directors of the local branch there was much enthusiasm. Mrs. Robert F. Harding, presided. Other officers are: Vice presidents, Miss Harriet Fowler, Mrs. Fred E. Hoffman, Mrs. B. H. Hudson, Mrs. Aaron Rothschild; secretary, Miss May Jewell Smith, assistant, Mrs. J. J. Kline, and treasurer, Mrs. Hal Rehrer. Every officer but two were present and the absent ones were not in town. Great enthusiasm was manifested over the report of Miss Smith, which included the announcement of a new section to the guild formed from an organization, the Federation of Industrial Clubs of Fort Wayne, consisting of clubs from Wayne Knitting mills, Boss Manufactory, Electric works, Perfection Biscuit company, Five and Ten Cent stores, Dudlo's and the Busy Bees. Miss Carrie Schroeder, of the Wayne Knit club, spoke briefly of the desire of the organization to affiliate with the guild in giving aid to a work the federation heartily indorses.

Another bit of information that stirred the pulses of the company was made by Mrs. Harding, who stated that one woman had collected the necessary number of garments to fill the requirements of a section, namely, 107. Mrs. A. G. Burry was then called on and she modestly acknowledged the fact that after she once got started it had become easy for her to obtain that number of garments. It was also stated that the guild has twenty new directors, so that the goal of 4,000 garments is likely to be reached this fall. The grand total a year ago was 3,005 which were distributed to these organizations: Allen County orphans' home, Anti-Tuberculosis league, Gospel Mission, Hope hospital, Lutheran hospital, Reformed orphans' home, Rescue Mission, Relief Union, Public schools, St. Joseph hospital, St. Vincent orphans' home, Visiting Nurse league, Willing Workers' Aid society, Y. W. C. A. and Day Nursery. Of these beneficiaries the largest number of garments went to aid in clothing children of public schools, many of whom have to depend on the mothers' income for support. Investigation is made by principals of schools in each case, but owing to their being plenty of work this season, the number of applicants requiring aid is likely to be smaller.

At it is always necessary to have some ready money on hand to defray running expenses of the guild and to pay dues to the national society each director has a pay member, the amount being anything from twenty-five cents up, according to the generosity and means of the giver. To obtain money to buy shoes the Jefferson theater management has generously offered to donate fifty per cent of proceeds on Monday Matinee, Nov. 13, from sale of tickets by guild members. This date is now booked as a Marguerite Clark film attraction. Mrs. B. H. Hudson has charge of the sale of tickets.

Mrs. H. B. Master presented briefly a plan for forming a society to work for war relief the coming season. Mrs. Harding appointed a committee to look into the matter consisting of Mrs. W. H. Rohan, chairman, Mrs. S. M. Foster, Mrs. M. J. Pulliam, Mrs. Louis Stiefel and Mrs. Charles Hughes.

New directors appointed for the current year are Mrs. Louis Stiefel, Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. H. Cline, Mrs. D. Benninghoff, Mrs. Newell Ransom, Mrs. Wallace Bowker, Miss Marie Landenberger, Mrs. Harry Hilgeman, Mrs. W. Mensing, Mrs. E. Notestine, Mrs. E. Craig, Mrs. R. F. Gale, Mrs. A. A. Courtney, Mrs. F. J. Kanaga, Mrs. Fred Duryee, Mrs. A. B. Sharon, Mrs. John Schwartz, Mrs. E. H. Lane, Mrs. D. Irwin, Earl Bayer. Brief but interesting talks were given by Mrs. Fred McCulloch, Mrs. J. J. Kline, Mrs. B. H. Hudson and Miss Fowler, all of which were pertinent to the round-up of the guild. The Needlework Guild is non-sectarian and its membership consists of persons who agree to contribute two new garments or articles of household linen annually. Men, women and children may be members. The object of the guild is to furnish new, plain suitable garments to meet needs of hospitals and charities.

New Bill Opens at Matinee Thursday at New Palace.

Although there will be no show Thursday evening at the New Palace the regular week end vaudeville bill will open as usual on Thursday afternoon and play the remainder of the week. The Weber and Wilson Revue, dancing a la carte will feature the program in a dainty little terpsichorean offering. Morris Golden, the yiddle with the fiddle, is the promisingly amusing novelty number of the bill. Golden will present some rag-time fiddling that has proven a scream over the Keith circuit this year. "Solitaire," the domestic comedy, will be presented by Grew Palts and company. Among the wealth of other talent are Millie Olive, the novelty juggler; the Barry Girls, a team of sweet sisters in popular song hits and Miller and Mulford the black-face comedians.

The current bill which closes this evening is headlined by the favorite Charley Grapewin and Anna Chance in a laughable playlet, "Poughkeepsie," a story of dramatic jams and jars that simply brims over with laughs. The bill includes Bush and Shapiro, the knockabout comedians; Doc O'Niel with his running fire of comedy chatter; the Six Serenaders, four girls and two men vocalists; Cook and Rothert, the eccentric dancers and the Five Armentas in whirlwind acrobatics.

Contrasts U. S. Protests With Treatment of the Submarine U-53.

London, Oct. 18.—(1:00 p. m.)—Under the heading, "A Contrast," the Evening Standard, commenting on the American protests against British cruisers "hovering" off American ports and America's treatment of the German submarine U-53, says that no protest was made by the United States against the activities of the submarine.

"Our only indication of the Washington attitude," the newspaper says, "is that she repudiates the allies' view that a submarine is not entitled to the privilege of an ordinary warship. It will be interesting to see whether President Wilson finds the German submarine activity in Atlantic waters as annoying as the British "hovering."

The statement of Viscount Grey, the foreign secretary to the house of lords, yesterday regarding operations of belligerent warships off the coast of the United States caused a considerable stir, says the London correspondent of the Liverpool Post.

"It has thrown a most disagreeable light upon the attitude of the American government in the early stages of the war," the correspondent remarks. "Washington is shown in a querulous, captious mood, making demands which it admitted were not legally tenable.

"The incident referred to is now ancient history and might well be forgotten but in view of the extraordinary proceedings in connection with the U-53 members are speaking very bitterly of the behavior of the American government."

Addresses Good Audience at Y. W. C. A. on "The Girl and Her Needs.

Before a fair-sized and very attentive audience at the Y. W. C. A. Miss Gogin gave the second of a series of lectures, Wednesday morning, which she will deliver in this city. Her subject was "The Girl and Her Needs."

Her talk dealt with girls between the ages of twelve or thirteen and twenty and not as she termed it, with "girls" in the association sense of the word, meaning anyone between fourteen and an unmentioned age.

Among the important needs in a girl's life is something to bolster up religious convictions. The fact that religion in homes is not as simple and straightforward as it formerly was leaves the child without a basis for a general viewpoint. Schools do not supply this need and it is generally known that human nature needs props to stand by. This must therefore be supplied to the girl by some organization such as the Y. W. C. A., she said.

The problem of large co-educational high schools was also mentioned and the good work which was done in them by the high school clubs organized by the association. They help the young girl entering the school to become acquainted with the advanced ways of doing things, she said. Cliques and secret societies were called snobbish and underhanded, when maintained in schools in which they are theoretically abolished.

There is a large class of girls in the country who are designated as industrial drifters. They leave school at an early age, even though it is not necessary, and start to look for work. There is no way for them to tell what work they are inclined to like so they take what is offered, the speaker declared. In looking for jobs they run up against dangers which they are unable to cope with. During the year between fourteen and fifteen when girls should be in school they are practically worthless in any kind of industry.

Seasonal trades were condemned especially in work where it is not absolutely necessary to be seasonal, such as the garment business. In these industries girls work about five or six months of the year but still are checked up in a way which makes it impossible for them to hold another position while not busy.

Trades now are getting more mechanical all the time and after a girl works at one thing for a few years she becomes able to do it without brains and unless she has something worth while to think about while she works her mind will suffer as a result. One purpose of Miss Gogin's work is to get the communities interested so that something will be supplied to occupy these girls' minds while they work mechanically.

After her lecture, Miss Gogin named a number of books which would be helpful in this work and then turned the meeting into an open discussion.

RAILROAD MAN HELD FOR ROBBING CARS

When Switchman Was Sick Cars Were Always Broken Into.

Every time Evon Everett Lawton, 30, night switchman on the Nickel Plate railroad, laid off because of sickness there was a car robbery. Three times Lawton has been sick since he started to work on July 22. There have been three cars broken into.

When the third car was looted Tuesday night railroad detectives became desperate. Captain Bonk, of the Nickel Plate detective force, and Deetective Jacob Havel engaged City Detective Sergeant William Pappert to assist them. The trio made a search of the yards Wednesday morning.

One of the yard men told that he had seen Lawton skulking about the cars one night when he was supposed to be sick. Lawton's home at 342 West Berry street was visited. A part of teh goods taken from the freight cars was found.

Lawton is held in jail charged with breaking into sealed railroad cars. He will be arraigned in police court Thursday morning.

Lawton had peddled a part of the stolen property over the neighborhood, detectives say. Much of the goods, including two dozen pairs of overshoes, eleven cans of mustard, two gallon bottles of peppermint oil and a bottle of sloe gin, have been recovered. There are eleven more bottles of the gin at large, detectives say.

Lawton came to Fort Wayne from St. Paul, he claimed. He has a wife here. He has been employed in many branches of train service. His past record is being probed.

NORWAY TAKES STAND MUCH LIKE AMERICA'S

Serves Notice on Allies Regarding Submarine Problem.

London, Oct. 18.—Reuter's Christian correspondent says Norway has informed the entente allies that it does not recognize it is the duty to prohibit passage through or sojurn in Norwegian waters by belligerent submarines. The Norwegian note is in response to the memorandum of the entente powers to neutrals suggesting that belligerent submarines should be excluded from neutral waters.

The Norwegian government declares it considers it has the right to prohibit submarines designed for war purposes and belonging to belligerents from passing through Norwegian territorial waters or sojourning in them and says it made use of this right in issuing the royal decree of October 13, under which belligerent submarines are forbidden to traverse Norwegian waters except in cases of emergency, when they must remain upon the surface and fly the national flag. The decree also provides that mercantile submarines are to be allowed in Norwegian waters only in a surface position in full daylight and when flying the national colors. On the other hand the government does not find that it is its duty as against any of the belligerents to prohibit such passage or sojourn.

Many Farmers With Few Cows Are Making Indiana Great Dairy State.

A. W. Bruner, of Indianapolis, state food and drug inspector, was in Fort Wayne, Wednesday, and will be here Thursday, to visit dairy plants of the city. He is making a dairy survey of the state. He is accompanied in his trips over Fort Wayne and vicinity by Citl Dairy Inspector Kucher and Assistant Dairy Inspector Josse.

Bruner has visited 24,919 dairy farms since he began the survey last January. He finds that Indiana is forging to the front as one of the great dairy states. Millions and milllons of pounds of butter and cheese are shipped from the state each year. Indiana dairies are rated as being in excellent condition. Bruner has found little fault with Fort Wayne dairymen as yet.

Most of the vast output of dairy products is from farms having but two and three cows. In more than ten per cent of the dairy farms there is only one cow. There are two milk cows on twenty-four per cent of the butter producing farms. On twenty-three per cent there are but three cows. In less than one per cent there are more than twelve cows.

Sixty per cent of the dairy farms are equipped with cream separators. Eleven per cent have silos, Bruner finds. The dairy industry is most thriving in the southeast corner of the state.

DOCTOR IS VERY LOW

It is feared that Dr. C. C. Kimmel, who suffers from typhoid pneumonia, may not survive the day. His immediate family has been summoned to his bedside at the Lutheran hospital. Patrolman Ernest Paul, his father-in-law, was called from police duty to the hospital at noon. Attendants at the hospital think there is little chance for Kimmel's recovery.

President Runs Into Surprise Demonstration in New York Station.

New York, Oct. 18.—Passing through New York today on his third campaign trip into the middle west, President Wilson ran into a railroad men's demonstration at the Grand Central station and was impelled unexpectedly to make a speech after being greeted by employes who in overalls and other workday attire clug to his car platform or found gullery reservations on the iron superstructure of the train shed. In response to the men's demands that he talk to them the president at first said he had no speech to make but they were insistent and he said finally:

"I appreciate it with all my heart when you fellows come like this to see me without any convention. This encourages me immensely and makes me very warm about the heart."

The railroad men cheered and the train moved out with the president standing on the rear platform.

During his half hour stop in New York Mr. Wilson conferred with Vance C. McCormick, democratic national chairman; Col. E. M. House and Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the national committee's finance committee. With Mr. McCormick he discussed conditions in the west whence the chairman has just returned. Mr. McCormick said he told the president that "the west is on fire with Wilson sentiment."

Miss Helene Woodrow Bones, the president's cousin, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, accompanied Mr. Wilson's party to Chicago.

The men began fighting on the porch and in the street before the house, it is claimed. Brown has a long gash across his hand and his coat was cut by the razor wielded by Rogers.

DAIRY PRODUCTS MEN TO MEET HERE FRIDAY

Steps looking to the appointment of a state dairy commission will be one of the principal matters to be taken up Friday at a meeting of the Indiana manufacturers of dairy products to be held here Friday. The meeting will be one of a series of similar gatherings that the association has been holding throughout the state, and which are devoted principally to the consideration of legislation for the protection of the public and the dairy interests in matters of sanitation.

At the meeting to be held here reports from various legislative committees in the allied organizations maintained by the dairy cattle association and the cattle breeders, as well as the ice cream manufacturers, butter makers and milk dealers, will be made.

MUNCIE LAD, AGED 16, ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 18.—Earl Hopper, 16 years old, was placed on trial in the Delaware county circuit court here today, charged with murder, as the result of the death of Frank E. Deam, August 6, 1916, a superintendent in the Ball Brothers glass factory. A special venire of fifty men had been summoned for the jury. Deam was stabbed by John Craig in a fight in the factory. The state alleges that Hopper struck Deam in the fight. Hopper's contention is that he was attempting to separate Craig and Deam and if he struck Deam it was accidentally. Craig has been sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in the fight. One grand jury refused to return an indictment for a more serious offense than assault and battery against Hopper.

COLD AND BLUSTERY IS PREDICTION FOR WINTER

If the prediction of several men who have passed the seventy-fifth milestone in their life's history and who have observed many seasons as they come and go, come true, Fort Wayne will experience a very cold, blustery winter this year. The men who in this case are the prophets have also served as soldiers in the civil war. They give their reasons for their prophesy.

The boys of '65 were sitting in a ring in one of the rooms on the first floor of the court house discussing subjects of the day. There was a vacant chair in the circle. A young man unheeded entered the room and slyly sank into the empty chair. Soon the conversation became laggy. The new arrival was looking for a story. He said, "I believe we are not going to have much of a winter this year."

"Don't fool yourself, my son," spoke up one of the grey-whiskered members of the select circle, as he took his cane and stamped on the floor twice to denote emphasis. "She's goin' to be a hard one, if I know anything about it."

Apparently everyone else in the room agreed with the first speaker. No one at this time raised a dissenting voice.

The man who had made the first statement continued: "I have lived through many summers and winters and you can generally depend on it when you have a hot summer, you always get a cold winter. And we had some pretty hot weather this summer, too."

"You're right, Hank," spoke up the second member of the crowd whose hair was also turning white. "We are going to have a corker. That winter and summer sign usually comes true. But the one that always comes true is the leaf sign. If the leaves hang on the trees very long in the fall you can depend on it that you had better lay in a big supply of winter wood or coal. The leaves this year got an early frost that killed them. A lot of them fell down, but there's a whole lot of them that are still stickin' on."

The aged man on the opposite side of the circle had been chewing at the end of his half-burned-away cigar. He took out a match and simultaneously he lit a match and started to speak. "Well, boys, I've heard a lot of people talk about these here signs about leaves and the summer before the winter and about corn husks and about lots of other things which will prophecy the weather for the coming winter, but the only one that I have seen that will hold good all the time is the one about the muskrats. When they build their nests hrigh and thick you can depend on a cold winter and a rainy spring. And when their fur is thick you can safely bet that the weather for the coming winter is going to be stiff. Well, I heard last week that the muskrats' fur is thick this fall and that they are building their nests thick and high." The last speaker was interrupted but once in his conversation. That was when the lighted match burned his finger.

The man who had given up one of his limbs for his country's sake had said nothing thus far. He had listened very carefully. Everyone seemed to have had his say except this one.

"Well," he began, "now since all of you have said your little speech, I guess I am entitled to one, too. None of you are right at all about the weather this winter. Now, mark my word, the winter is going to be a mild one. The caterpillars this year, and there's a lot of 'em, are all clad in a light brown color which signifies nothing more than that the winter is going to be light. I have noticed when their coats are a dark color all the way through that we always have a very cold winter. Some summers they are dark on both ends and light in the middle. Then we have a cold spell at the beginning and close of winter and a mild spell in the middle."

The last speech seemed to arouse a great degree of enthusiasm. At least an argument had started. Dates were flying fast and thick, used in the sense of convincive argument. Slyly but surely the reporter made his exit and as he passed through the door and into the corridor he heard teh tangible talk of three men all endeavoring to make themselves heard at the same time.

BIG NINE ELEVENS HAVING HARD LUCK

Football Camps Filled With Gloom — Indiana Has "Ghost-Ball" Practice.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 18.—With "Bullet" Strauch at quarterback the Illini resumed scrimmage. Strauch seemed to do well enough for a starter and Captain Bart Macomber demonstrated his delight at being back at right half by some excellent performances. Strauch may pilot the team against Ohio State Saturday. While Potter and Charpier were withheld because of sundry injuries, the gloom continued to live. George Halas appeared in scrimmage briefly and is doped to be able to play Saturday. Zuppke is experimenting with Leo Klein at end and the little halfback may prove to be the running mate for Ben Kraft.

IOWA.

Iowa City, Oct. 18.—Coach Jones sent his Iowa men through a stiff scrimmage. The freshmen eleven used Purdue plays successfully at first, but Jones gave the veterans some practical lessons on defense and the yearlings failed to gain thereafter. The coach tried out new plays with fair success. Jones took Bowlesby from tackle and placed Kriz there. Kriz may keep the job. Captain Laun, whose knee is still bad, again yielded end job to Corporal Leighton, national guardsman. Van Pelt and Scott alternated at full.

PURDUE.

Lafayette, Oct. 18.—Coach O'Donnell gave the Purdue squad a hard workout yesterday, endeavoring to perfect plays which will be used against Iowa Saturday. Against the husky freshman eleven the 'varsity had only fair success, scoring two touchdowns, while the yearlings managed to score once.

Harvey, a big freshman halfback, intercepted a forward pass and ran fifty yards for a touchdown.

Allen, Buechner and Van Aken are none of them in good shape and it is not likely that Allen will be able to play Saturday, thus depriving Purdue of the services of its best punter.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Oct. 18.—The Gophers held a long, hard scrimmage, their opponents being the freshmen, who employed plays used by Iowa last Saturday. The Northmen put into execution a large variety of new plays, devised by Coach Williams. They involve variations of the famous shift. Mayer, star tackle, will be discharged from the hospital tomorrow, and may play on Saturday. Van Nest cannot play for a week, but Shorty Long, regular quarter, is again in good condition.

WISCONSIN.

Madison, Oct. 18.—Coach Withington started what he calls his "vicious week" this afternoon by sending his Badgers against the freshmen and the reserves in a long, gruelling scrimmage. The yearlings, primed with Stagg formations, were given the ball during most of the play and managed to break through for many long gains. The coaches realize that they have a huge task in building, out of green material, a defense that can cope with Chicago a week from Saturday. Kockhofer, the big center who has been on the hospital list for a week, wrenched his shoulder after being in the scrimmage only a few minutes.

INDIANA.

Bloomington, Oct. 18.—For the first time this season Coach Stiehm ordered the Indiana squad to work with the ghost ball tonight under the big electric deflectors on the field. The coach shifted Hathaway from left end to half and used Pope and Keever at the wings. A hard, gruelling program of tackling and charging occupied the first two or three hours, after which four new plays for the Tufts game were given out. After the 'varsity had run signals on the formations for more than an hour it tried the new formations on the freshmen and scored a touchdown in four minutes. Captain McIntosh has returned and is taking light workouts, but Rend Buschmann will be out of play for another week.

The great popularity of college football is indicated by the action of the Yale athletic management in voting to build 8,000 more seats in the Yale bowl and raise the seating capacity to more than 70,000.

This is a greater number than has ever attended a professional baseball game, a prize fight or a race in America. A few soccer matches in England have drawn larger crowds, as have one or two championship amateur baseball games in Cleveland, O., but these contests were held in the open and no admission was charged.

LOCAL DRIVER PILOTS BUICK IN DIRT-TRACK CHAMPIONSHIP RACE.

Ralph Ormsby and His Mechanician.

Ralph Ormsby, the local speed merchant, is driving his car in this afternoon's race at Warren for the dirt track championship of Indiana and Ohio. Ormsby's ability on a half-mile track is pretty well recognized and it is generally conceded that he will lead the field, barring the sort of trouble which threatens a driver at all times.

CANCEL GAMES.

The Friar management has cancelled the games booked with Canton earlier in the season. The first Canton game was due a week from Sunday, but instead the well known Elyria eleven will furnish the opposition that day. This leaves the date on which the Friars were going to journey to Canton open. Negotiations are being made now to fill this open date with a team that will be good enough for the latter part of the season.

Light practice was given the warriors last night and will be followed by a harder one Saturday. Deac Jones has joined the sick list with a bum leg, which may keep him on the side lines during the game with the Cincinnati Celts Sunday.

There are reports that another game with Hammond may be arranged. Whether it will be played here or not remains to be seen.

TURNERS ELECT VET TO CAPTAIN TEAM

The Active Turners have elected Joe Henry to lead the basketball team this season. Henry has played on the team before and is a good floor captain. The Actives will play the fastest quintets handy this season and have started to make up their schedule.

LOCAL MAN WINNER OF RAPID-FIRE MATCH

Member of Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver Club Wins in National Shoot.

Color Sergeant Foster Houck of the Third Indiana infantry and also of Fort Wayne, was the winner of the national rapid-fire match at Jacksonville, Fla., Monday. His score was 94 out of a possible 100 and he was closely followed by Jerry B. Garland, of Indiana, and Paul Gillespie, of Iowa.

SERGEANT FOSTER HOUCK.

Sergeant Houck went to the border last June as a member of the First Indiana infantry. He had already established a reputation as a crack shot and was detailed to Jacksonville to enter the match.

Houck is a member of the Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver club. He lives at 1510 Tilden avenue.

Abe Attell is to do the come-back stunt.

Abe says he can do it and says it isn't money he's after, it's the honor of the Attell family.

Not long ago Joe Lynch trounced Brother Monte, the last of the Attells to carry the family colors into the ring, trounced him unmercifully, ending with a seventh round knockout.

Abe couldn't stand this reflection on the ability of the Attells as fighters and secured a match with Lynch.

Lynch isn't greatly impressed.

He's guessing he can beat up the whole Attell family.

West Ends to Play Overlands Sunday

The West End team will travel to Kendallville Sunday to play the Overlands of that place. The local team has a rather large hospital list as a result of the game with the Winona Aggies last Saturday. The coach, Louie Island, will give them some new plays and show them a new style of defense this week in preparation for the game Sunday.

HIGH PRICE COACHES WHO MA Y LOSE OUT IF YALE RULE IS ADO PTED, A. A. STAGG, CHICAGO; TA D JONES, YALE; PERCY HAUGHTON, HARVARD; FIELDING YOST, MICHIGAN.

BY PAUL PURMAN.

Is the end in sight for immense salaries for college coaches and physical directors?

Year after year, since athletics have become a paramount issue in college activities, more and more money has been spent by schools to get high class men to direct their football, baseball, track and basketball teams and their crews.

Even the smaller colleges are spending comparatively large sums of money annually for their athletic mentors.

The first movement toward cheaper coaching has come from Yale where a special committee on athletics has heavily scored the high cost of athletics and the maintenance of large and expensive coaching staffs.

The constantly increasing competition in colleges is blamed for the advanced cost which has reached the thousands of dollars in many instances.

In the east where staffs of half a dozen or more assistants are employed in addition to the main coach the expense is terrific.

The high price of coaches is felt even in the smallest colleges.

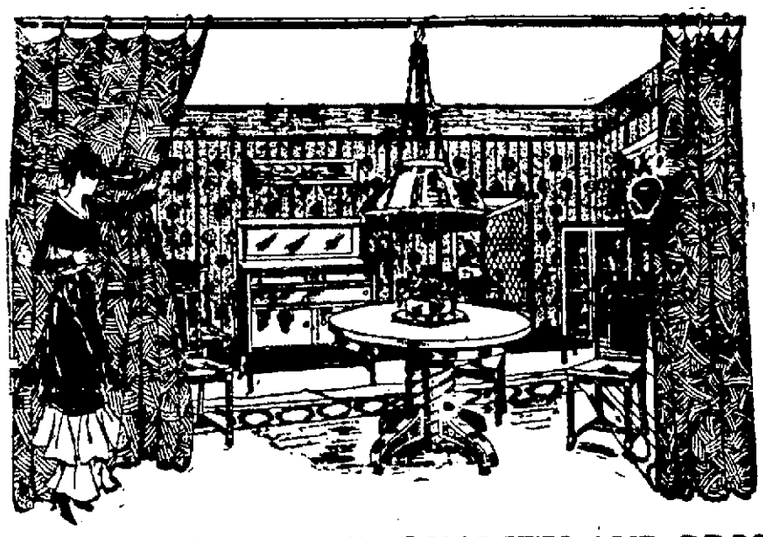
Schools with only 200 or 300 students must produce good athletic teams to hold their attendances. Coaches are hired and usually are paid more than the heads of educational departments.

The really great coaches of the country, men like Tad Jones, of Yale; Alonzo Stagg, of Chicago; Fielding Yost, of Michigan, and Percy Haughton, of Harvard, receive salaries clear out of proportion to that paid professors.

In making their report the Yale committee suggests that the athletic expense might be cut by the use of graduate or undergraduate coaches at smaller expense.

"The intensity of athletic rivalry," the committee reported, "if unchecked, may so increase as to make intercollegiate athletics an unprofitable scramble for the raising of huge sums of money for the payment of disproportionate salaries demanded by expert coaches."

Speaking of the present system, the committee says that "it would be better to eliminate intercollegiate athletics altogether until the dawn of an era of reasonableness in such things."



"AS USUAL WE LEAD IN QUALITY AND PRICES"

A Story Worth Telling

A discriminating lady came into our store the other day and purchased some furniture. After buying she said, "I have a taste for good furniture. I went to several stores to buy before I came here, and in some cases the price asked for an inferior article was more than you ask for the best quality. You give better quality at a lesser cost than any of the stores in which I priced furniture. The many styles of furniture on your floors should certainly suit every fancy. And the rugs have so many beautiful colorings that would harmonize splendidly with any room. I certainly will tell my friends about this store."

Answers Query by Saying "Surrender Cannot Be Revoked."

Sioux City, Iowa, Oct. 18.—Charles E. Hughes, facing a friendly audience sprinkled with hecklers here last night, replied to a question as to whether he would repeal the Adamson law if elected president, by saying that "a surrender could not be repealed."

Mr. Hughes was asked what he would have done to avert the threatened railroad strike.

"If arbitration had been refused," Mr. Hughes replied, "I should have gone right to the American people, stated the facts, and put the responsibility where it belonged."

"I should at the same time," Mr. Hughes continued, "have secured a commission of inquiry so impartial, so fair as to command the respect of the entire country and direct public opinion to that end. There is no group of men in the United States that would have dared hold up the instrumentalities of commerce if that were done."

Before a gathering that crowded the auditorium he cited his record as life insurance investigator and as governor of New York in answer to the declaration that his election might mean the setting up of "invisible government" in the United States.

Pasadena, Cal., Oct. 18—"Both republican and democratic parties confessed to a desire to establish our foreign trade to absorb the production of American factories," declared Allan L. Benson, socialist nominee for president, at a meeting here last night.

"I have said again and again the draft law President Wilson signed and our unparalleled military appropriations have but one purpose," he continued, "and that is the holding of the foreign trade European capitalists lost. All nations of Europe will combine against us at the end of the war to get it back. Why should American capitalists be permitted to plunge the nation into war when America's true policy is to promote domestic consumption?"

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—Advertisement.

The general conclusions of the latest medical scientists prove that drinking of plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has also been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of water with meals is not harmful to digestion. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water). If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, setting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take a little Anuric before meals. These Anuric tablets can be obtained at almost any drug store in this country.

American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night, when you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, ask your druggist for Anuric. Because of uric acid in over-abundance in the system, backache, pains here and there, rheumatism, gout, gravel, neuralgia and sciatica result. Anuric is more potent than lithia, and consequently you need no longer fear muscular or articular rheumatism or gout, or many other diseases which are dependent on an accumulation of uric acid within the body.

TWO TALENTED TINY DANCERS.

These two little shavers have worn the floor as slick as polished ebony around their papa's work table. They do clog dancing by the hour, just for fun. They dance the different steps together like clock work. Prof. John Holcomb, of Detroit, recognized authority on dancing, says they are the best heel and toe artists in the middle west. They are going to New York one of these days for a debut at old Coney Island.

They are Everett Sausman, aged eight years, and Catherine Sausman, aged eleven, children of Edwin Sausman, tailor, 1314 South Calhoun street. They attend the Jefferson school. The boy is a natural acrobat and dancer. He has learned twenty-six new dance steps perfectly in six months. His sister is also an artist in expressive dances, which are now forming a prominent part in the classic ballet. Their "Little Boy Blue" dance is a marvel of accuracy.

Their natural dancing ability comes from ancestors of the father, the parents say. Sausman's grandmother was one of the reputed dancers in Bremen, Germany, and is said to have been so fond of the "light fantastic" that she arose from a sick bed when eighty years old to take part in a dance.

N. Y. Field Hospital and Ambulance Companies Going Home.

The First New York field hospital company and the First New York ambulance company, national guard, passed through Fort Wayne between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning, on a special train over the Wabash road. The field hospital company was under the command of Major Dunseith. It consisted of sixty-seven men and six officers and it belongs to New York. The ambulance company had four officers and seventy-nine men and was under the command of Capt. F. W. Sears. The home of the company is Binghampton, N. Y. These companies came from McAllen, Texas, which place they left last Saturday. Captain Sears said the men of both companies were in good health and spirits, but weary from the long ride. They will reach their home cities tomorrow night. The companies were accompanied by all their field hospital and ambulance equipment, and to carry it and the men it required four Pullman cars, two baggage cars, nine gondolas and two box cars. Captain Sears said that the Fifth Massachusetts infantry and a battalion of engineers were following and would be along here in a day or two. They will have four special trains, handled as was the one today, by the Wabash to New Haven, where they will be turned over to the Nickel Plate.

RESULT OF CARELESSNESS.

George W. Stevens Declares It Greatest Enemy to Humans.

George W. Stevens, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio company, and former superintendent of the Wabash, with headquarters in Fort Wayne, has issued to the employes of the C. & O. the following statement:

"The greatest enemy to the human race, the one cause of the greatest destruction of human life, is not as may be generally supposed, war, famine, pestilence, but carelessness. Carelessness with respect to health, carelessness in the shop or manufacturing establishment, carelessness in the crowded city streets, carelessness on the country road. Carelessness in using the railway company's tracks as thoroughfares; carelessness in approaching grade crossings, all these are but few of the many ways in which carelessness is responsible for the destruction of human life.

"Observations by the railroads in the state of California disclosed the startling fact that out of 17,000 drivers of motor vehicles 69.5 per cent looked neither way before crossing tracks, 2.7 per cent looked in one direction only, and but 27.8 per cent looked both ways.

"In the month of July, 1916, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company killed twelve persons who were trespassers upon that company's properties. Of this number three were killed in the state of Virginia, six in West Virginia and three in Kentucky. The persons killed were reputable and, in many instances, substantial citizens, and this lamentable loss of life occurred through no fault of the railway company, and in spite of warning sign boards, posted bulletins and hundreds of newspaper articles, in which the company has called the public's attention to the unnecessary risks assumed by them in using tracks and terminals as thoroughfares."

CALLED TO WAGE CONFERENCE.

Wabash Affiliated Crafts to Send Men to St. Louis.

A telegram this morning informed the representatives of the four allied crafts at the Wabash shops that a meeting of the Wabash federated craft representatives would be held in St. Louis next Friday and it would be necessary for the Fort Wayne representatives to be present. The representatives are F. J. Schwanz, of the pipefitters; William Koenig, of the machinists; Edward Siebold, of the boilermakers, and Leo J. Jehl, of the blacksmiths. They will leave tomorrow evening for St. Louis to attend the meeting. The company and the skilled workmen at the various shops on the system are discussing a new wage and working condition agreement. The men first asked an increase of five cents per hour, which was met by an offer of an increase of two and a half cents per hour. This was turned down and Monday at a meeting of the representatives of nineteen roads, of which the Wabash is one, the employes proposed an increase of three cents per hour and an eight hour working day. The answer to this proposition may be announced at the meeting, Friday.

The entertainment at Moose hall last night, which was the first number on the 1916-1917 amusement and lecture calendar of the Electro-Technic club, was all that could have been desired and surely came up to the expectations of the management. There were over 400 present. The program consisted of some musical numbers by Miss Helen Braun on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Miss Dorothy Stroebel, followed by a talk on "Enthusiasm" by Don D. Mungen, of the Wildwood Builders. Then came the dance program, which was interspersed by refreshments, under the management of H. C. Bryan, assisted by several pretty young ladies. The last number of the dance program was rendered at 11:30 o'clock. The entertainment committee, of which Harry Baals is the chairman, is feeling jubilant over the success of the social.

SUCCEEDS ENGINEER CUMMINGS.

Charles E. Baughn has succeeded John W. Cummings at the throttle of Wabash trains 28 and 3 between Peru and Montpelier. It will be remembered that Engineer Cummings died a week ago and his demise will result in several changes in the assignment of passenger runs on this division of the Wabash. The men to be most affected by them are Engineers George Morris, James Cain, J. B. Wells and Robert Devlin. The latter has been handling the throttle between this city and Toledo for three or four years, but he is to give way to Mr. Wells.

DR. J. S. SMITH IS OUT.

Dr. J. Sion Smith, who was painfully injured over a week ago when the buggy in which he, Mrs. Smith and their daughter were riding, was upset by running over a pile of dirt on the approach to the Coombs street bridge, was able to resume his duties at the Bass foundry this morning, though still quite sore. Mrs. Smith, who was bruised and otherwise injured in the accident, is also nearly well. The daughter was not injured.

A. A. SERVA IS CANDIDATE.

A. A. Serva, sales manager of the General Electric works, may be elected for high office in the Elovian order, which is holding a convention in Indianapolis this week. At least this is the aim of a number of delegates, who are booming Mr. Serva, who has taken no active steps in that direction himself. There are a number of other candidates and the election Friday promises to be full of excitement.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS AT CLEVELAND.

The Nickel Plate has let the contract for the elimination of grade crossings in the west side of Cleveland, which will cost many thousands of dollars. The work involves the handling of 100,000 cubic yards of earth at one point, where Walworth run will have to be filled. The contract, which was approved by the city, calls for the handling of 2,500 cubic feet of earth each work day. The Walsh Construction company has the contract.

AT THE MAJESTIC

John S. McGroarty, probably California's greatest living poet and historian and author of "The Mission Play," paid the following tribute to "Ramona" after having witnessed its premiere:

"'Ramona' marks the farthest North in motion pictures. Nothing has yet been done to equal it, either in America or in foreign lands. And it will be long and many a day before anything is done to come anywhere near it.

"Mr. Crisp has caught not only the soul of Helen Hunt Jackson's immortal story, but he has caught also the soul of California itself.

"California and the world will see these pictures. But what a pity it is that Helen Hunt Jackson cannot see them! The heart-break, the tragedy, the deathless beauty—they are all there on the screen. I don't know how much money it cost to make these pictures, or how much money they will bring in. It doesn't matter about that. But what does matter is the fact that 'Ramona' has been filmed and that the job was not bungled."

"An Old Sweetheart of Mine."

James Whitcomb Riley, best beloved poet of the plain people, appealed simply and surely to childhood, youth and old age because he depicted real human beings and got close to nature. He never expressed in his verses, so well known clear around the globe, a morbid or unwholesome thought. They are as fragrant as the breath of springtime or as the crisp tang of autumn breezes. And so by young and old of all degrees they are welcomed to the stage as adapted into drama by Robert McLaughlin of Cleveland, in his new romantic play, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine." The sentimental and humorous composite of Riley sentiment and characters will be acted at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday. It is one of the most welcome events in the history of the American stage and full of grateful promise. It has aroused tremendous interest not only among regular playgoers but thousands of others who do not give special consideration to the theater.

DELEGATES MAKE TRIP TO BIOLOGICAL FARM

Chicago Man Tells Farmers How to Manage Soil for Profit.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—Delegates attending the annual session of the farmers' congress which is being held here today made a trip of inspection to the Morland biological farm near here. Prof. Henry G. Bell, of Chicago, who spoke on the subject "Managing Soil for Profit," presented charts to show that gross returns per acre for corn in the three best corn growing counties of each of the following states, ran as follows: Illinois, 4.2 per cent; Iowa, 3.8 per cent; Indiana, 6 per vent; Ohio, 8.3 per cent; New York, 7.2 per cent; Pennsylvania, 6.3 per cent; Virginia, 8.9 per cent and Maryland, 7.8 per cent.

Prof. Bell then stated that it had been demonstrated by reliable agricultural experiment stations in this country and Europe and by the experience of successful farmers that great profits in increased crop yields and products of superior quality accrues to farmers when fertilizers of suitable analysis are properly used on soil in good physical condition.

"Everybody knows," continued the expert, "that farm labor is becoming scarcer and less reliable. Fortunately, more efficient farm machinery is finding its way on the market. This in itself is a great aid in meeting the labor problem. Approximately as much labor, exclusive of the actual handling of the products at harvest has to be expended on a wheat field whether it yields 10, 20 or 30 bushels to the acre. If the addition of a liberal amount of suitble plant food will obtain the higher yield is it not the essence of good business to make the investment in fertilizer?"

Other speakers on the program today included Clifford Pinchot, who was to talk on "National Control of Water Power," and Dr. H. N. Wheeler, former director of the Rhode Island experiment station, on "Farming the Air."

HATCH SMASHES ALL RECORDS.

Runner Makes Milwaukee-Chicago Trip Under Fifteen Hours.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Sidney Hatch, of Chicago, winner of a score of marathon races, shattered all records for long distance running today when he finished a run from Milwaukee to Chicago—95.7 miles—in 14 hours, 30 minutes and 30 seconds, beating the record for the course held by Al Corey by 4 hours and 17 minutes. Hatch's running mate, Alex Montverde, Johnstown, N. Y., gave way shortly before dawn and dropped out. Hatch ran all the way, made only three brief stops for rub-downs and finished in good condition.

WHEAT PRICES MAKE ANOTHER BIG CHARGE

Market Puts on Bold Front and Takes the $1.55 Trench by Storm.

True to prediction, the wheat market, which has been putting on a bold front for the past few days, made a forward charge Wednesday morning and gained a 3 cent stretch. The top price as offered by local merchants is now $1.55. This is nearly a record price ever offered in this vicinity for grain. The outlook is not very encouraging. It is predicted that the price will gain another trench before the week is over, which will mean a boost of 2 or 3 cents more. The flour prices as a result will also go up soon.

All other Fort Wayne markets were quiet Wednesday, with receipts light and prices unchanged. The hog market seems to be gaining strength, but no change has been quoted in prices. The egg market remains quiet, but with receipts nearly next to nothing the price is bound to rise.

The butter market also gives promise to a rise. The poultry market fell off a cent or two but dealers expect that a recovery of this loss will be made soon.

Thanksgiving turkeys do not promise to be very numerous this year. The country around Fort Wayne has but few and the stock that will be sold here will have to be imported.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Fresh advances in the price of wheat resulted today from a continuance of foreign buying. The chief incentives were drought in Argentine and snow storms in Canada. Opening prices, which ranged from ¼c to 2⅜c higher, with December at $1.64@1.65⅝ and May at $1.65@1.66¼, were followed by a considerable further advance and then something of a reaction.

Corn borrowed strength from wheat. After opening unchanged to 1½c higher, the market scored moderate general gains. Oats responded a little to the upturns in other cereals. Higher quotations on hogs and grain tended to hoist provisions.

New York Grain and Provisions.

BABY BONDS IDEAL FOR SMALL INVESTORS

The rate of interest paid upon any security naturally depends upon the element of speculation which enters into the investment. Smaller investors should always be exceedingly careful [illegible] high returns, for as the rate of interest mounts higher the degree of safety descends lower. In Baby Bonds the small investor finds a security with a rate of return that is as high as he can expect to receive without [illegible] some of the elements of safety which he should look for in an investment. Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations bear six per cent. interest and are secured by first mortgages on local real estate. There are also a few $500 bonds of the same issue, which have the same security and bear the same rate of interest. For other particulars, see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 18.—Specialties, particularly those comprising the paper groups, were again the standard features of today's early operations, advances ranging from 1 to 3 points. Shipping shares, Industrial Alcohol, United States Rubber and some of the coppers also scored material gains, with General Electric and American Linseed issues. United States Steel improved fractionally on its first offering of 5,000 shares, but allied issues were barely firm. Among rails Chesapeake and Ohio and Atlantic Coast Line were conspicuous, rising over a point, with one point gains for Union Pacific, Norfolk and Western and Reading.

Standard stocks reacted sharply before the end of the first hour, selling variously under yesterday's final figures. The movement which savored strongly of a bear drive, based presumably on market uncertainties, was partly readjusted.

Rails, such as Union Pacific, Illinois Central, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Norfolk and Western, guided the list to higher levels. Steel, which had yielded over a point, made almost complete recovery.

Bonds were strong.

It becomes beautifully soft, wavy, abundant and glossy at once.

Save your hair! All dandruff goes and hair stops coming out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Albert H. Schaaf Returns from Trip of the State Tuesday.

"We found that the proposed city planning bill had all of the features which many cities through their park boards and public officials had been trying to work out," declared Albert H. Schaaf, of the realty firm of Hilgemann & Schaaf, and chairman of the city planning committee of the Indiana Real Estate association, Wednesday, on return from the state tour of the association.

Mr. Schaaf was not able to be with the real estate dealers at their closing meetings this afternoon at Anderson and tonight at Marion. Fifteen cities were covered on the tour and in each, Mr. Schaaf says, fine receptions were given. At Gary, South Bend and Elkhart the mayors took decided interest in the project.

Flavel Shurtleff, of New York, secretary of the National City Planning commission, accompanied the realty men on a part of the trip as did John E. Lathrop, when the tourists reached Evansville. Both Mr. Shurtleff and Mr. Lathrop made speeches, together with Mr. Schaaf and Lee J. Ninde, president of the Indiana Real Estate association. It is possible that the city planning exhibit, which was shown here, will be set up in Indianapolis, Terre Haute and perhaps another Indiana city. By this method it is hoped to get the idea of city planning prominently before the people by the time the legislature convenes. The legislature will be asked to pass a city planning bill, making it mandatory for cities of 10,000 or more to establish city planning commissions and leaving it optional with towns under 10,000.

GOOD WOMAN IS CALLED TO HER FINAL REWARD

Mother of William A. Black Passes Away at Home in Lancaster, Ohio.

Word was received by Fort Wayne friends, Wednesday, of the death of Mrs. Nancy Black, well known here, mother of William A. Black, 722 Wagner street, which occurred at her home in Lancaster, Ohio, October 15. Mr. and Mrs. Black have been at the bedside of the former's mother for the past five weeks.

The following from a Lancaster paper tells of Mrs. Black's death:

"After an illness of over two years duration, Mrs. Nancy Black passed quietly away Sunday at half after 12 o'clock at her home on East Wheeling street. All that medical aid and kind hearts could do was done for dear old Mrs. Black, but the Father knew best and called her to her home beyond.

"She is survived by four daughters, four sons, fifteen grandchildren, one brother, Robert Larimer, of Junction City; two sisters Mrs. C. P. Stockley, of Roseville, and Mrs. H. D. Cochran, of New Lexington, and a host of friends and other relatives.

"Rev. E. M. Ellsworth conducted the last sad services over the body at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home. Burial in Forest Rose cemetery."

Mrs. Henry Hitzemann, residing five miles west of the city on the Leesburg road, has been taken to the Lutheran hospital where she submitted to an operation for gallstones. Her condition is most satisfactory.

The condition of Mrs. Thomas L. Comparet, 1022 Lake avenue, is improved. She is a patient at the Lutheran hospital, where she underwent a surgical operation a few days ago.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

OWNER WAS IN THE HAY WHEN HORSE CAME BACK

Animal Tired Out and Besides, Gerke Said, Smokehouse Was Robbed.

Fred Gerke, 50, farmer, living four miles southeast of town, resembles a character in "Old Mother Goose" book for he "wouldn't lend his pony now for all the fellows hire." He had Frank Fordham, 34, laborer, in police court, Wednesday, charged with cruelty to animals.

Fordham hired Gerke's best driving horse, the farmer testified, to make a drive last Thursday. Fordham drove the steed for fourteen hours, Gerke said, and brought the animal back all tired out. Gerke will never rent out another of his horses, he solemnly said in court.

When the horse was not back home at 9 o'clock at night, Gerke went out to wait for Fordham's return, he said. The farmer crawled into the hay to keep warm. He went to sleep. When he awoke at 1 o'clock the horse was in its stall, but a very tired animal, he said.

"But even then I would have kept still, but my summer kitchen and smokehouse were robbed," Gerke explained.

Fordham said he only drove the horse twenty-two miles and not at a rapid gate. He said he returned the animal at 9:30 o'clock and found Gerke sleeping in the hay. The case was continued indefinitely.

Help for Bronchial Trouble and Cough

"Foley's Honey and Tar Compound acts more like a food than a medicine."

Mr. Will G. Richmond, Inglewood, Calif., says:—"I wish to recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as it has greatly benefitted me for bronchial trouble and cough. It acts so well in harmony with nature that it is more like a food than a medicine."

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has a wonderfully quick way of soothing and healing the raw tickling surface of the throat and bronchial tubes. It eases the tightness over the chest, raises the phlegm easily, and helps the stubborn racking cough that is so exhausting and weakening.

It is the best medicine you can buy, and better than anything you can make, for coughs, colds, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, la grippe and bronchial coughs, hoarseness, tickling throat and stuffy wheezy breathing. It contains no opiates, and is acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.
